§ 205. Human trafficking awareness and training. 1. Human trafficking 4 recognition training program. a. For purposes of this section, "lodging facility" shall mean any inn, hotel, motel, motor court or other establishment that provides lodging to transient quests. Such term shall not include an establishment treated as a dwelling unit for the purposes of any state or local law or regulation or an establishment located within a building that has five or less rooms for rent or hire and that is 10 actually occupied as a residence by the proprietor of such establish-

b. Every lodging facility shall require all employees who are likely to interact or come into contact with guests to undergo a human traf-13 ficking recognition training program to provide training in the recognition of a human trafficking victim as defined in section four hundred eighty-three-aa of the social services law. Such training program shall 17 be established or approved by the division of criminal justice services and the office of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York state interagency task force on human trafficking. The 20 training program may be developed by a federal, state, or non-profit 21 organization, and may be incorporated as part of the lodging facility's

- (ii) how human trafficking is defined in law;
- 16 (iii) how to identify victims of human trafficking;
 - (iv) relief and recovery options for survivors; and
- (v) social and legal services available to victims. 18
- d. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the commissioner of the office of temporary and disability assistance 20 21 shall make available a list of established or approved human trafficking recognition programs for use by a lodging facility. 22
- e. All new employees required to receive human trafficking recognition 23 24 training shall receive such training within their first month of employ-25 ment.
- 26 f. The training shall take place on the premises of the lodging facil-27 ity and shall be considered compensable time.
 - 2. Record keeping requirements of human trafficking recognition training. Every keeper of each lodging facility shall maintain records indicating that each employee required to undergo an established or approved human trafficking recognition training program pursuant to this section has completed such training. Such records shall be kept on file by the lodging facility for the period during which the employee is employed by the lodging facility and for one year after such employment ends.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 35 36 have become a law; provided however, paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 205 of the general business law, as added by section one of this 37 act shall take effect immediately; provided further that all applicable 38 current employees of a lodging facility on the effective date of this 39 act shall receive human trafficking recognition training within four 40 41 months of the effective date of this act.
