Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring de-escalation training for police officers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 840 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. The council shall, in addition:

4 (a) Develop, maintain and disseminate written policies and procedures
5 regarding interactions that may require de-escalation techniques. For 6 the purposes of this subdivision, "de-escalation techniques" shall mean 7 the use of non-violent strategies and techniques to decrease the inten-
8 sity of a situation, improve decision-making, improve communication,
9 reduce the need for force and increase voluntary compliance. Such poli-
10 cies and procedures shall make provisions for the education and training 11 of new and veteran police officers on the recognition of and response to 12 interactions where de-escalation techniques are required and the appro-13 priate de-escalation techniques to use in such interaction; and

14 (b) Recommend to the governor, rules and regulations with respect to 15 the establishment and implementation on an ongoing basis of a training 16 program for all current and new police officers regarding the policies 17 and procedures established pursuant to this subdivision, along with 18 recommendations for periodic retraining of police officers.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 20 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 21 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 22 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before 23 such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
