

STATE OF NEW YORK

9287

IN ASSEMBLY

February 23, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. EICHENSTEIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the appointment of impartial hearing officers to hear appeals of determinations regarding children with handicapping conditions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 4404 of the educa-
2 tion law, as amended by section 1 of chapter 583 of the laws of 2007, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 c. Individuals so appointed by a board of education or a state agency
5 shall be selected from a list of available impartial hearing officers 6 who have successfully completed an impartial hearing officer training 7 program conducted by the department according to a rotation selection
8 process prescribed in regulations of the commissioner. Individuals so 9 appointed shall not be an employee of the state educational agency or 10 the local educational agency involved in the education or care of the 11 child, or of any public agency or a person having a personal or profes-12 sional interest that conflicts with the person's objectivity in the 13 hearing; nor may the impartial hearing officer be an employee of a muni-14 cipality in which the school district is located or of any of its agen-
15 cies or instrumentalities; except that a city school district of a city
16 having a population of more than one million inhabitants shall be exempt
17 from such regulations to the extent it maintains its rotational
18 selection process in effect prior to July first, nineteen hundred nine-
19 ty-three. A record of proceedings before the impartial hearing officer 20 shall be maintained and made available to the parties, and the hearing 21 shall be conducted in accordance with the regulations of the commission-22 er. The board of education or trustees of the school district or the 23 state agency responsible for providing education to students with disa-
24 bilities shall have the burden of proof, including the burden of persua-25 sion and burden of production, in any such impartial hearing, except 26 that a parent or person in parental relation seeking tuition reimburse-27 ment for a unilateral parental placement shall have the burden of

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14480-01-2

persuasion and burden of production on the appropriateness of such placement. The decision of the impartial hearing officer shall be binding upon both parties unless appealed to the state review officer. The commissioner shall establish a department training program which shall be completed to the satisfaction of the commissioner as a condition of certification. Impartial hearing officers shall have the qualifications specified in subsection (f) of section fourteen hundred fifteen of title twenty of the United States code, the implementing federal regulations and the regulations of the commissioner. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to ensure that no individual employed, controlled, managed or supervised by a municipality or any department or agency therein, shall serve as an impartial hearing officer to preside over hearings in or concerning a school district located within that municipality, no individual employed by a school district, school or program serving students with disabilities placed by a school district committee on special education acts as an impartial hearing officer and that no individual employed by such schools or programs serves as an impartial hearing officer for two years following the termination of such employment. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations establishing procedures for the suspension or revocation of impartial hearing officer certification for good cause. The commissioner shall establish maximum rates for the compensation of impartial hearing officers subject to the approval of the director of the division of the budget.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 4404 of the education law, as amended by section 2 of chapter 583 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

1. If the recommendation of the committee on special education is not acceptable to the parent or person in parental relationship of a student, or if the committee or board of education or trustees fails to make or effectuate such a recommendation within such periods of time as may be required by regulations of the commissioner, such parents or persons in parental relationship shall notify the board of education of this situation and the board shall appoint an impartial hearing officer to hear the appeal and make a determination within such period of time as the commissioner by regulation shall determine, provided that the board of education or trustees shall offer the parent or person in parental relationship the option of mediation pursuant to section forty-four hundred four-a of this article as an alternative to an impartial hearing. Individuals so appointed by a board of education shall be selected from a list of available hearing officers who have successfully completed a hearing officer training program conducted by the department according to a rotation selection process prescribed in regulations of the commissioner; except that a city school district of a city having a population of more than one million inhabitants shall be exempt from such regulations to the extent it maintains its rotational selection process in effect prior to July first, nineteen hundred ninety-three. Individuals so appointed shall not be an employee of the state educational agency or the local educational agency involved in the education or care of the child, or of any public agency or a person having a personal or professional interest that conflicts with the person's objectivity in the hearing; nor may the impartial hearing officer be an employee of a municipality in which the school district is located or of any of its agencies or instrumentalities. A record of proceedings before the hearing officer shall be maintained and made available to the parties. The board of education or trustees of the school district or the state agency responsible for providing education to students with

1 disabilities shall have the burden of proof, including the burden of 2 persuasion and burden of production, in any such impartial hearing,
3 except that a parent or person in parental relation seeking tuition
4 reimbursement for a unilateral parental placement shall have the burden 5 of persuasion and burden of production on the appropriateness of such 6 placement. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding upon 7 both parties unless appealed to the state review officer. The commis-8 sioner shall establish a department training program which shall be 9 completed to the satisfaction of the commissioner as a condition of 10 certification. The commissioner shall develop and implement a plan to 11 ensure that no individual employed by a school district, school or 12 program serving students with disabilities placed by a school district
13 committee on special education acts as an impartial hearing officer, 14 that no individual employed, controlled, managed or supervised by a 15 municipality or any department or agency therein shall serve as an 16 impartial hearing officer to preside over hearings in or concerning a 17 school district located within that municipality and that no individual 18 employed by such schools or programs serves as an impartial hearing 19 officer for two years following the termination of such employment. Such 20 plan shall be fully implemented no later than July first, nineteen
21 hundred ninety-six. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations estab-22 lishing procedures for the suspension or revocation of impartial hearing
23 officer certification for good cause. The commissioner shall establish 24 maximum rates for the compensation of impartial hearing officers subject 25 to the approval of the director of the division of the budget. The 26 commissioner shall promulgate regulations establishing procedures and 27 timelines for expedited hearings in cases involving: (a) review of a 28 decision that a student with a disability's behavior was not a manifes-29 tation of such student's disability, or (b) review of an interim alter-30 native educational setting or other placement to the extent required
31 under federal law, or (c) a request by the school district for a deter-32 mination that maintaining the current educational placement of the 33 student is substantially likely to result in injury to the student or to 34 others.

35 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 36 the amendments to paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 4404 of the 37 education law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the 38 expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to section 22 of 39 chapter 352 of the laws of 2005, as amended, when upon such date the 40 provisions of section two of this act shall take effect.