AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the office of children and family services to submit an annual report about juvenile recidivism and cost of juvenile incarceration

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 501-i 2 to read as follows:

3 § 501-i. Annual report. 1. The office of children and family services 4 shall complete and submit to the speaker of the assembly and the tempo-5 rary president of the senate on an annual basis a report containing the 6 following information:

7 (a) the recidivism rate for juvenile offenders, youthful offenders and 8 adolescent offenders, and the sentence imposed on each such offender for 9 each new case against such offender;

10 (b) the age, race, and socioeconomic status of incarcerated youth, and 11 the duration of time that youth are held pre-trial;

12 (c) the annual cost of incarceration for convicted juvenile offenders,
13 youthful offenders and adolescent offenders, including any such offen-14 ders sentenced to adult detention facilities, disaggregated by type of 15 facility; and

16 (d) the annual cost of pretrial detention for juvenile offenders,
17 youthful offenders and adolescent offenders, including any such offen-
18 ders detained in adult detention facilities, disaggregated by type of 19 facility.

20 2. The report required pursuant to subdivision one of this section 21 shall be submitted to the speaker of the assembly and the temporary 22 president of the senate and shall be published on the office of children
23 and family services' website no later than February first of each year.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
