IN ASSEMBLY

January 31, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. KIM -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to the responsibilities of nursing homes during pandemics; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 21 of the public health law is amended by adding a 2 new title 9 to read as follows:

TITLE IX

RESPONSIBILITIES OF NURSING HOME DURING PANDEMICS

Section 2187. Definitions.

2188. Responsibilities of nursing home during pandemics.

7 § 2187. Definitions. The following words and phrases when used in this 8 article shall have, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the 9 meanings given to them in this section:

10 1. "Public health emergency" means any declared state of emergency 11 made in response to an outbreak of an infectious disease and shall 12 include the novel coronavirus outbreak, COVID-19.

13 2. "Nursing home" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 14 twenty-eight hundred one of this chapter and shall include adult homes, 15 enriched housing programs, assisted living residences and residential 16 health care facilities as defined in such section.

17 3. "Resident" means a resident of a nursing home located in the state
18 and an infectious disease caused or contributed to such resident's
19 death, as documented on such resident's death certificate, or as certi-20 fied by a physician, nurse practitioner, or physician's assistant 21 currently in good standing in any state or the District of Columbia, or 22 a physician, nurse practitioner, or physician's assistant authorized to 23 practice in New York by executive order during the declared public 24 health emergency who determines with a reasonable degree of medical 25 certainty that the infectious disease caused or contributed to the resi-
26 dent's death. Resident shall include any temporary resident of a nurs-

1 ing home who is receiving subacute rehabilitation care or temporary 2 rehabilitation care.

3 4. "Domestic partner" shall have the same meaning as contained in 4 section twenty-nine hundred sixty-one of this chapter.

5 § 2188. Responsibilities of nursing home during pandemics. 1.
6 Notwithstanding any law, rule, executive order, or regulation to the 7 contrary, during a public health emergency every nursing home shall:

8 (a) comply with all state and federal statutes and regulations, execu-
9 tive orders and centers for disease control and prevention guidelines 10 issued in response to such public health emergency; and

11 (b) follow all basic infection control protocols and guidelines relat-12 ing to proper infection prevention and control.

13 2. In an action to recover damages from a nursing home for the wrong-
14 ful death of a resident during a public health emergency, proof that a 15 nursing home failed to comply with any of the following as they relate 16 to the public health emergency shall be presumed to be negligence and 17 the cause of the resident contracting the infectious disease:

18 (a) state or federal statutes or regulations;

19 (b) executive orders;

20 (c) centers for disease control and prevention guidelines; or

21 (d) basic infection control practices, relating to proper infection
22 prevention and control practices.

23 3. The presumption established by this article shall only be rebutted
24 by credible and reliable evidence which establishes that the resident's 25 own conduct was the sole proximate cause of the resident contracting 26 such disease.

27 4. In addition to any other lawful element of damages that may be 28 recoverable by reason of the death of the resident, the resident's
29 surviving grandparents, parents, siblings, spouse, domestic partner, 30 children and grandchildren shall be entitled to recover damages for 31 their respective non-pecuniary injuries, including: grief or anguish 32 caused by the resident's death, and for any disorder caused by such 33 grief or anguish, loss of love, society, protection, comfort, companion-34 ship, and consortium resulting from the resident's death; and loss of 35 nurture, guidance, counsel, advice, training, and education resulting 36 from the resident's death. Any such claim for non-pecuniary injuries 37 shall be brought by the residents' personal representative.

38 5. Any agreement purporting to limit the liability of a nursing home 39 for damages or purporting to limit the remedies of the resident or those 40 seeking damages pursuant to this article is contrary to the public poli-41 cy of this state and absolutely void.

42 6. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all civil 43 claims or causes of action brought by any person for damages against a 44 nursing home for personal injuries or the death of a resident during the 45 novel coronavirus outbreak, COVID-19, including an action pursuant to 46 section twenty-eight hundred one-d of this chapter, may be commenced 47 within two years after the effective date of this title.

48 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 49 deemed repealed January 1, 2035.
