- AN ACT to amend the executive law, the real property actions and proceedings law and the real property law, in relation to establishing the New York state office of civil representation to provide access to legal services in eviction proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. Eviction proceedings have a 2 profoundly disparate impact on low-income individuals and given this 3 disparate impact, it is imperative that these individuals be provided 4 legal representation in legal proceedings that put their housing at 5 risk. Additionally, because eviction proceedings can be complex, all New 6 Yorkers should be apprised of the process as well as their rights and 7 remedies in such proceedings.

8 There is a fundamental human right to adequate housing accommodations. 9 Safe, secure, and accessible housing is essential to achieving equal 10 access to all other fundamental needs. Without housing, individuals and

2	other income, or enjoy access to healthcare, proper nutrition, and
3	education.
4	Eviction proceedings and displacement as a result of evictions have a
5	disparate impact on low-income individuals and particularly on low-in-
6	come people of color, who are disproportionately the respondents in
7	eviction proceedings.
8	Representation of the people who are most at risk of losing their
9	homes in legal proceedings preserves access to housing and ensures
10	compliance with laws protecting people's rights in such proceedings.
11	Abrupt, unwarranted, or unlawful evictions disrupt lives and liveli-
12	hoods, force people to find housing in a market with a severe shortage
13	of affordable housing and often significantly increases the risk of
14	homelessness. The short- and long-term effects of housing instability
15	are devastating to individuals and families and can affect physical and
16	mental health, employment and education. Providing legal assistance to 17	individuals who are most at risk of housing instability not only
18	protects individuals and families from these devastating effects, it
19	saves public funds that would otherwise be spent on shelters and
20	services to people experiencing homelessness as well as the wide range
21	of detrimental short- and long-term collateral consequences of housing
22	instability.
23	§ 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new article 29 to read
24	as follows:

No proceeding shall be maintained unless the court has notified an individual of the ability to obtain legal representation 18 19 or legal consultation, as applicable, pursuant to section eight hundred thirty of the executive law. Any person succeeding to the landlord's 20 21 interest in the premises may proceed under this subdivision for rent due 22 his predecessor in interest if he has a right thereto. 42 § 10. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day 43 after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that sections three 44 through eight of this act shall take effect three years after such date.
