IN ASSEMBLY

March 10, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. SAYEGH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the state finance law and the retirement and social security law, in relation to enacting the "stop Russian aggression act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "stop Russian aggression act".
- \S 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 165-b to 4 read as follows:
- 5 § 165-b. Purchasing restrictions; persons doing business with or in
 6 the Russian federation. 1. As used in this section, the following terms
 7 shall have the following meanings:
 - (a) "Person" means:

- 9 (i) A natural person, corporation, company, limited liability company,
 10 business, business association, partnership, society, trust, or any
 11 other nongovernmental entity, organization, or group.
- 12 (ii) Any successor, subunit, parent entity, or subsidiary of, or any
 13 entity under common ownership or control with, any entity described in
 14 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.
- 15 (b) "Doing business with or in the Russian federation" means engaging 16 in any activity or transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary
 17 gain or profit with the Russian federation or persons based in or with 18 locations in the Russian federation or in territories controlled by the 19 Russian federation.
- 20 2. (a) A person that is identified on a list created pursuant to para21 graph (b) of this subdivision as a person that is doing business with or 22 in the Russian federation as described in subdivision one of this 23 section, shall not be deemed a responsive bidder or offeror pursuant to 24 section one hundred sixty-three of this article.
- 25 (b) (i) Not later than one hundred twenty days after the effective 26 date of this section, the commissioner shall develop or contract to 27 develop, using credible information available to the public, including but not limited to information provided by non-profit organizations, research firms, international organizations and government entities, a list of persons it determines is doing business with or in the Russian federation as described in subdivision one of this section. If the commissioner has contracted to develop the list, the list shall be finally developed not later than one hundred twenty days after the effective date of this section. Such list, when completed, shall be posted on the website of the office of general services. A statement by a person or representative of a person with apparent authority to make such a statement, that it is doing business with or in the Russian federation, shall be considered as evidence that a company is doing business with or in the Russian federation. The commissioner may exclude from the list persons who engage in activities or transactions of nominal or negligible value.

- 15 (ii) The commissioner shall update the list every one hundred eighty 16 days.
 - (iii) Before finalizing an initial list pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph or an updated list pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, the commissioner shall do all of the following:
 - (1) Provide ninety days' written notice of the commissioner's intent to include the person on the list. The notice shall inform the person that inclusion on the list would make the person a non-responsive bidder or offeror. The notice shall specify the business activities as described in subdivision one of this section, and provide that such person may apply to the commissioner, or to a supreme court, to be removed from such list pursuant to the requirements of this paragraph, if it ceases such activities;
 - (2) In the event a person included by the commissioner on the list to be developed and published in accordance with this paragraph, demonstrates to the commissioner or to a supreme court that such person is not engaged in such business activities as described in subdivision one of this section, or has ceased such business activities, the commissioner shall remove such person from the list developed and published in accordance with this paragraph; and
- 35 (3) The commissioner shall make a good faith effort to avoid including 36 a person on the list who is not doing business with or in the Russian 37 federation.
 - (c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, a state agency may permit a person doing business with or in the Russian federation as described by subdivision one of this section to be deemed a responsive bidder or offeror, on a case-by-case basis with a state agency if:
 - (i) The business activities were made before the effective date of this section, such activities have not been expanded or renewed after the effective date of this section, and the person has adopted, publicized, and is implementing a plan to cease such activities and to refrain from engaging in any new business activities; or
 - (ii) The state agency makes a determination that the commodities or services are necessary for the state agency to perform its functions and that, absent such an exemption, the state agency would be unable to obtain the commodities or services for which the contract is offered. Such determination shall be entered into the procurement record.
- 3. (a) A state agency shall require a person that submits a bid or offer in response to a notice of procurement, or that proposes to renew an existing procurement contract with a state agency or proposes to assume the responsibility of a contractor pursuant to a procurement contract with a state agency or otherwise proposes to enter into a contract with a state agency with respect to a contract for commodities, services, construction, or contracts entered pursuant to section eight 4 of the public buildings law or section thirty-eight of the highway law, 5 to certify, at the time the bid is submitted or the contract is renewed or assigned, that the person or the assignee is not identified on a list 7 created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section. A 8 state agency shall include certification information in the procurement 9 record.

