~~subject the individual to the jurisdiction of the court. For the purposes of this section, an officer may rely on various factors to determine a person's identity, including but not limited to personal knowledge of such person, such person's self-identification, or photographic identification. ~~(viii) it reasonably appears to the officer, based on the observed behavior of the individual in the present contact with the officer and facts regarding the person's condition that indicates a sign of distress to such a degree that the person would face harm without immediate medical or mental health care, that bringing the person before the court would be in such person's interest in addressing that need; provided, however, that before making the arrest, the officer shall make all reasonable efforts to assist the person in securing appropriate services.]~~

§ 3. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 150.30 to read as follows:

§ 150.30 Appearance ticket; issuance and service thereof after arrest upon posting of pre-arraignment bail.

1. Issuance and service of an appearance ticket by a police officer following an arrest without a warrant, as prescribed in subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article, may be made conditional upon the posting of a sum of money, known as pre-arraignment bail. In such case, the bail becomes forfeit upon failure of such person to comply with the directions of the appearance ticket. The person posting such bail must complete and sign a form which states (a) the name, residential address and occupation of each person posting cash bail; and (b) the title of the criminal action or proceeding involved; and (c) the offense or offenses which are the subjects of the action or proceeding involved, and the status of such action or proceeding; and (d) the name of the principal and the nature of his or her involvement in or connection with such action or proceeding; and (e) the date of the principal's next appearance in court; and (f) an acknowledgement that the cash bail will be forfeited if the principal does not comply with the directions of the

1 appearance ticket; and (g) the amount of money posted as cash bail. Such 2 pre-arraignment bail may be posted as provided in subdivision two or 3 three of this section.

4 2. A desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail, or 5 police headquarters, or any of his or her superior officers, may in such
6 place, fix pre-arraignment bail, in an amount prescribed in this subdi-
7 vision, and upon the posting thereof must issue and serve an appearance
8 ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, and 9 release such person from custody. Such pre-arraignment bail may be fixed 10 in the following amounts:

11 (a) If the arrest was for a class E felony, any amount not exceeding 12 seven hundred fifty dollars.

13 (b) If the arrest was for a class A misdemeanor, any amount not 14 exceeding five hundred dollars.

15 (c) If the arrest was for a class B misdemeanor or an unclassified
16 misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

17 (d) If the arrest was for a petty offense, any amount not exceeding 18 one hundred dollars.

19 3. A police officer, who has arrested a person without a warrant
20 pursuant to subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article for a 21 traffic infraction, may, where he or she reasonably believes that such 22 arrested person is not licensed to operate a motor vehicle by this state
23 or any state covered by a reciprocal compact guaranteeing appearance as 24 is provided in section five hundred seventeen of the vehicle and traffic
25 law, fix pre-arraignment bail in the amount of fifty dollars; provided,
26 however, such bail shall be posted by means of a credit card or similar 27 device. Upon the posting thereof, said officer must issue and serve an 28 appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail,
29 and release such person from custody.

30 4. The chief administrator of the courts shall establish a system for 31 the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar 32 device, as is provided by section two hundred twelve of the judiciary
33 law. The head of each police department or police force and of any state
34 department, agency, board, commission or public authority having police 35 officers who fix pre-arraignment bail as provided herein may elect to 36 use the system established by the chief administrator or may establish 37 such other system for the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of 38 credit card or similar device as he or she may deem appropriate.

39 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law, as 40 amended by section 8 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is 41 amended to read as follows:

42 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable [at a date as soon as 43 possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issu-
44 ance; or at the next scheduled session of the appropriate local criminal 45 court if such session is scheduled to occur more than twenty days from 46 the date of issuance; or at a later date, with the court's permission
47 due to enrollment in a pre-arraignment diversion program. The appearance 48 ticket shall be made returnable] in a local criminal court designated in 49 section 100.55 of this title as one with which an information for the 50 offense in question may be filed.

51 § 5. Section 150.80 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

52 § 6. Subdivisions 3-a, 3-b, 21 and 22 of section 500.10 of the crimi-
53 nal procedure law are REPEALED.

