1 ty established by this chapter nor shall any elected official or municipi-
2 pal, county or state officer or employee take any position, whether paid 3 or unpaid, with any business or entity doing business with an industrial 4 development authority or any business or entity applying for any tax
5 exemption or benefit determined or granted by an industrial development
6 authority or receiving any tax exemption or benefit determined or grant-7 ed by an industrial development authority while such elected official or 8 municipal, county or state officer or employee is serving or employed or 9 within a period of three years after such termination of the elected 10 official or municipal, county or state officer or employee or independ-11 ent contractor's position as an elected official or state, county or 12 municipal officer or employee.

13 4. Any person who violates the provisions of subdivision two or three 14 of this section and is compensated or receives any benefit due to such 15 violation shall pay restitution to the industrial development authority 16 for which such person held a position equal to the amount of compen-
17 sation or benefit received by such person. In addition, such person 18 shall pay a civil penalty to such industrial development authority equal 19 to ten times the amount to be restituted to such industrial development 20 authority. Such restitution and penalty shall be in addition to any 21 criminal liability or penalty.

22 § 2. Section 73 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new 23 subdivision 19 to read as follows:

24 19. No person serving as a statewide elected official or state officer 25 or employee shall serve as a member, officer, trustee, employee or inde-26 pendent contractor of an industrial development authority established by 27 the general municipal law nor shall any statewide elected official or 28 state officer or employee take any position, whether paid or unpaid, 29 with any business or entity doing business with an industrial develop-30 ment authority or any business or entity applying for any tax exemption 31 or benefit determined or granted by an industrial development authority 32 or receiving any tax exemption or benefit determined or granted by an 33 industrial development authority while such statewide elected official 34 or state officer or employee is serving or employed or within a period 35 of three years after the termination of such service or employment. Any 36 person who violates the provisions of this subdivision shall be subject 37 to the penalties laid out in subdivision four of section eight hundred 38 eighty-three of the general municipal law.

39 § 3. Paragraphs c and d of subdivision 1 of section 805-a of the 40 general municipal law, as amended by chapter 813 of the laws of 1987, 41 are amended and a new paragraph e is added to read as follows:

42 c. receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for 43 compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter
44 before any municipal agency of which he is an officer, member or employ-

46 he has the power to appoint any member, officer or employee; ~~or~~

47 d. receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for 48 compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter
49 before any agency of his municipality, whereby his compensation is to be 50 dependent or contingent upon any action by such agency with respect to 51 such matter, provided that this paragraph shall not prohibit the fixing 52 at any time of fees based upon the reasonable value of the services 53 rendered~~[-]~~; or

54 e. serve as a member, officer, trustee, employee or independent 55 contractor of an industrial development authority established by this 56 chapter nor take any position, whether paid or unpaid, with any business

1 or entity doing business with an industrial development authority or any 2 business or entity applying for any tax exemption or benefit determined 3 or granted by an industrial development authority or receiving any tax
4 exemption or benefit determined or granted by an industrial development 5 authority while such municipal officer or employee is serving or 6 employed or within a period of three years after such termination of the 7 municipal officer or employee's position.

8 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