- (b) A person that submits a bid or offer in response to a notice of procurement or that proposes to renew an existing procurement contract with a state agency or proposes to assume the responsibility of a contractor pursuant to a procurement contract with a state agency, or otherwise proposes to enter into a contract with a state agency with respect to a contract for commodities, services, construction, or contracts entered pursuant to section eight of the public buildings law or section thirty-eight of the highway law shall not utilize, on the contract with the state agency, any subcontractor that is identified on a list created pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section.
- 4. Upon receiving information that a person who has made the certification required by subdivision three of this section is in violation thereof, the state agency shall review such information and offer the person an opportunity to respond. If the person fails to demonstrate that it has ceased its business activities which are in violation of this act within ninety days after the determination of such violation, then the state agency shall take such action as may be appropriate and provided for by law, rule or contract, including, but not limited to, imposing sanctions, seeking compliance, recovering damages or declaring the contractor in default.
- 31 5. The commissioner shall report to the governor, comptroller, the 32 temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly annu-33 ally on or before October first, on the status of this section and any 34 rules or regulations adopted thereunder.
- § 3. The retirement and social security law is amended by adding a new 35 36 section 423-d to read as follows:
 - § 423-d. Russian business divestment. 1. As used in this section:
 - a. "Person" means:

2. a. Within six months of the effective date of this section, the comptroller shall create an exclusion list of all persons doing business with or in the Russian federation in whose stocks, securities, equities, assets, or other obligations the common retirement fund has any moneys or assets directly invested.

- b. Upon completion of the exclusion list, it shall be made publicly available, and a copy shall be sent to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly.
- c. The comptroller shall submit notification to any person that has 9 10 been included in the exclusion list informing them of their inclusion, 11 as well as the requirements of subdivisions three and five of this 12 section.
 - d. At the comptroller's discretion, but no later than two years after completion of the exclusion list, and no less frequently than annually thereafter, the comptroller shall update the exclusion list to remove any person that is no longer doing business with or in the Russian federation, and add any person necessary to comply with paragraph a of this subdivision, with the exception of such persons removed from the exclusion list pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision four of this section.
 - 3. a. At any time following the publication of the exclusion list, any person included in the list may submit to the comptroller a request for removal on the basis of clear and convincing evidence that they are not currently doing business with or in the Russian federation as defined in subdivision one of this section or that they will no longer meet such definition by January first, two thousand thirty.
 - b. Upon satisfaction that a person has met the requirements of paragraph a of this subdivision, the comptroller shall remove that corporation or company from the exclusion list, and provide a written explanation for such removal to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly.
 - 4. a. Within six months from the completion of the exclusion list the comptroller shall issue a determination as to whether divestment from any or all persons on the exclusion list, in whole or in part, pursuant to subdivision five of this section complies with his or her fiduciary obligations and the prudent investor rule as defined by section 11-2.3 of the estates, powers and trusts law. The comptroller shall make such determination publicly available and a copy shall be sent to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly.
 - b. If the comptroller determines that divestment from any person on the exclusion list does not comply with his or her fiduciary obligations and the prudent investor rule as defined by section 11-2.3 of the estates, powers and trusts law, that person shall be removed from the exclusion list.
 - c. At any time, subject to the comptroller's discretion, but no later than two years from the effective date of this section, and every two years thereafter, any person removed from the exclusion list pursuant to paragraph b of this subdivision shall be returned to the exclusion list, subject to a new determination of prudence issued at that time pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision.
- 5. a. Commencing one year after the effective date of this section, 52 subject to an affirmative determination of prudence pursuant to subdivision four of this section, and in accordance with sound investment 53 criteria and consistent with his or her fiduciary obligations, the comp-54 troller shall: (i) divest the common retirement fund of any stocks, 55 securities, equities, assets, or other obligations of persons on the 56 exclusion list in which any moneys or assets of the common retirement fund are directly invested; and (ii) cease new direct investments of any moneys or assets of the common retirement fund in any stocks, securities, or other obligations of any person doing business with or in the Russian federation.

- b. Divestment from persons doing business with or in the Russian federation pursuant to this subdivision shall be completed no later than two years from the effective date of this section. Divestment from persons doing business with or in the Russian federation returned to the exclusion list pursuant to paragraph c of subdivision four of this section shall be completed no later than two years from the date of return to the exclusion list.
- 6. Commencing one year after the effective date of this section, and 13 no later than five years from the effective date of this section, 14 15 subject to an affirmative determination of prudence pursuant to subdivision four of this section, and in accordance with sound investment 16 17 criteria and consistent with his or her fiduciary obligations, the comptroller shall endeavor to ensure that no moneys or assets of the common 18 retirement fund are invested in an indirect investment vehicle unless he 19 20 or she is satisfied on reasonable grounds that such indirect investment 21 vehicle is unlikely to have in excess of two percent of its assets, 22 averaged annually, directly or indirectly invested in persons doing 23 business with or in the Russian federation.
 - 7. Commencing two years after the effective date of this section and annually thereafter the comptroller shall issue a report to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly, and shall make such report publicly available, outlining all actions taken to comply with this section.
 - § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
