2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

May 14, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. JOYNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property actions and proceedings law and the real property law, in relation to establishing the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that there is a fundamental human right to adequate housing accommodations. Safe, secure, and accessible housing is essential to achieving equal access to all other fundamental needs. Without housing, individuals and families too often cannot preserve family integrity, gain employment or other income, or enjoy access to healthcare, proper nutrition, and education.

7 8 Legal proceedings that can lead to eviction are generally complex and 9 are governed by a large body of procedural and substantive law that 10 makes these proceedings extremely difficult to navigate without the 11 assistance of counsel. The overwhelming majority of landlords who seek to evict tenants are represented by legal counsel, while in the areas of 13 New York State where there is no right to counsel most tenants are not 14 represented by counsel. Eviction proceedings, displacement as a result of eviction proceedings, and executed evictions all have a disparate impact on people of color, who are respondents in eviction proceedings 16 in numbers that greatly exceed their proportion of the general New York 17 population. Representation of persons who face losing their homes in 18 legal proceedings makes a determinative difference in outcome by 19 20 preserving homes and ensuring compliance with laws that, among other 21 purposes, protect the right to safe and secure living conditions, prohibit discrimination, regulate rents and provide rental subsidies. 23 Representation of persons who face losing their homes in legal proceedings is essential to the fair functioning of the justice system and protects the rights to due process and equal protection of the law.

Evictions disrupt lives and livelihoods, force tenants to seek alter-3 4 native housing in a market with a severe shortage of affordable housing and significantly increase the risk of homelessness. The short- and long-term effects of evictions and homelessness are devastating to individuals and families and can affect physical and mental health, employ-7 ment, education, and engagement with the criminal justice system. 9 Providing legal assistance to tenants who face eviction not only protects individuals and families from the devastating effects of 10 eviction and homelessness, it saves public funds that would otherwise be 11 spent on shelters and services to people experiencing homelessness as 12 well as public expenses for addressing the wide range of detrimental 13 14 short- and long-term effects of eviction and homelessness.

New York is facing an eviction crisis of unfathomable proportions due to the COVID-19 pandemic. According to an analysis of July 15th Census Bureau data, almost half (46 percent) of all renting households in the state were not able to pay rent and are at risk of eviction. In 2017, New York City adopted legislation that guarantees a right to counsel for tenants facing eviction. Even though the right to counsel in eviction proceedings in New York City is still in the implementation phase, a study conducted by the New York City Office of Civil Justice that analyzed data pertaining to New York City Housing Court proceedings from 2013-2019 found that legal representation in eviction matters has an enormously beneficial effect as shown by the following data:

- 1. Evictions dropped 41 percent overall since 2013, including a 15 percent drop in 2019 alone;
- 2. Eviction filings dropped by 30 percent between 2013 and 2019, including a 20 percent drop in 2019 alone;
 - 3. Default judgments dropped 34 percent between 2013 and 2019;
- 4. Requests by tenants to bring their cases back to the Housing Court calendar on an emergency basis dropped by 38 percent during that time period, because tenant representation is ensuring these issues are addressed at the start of the case; and
- 5. Overall, 84 percent of tenants who were represented by counsel remained in their homes.
- § 2. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new article 7-C to read as follows:

39 ARTICLE 7-C 40 CIVIL RIGHT TO COUNSEL 41 IN EVICTION PROCEEDINGS ACT

(j) An evaluation of implementation challenges and recommendations for any future programmatic improvements.

