9 § 480. Legislative intent. It is hereby found and declared that New 10 York state needs, as a matter of public policy, to cultivate a resource 11 of commercial, industrial sites that are readily available to new busi-
12 nesses, established businesses that are considering moving to the state, 13 or existing businesses within the state that need additional sites to 14 remain or expand within the state. To expand and sustain economic growth 15 within the state, it is critical to consistently maintain readily avail-
16 able commercial, industrial sites to attract new business, or expand
17 existing businesses. Without a stable inventory of sites that are ready 18 or able to be developed in a timely manner for business use, the delay 19 in converting undeveloped sites capable of conducting business in 20 compliance with applicable regulations and ordinances may cause the 21 state to lose significant business opportunities that would benefit the 22 economic well-being of its citizens.

23 § 481. Administration. In furtherance of these purposes, the depart-24 ment is hereby authorized and directed to:

25 (a) Establish the strategic site readiness fund ("fund") to provide 26 economic assistance for renovation, construction, or other improvements 27 to infrastructure to attract new businesses to this state, or expand

7 utility, broadband, transportation, enabling, and demolition;

8 (c) Include in the application process, a requirement for each project 9 to include a strategy to ensure residents in the surrounding area of the 10 project will have access to the jobs created by the project;

11 (d) Develop rules and regulations to distribute funding through the 12 regional economic development councils in accordance with section two

23 (c) Such fund shall consist of all monies appropriated, credited, or 24 transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.

25 § 483. Reporting. (a) The department shall, annually on or before

40 department shall submit a report no later than November first to the 41 governor, the director of the budget, the temporary president of the 42 senate, and the speaker of the assembly on the aggregate impact of the 43 fund. Such report shall provide information on the progress and economic