- § 3. Section 701 of the real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:
- 3. Any court maintaining a covered proceeding, as defined by section eight hundred-c of this chapter, shall notify all respondents by mail upon filing of a petition, not less than fourteen days before trial, of such respondent's civil right to counsel in an eviction proceeding under article seven-C of this chapter.
- § 4. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 711 of the real property actions and proceedings law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 305 of the laws of 1963 and subdivision 2 as amended by section 12 of part M of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:
- The tenant continues in possession of any portion of the premises after the expiration of his term, without the permission of the landlord or, in a case where a new lessee is entitled to possession, without the permission of the new lessee. Acceptance of rent after commencement of the special proceeding upon this ground shall not terminate such proceeding nor effect any award of possession to the landlord or to the new lessee, as the case may be. A proceeding seeking to recover possession of real property by reason of the termination of the term fixed in the lease pursuant to a provision contained therein giving the landlord the right to terminate the time fixed for occupancy under such agreement if he deem the tenant objectionable, shall not be maintainable unless the landlord shall by competent evidence establish to the satisfaction of the court that the tenant is objectionable. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court shall accept for filing, any petition to recover possession of real property unless the petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affidavit attesting that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided the respondent with written notice, in the notice of petition and any required predicate notice, of such respondent's right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter.
- 2. The tenant has defaulted in the payment of rent, pursuant to the agreement under which the premises are held, and a written demand of the rent has been made with at least fourteen days' notice requiring, in the alternative, the payment of the rent, or the possession of the premises, has been served upon him as prescribed in section seven hundred thirtyfive of this article. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court shall accept filing for any petition for non-payment of rent unless the written demand for rent required by this section contains a notice of the respondent's civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings, as required by subdivision six of section seven hundred forty-one of this article. Any person succeeding to the landlord's interest in the premises may proceed under this subdivision for rent due his predecessor in interest if he has a right thereto. Where a tenant dies during the term of the lease and rent due has not been paid and the apartment is occupied by a person with a claim to possession, a proceeding may be commenced naming the occupants of the apartment seeking a possessory judgment only as against the estate. Entry of such a judgment shall be without prejudice to the possessory claims of the occupants, and any warrant issued shall not be effective as against the occupants.
- § 5. Section 713 of the real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:
- 12. No proceeding shall be maintained, and no court shall accept for filing, any petition to recover possession of real property unless the petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affidavit attesting that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided the respondent with written notice, in the notice of petition and any required predicate notice, of such respondent's right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter.

- § 6. Section 741 of the real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding three new subdivisions 6, 7 and 8 to read as follows:
- 6. Notify the respondent of the existence of the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter, and shall provide a phone number, website address and other information to assist the respondent in securing counsel.
- 7. State the right to an adjournment of the proceedings until a covered individual, as defined in section eight hundred-c of this chapter, is able to retain and consult with counsel.
- 8. State that any and all predicate notices served upon the respondent included notice of the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of this chapter, and provided a phone number, website address and other information to assist the respondent in securing counsel.
- § 7. Section 745 of the real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:
- 3. Where a respondent who is a covered individual under article seven-C of this chapter appears in court without counsel, the court shall notify such respondent orally of the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings established by article seven-C of this chapter, and if such respondent would like counsel, the court shall adjourn the trial and provide sufficient time, not less than fourteen days, for such respondent to retain and consult counsel and shall grant such further adjournments as the court deems necessary for such covered individual to obtain counsel.
- § 8. Subdivisions 1 and 3 of section 749 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as amended by section 19 of part M of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:
- 1. Upon rendering a final judgment for petitioner, the court shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of the county or to any constable or marshal of the city in which the property, or a portion thereof, is situated, or, if it is not situated in a city, to any constable of any town in the county, describing the property, stating the earliest date upon which execution may occur pursuant to the order of the court, and commanding the officer to remove all persons named in the proceed-ing, provided upon a showing of good cause, the court may issue a stay of re-letting or renovation of the premises for a reasonable period of time. However, no court shall issue a judgment authorizing the issuance a warrant of eviction against a respondent who has defaulted, or authorize the execution of an eviction pursuant to a default judgment, unless the petitioner or an agent of the petitioner has filed an affida-vit attesting that the petitioner or the petitioner's agent has provided the respondent with written notice of the respondent's civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings in the notice of petition and in any predicate notice as required by sections seven hundred eleven, seven hundred forty-one and seven hundred forty-five of this article.
- 3. Nothing contained herein shall deprive the court of the power to stay or vacate such warrant for good cause shown prior to the execution thereof, or to restore the tenant to possession subsequent to execution of the warrant. The failure of the court or the petitioner to comply with the civil right to counsel in eviction proceedings pursuant to article seven-C of this chapter shall constitute good cause to vacate such warrant. In a judgment for non-payment of rent, the court shall vacate a warrant upon tender or deposit with the court of the full rent due at any time prior to its execution, unless the petitioner establishes that the tenant withheld the rent due in bad faith. Petitioner may recover by action any sum of money which was payable at the time when the special proceeding was commenced and the reasonable value of the use and occupation to the time when the warrant was issued, for any period of time with respect to which the agreement does not make any provision for payment of rent.

- 11 § 9. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 235-i to 12 read as follows:
- § 235-i. Lease provisions waiving right to counsel void. Any provision of a lease or contract waiving or limiting the right to counsel in eviction proceedings under article seven-C of the real property actions and proceedings law shall be void.
- 17 § 10. This act shall take effect immediately.