54 § 7. Subdivisions 5, 6, 7 and 9 of section 500.10 of the criminal 55 procedure law, as amended by section 1-e of part JJJ of chapter 59 of 56 the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

1 5. "Securing order" means an order of a court committing a principal
2 to the custody of the sheriff or fixing bail, ~~[where authorized,]~~ or 3 releasing the principal on the principal's own recognizance ~~[or releasing the principal under non-monetary conditions]~~.

4 6. "Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a
5 principal on the principal's own recognizance or ~~[under non-monetary~~
6 ~~conditions or, where authorized,]~~ fixing bail.

7 7. "Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a
8 principal that the court, instead of committing the principal to or 9 retaining the principal in the custody of the sheriff, either release 10 the principal on the principal's own recognizance~~[, release under non-~~ 11 ~~monetary conditions, or, where authorized,]~~ ~~or~~ fix bail.

12 9. "Bail" means cash bail~~[,]~~ ~~or~~ a bail bond ~~[or money paid with a~~
13 ~~credit card]~~.

14 § 8. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 15 section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and subdivision
16 4 as amended by section 2 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020,
17 is amended to read as follows:

18 § 510.10 Securing order; when required~~[; alternatives available; stand-~~
19 ~~ard to be applied]~~.

20 [1.] When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal 21 action or proceeding is or may be required, ~~initially~~ comes under the 22 control of a court, such court shall~~[, in accordance with this title,]~~
23 by a securing order, ~~either~~ release the principal on the principal's own 24 recognizance, ~~[release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or,~~ 25 ~~where authorized,]~~ fix bail or commit the principal to the custody of 26 the sheriff. ~~[In all such cases, except where another type of securing~~
27 ~~order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the prin-~~
28 ~~cipal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is~~ 29 ~~demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that~~
30 ~~the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a~~
31 ~~finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative~~
32 ~~and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's~~
33 ~~return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release~~
34 ~~with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing.~~

35 2. A principal is entitled to representation by counsel under this 36 chapter in preparing an application for release, when a securing order 37 is being considered and when a securing order is being reviewed for 38 modification, revocation or termination. If the principal is financially
39 unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.

40 3. In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this 41 section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the prin-
42 cipal's own recognizance, unless the court finds on the record or in 43 writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not 44 reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances,
45 the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions,
46 selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will 47 reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall 48 explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in 49 writing.

50 4. Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the 51 court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release 52 the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under 53 non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged 54 with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the 55 principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with 56

~~a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she stands charged with:~~

~~(a) a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law, other than robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision one of section 160.10 of the penal law, provided, however, that burglary in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 140.25 of the penal law shall be a qualifying offense only where the defendant is charged with entering the living area of the dwelling;~~

~~(b) a crime involving witness intimidation under section 215.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(c) a crime involving witness tampering under section 215.11, 215.12 or 215.13 of the penal law;~~

~~(g) money laundering in support of terrorism in the first degree as defined in section 470.24 of the penal law; money laundering in support of terrorism in the second degree as defined in section 470.23 of the penal law; money laundering in support of terrorism in the third degree as defined in section 470.22 of the penal law; money laundering in support of terrorism in the fourth degree as defined in section 470.21 of the penal law; or a felony crime of terrorism as defined in article four hundred ninety of the penal law, other than the crime defined in section 490.20 of such law;~~

~~(l) aggravated vehicular assault as defined in section 120.04-a of the penal law or vehicular assault in the first degree as defined in section 120.04 of the penal law;~~

~~(m) assault in the third degree as defined in section 120.00 of the penal law or arson in the third degree as defined in section 150.10 of the penal law, when such crime is charged as a hate crime as defined in section 485.05 of the penal law;~~

~~(o) grand larceny in the first degree as defined in section 155.42 of the penal law, enterprise corruption as defined in section 460.20 of the penal law, or money laundering in the first degree as defined in section 470.20 of the penal law;~~

~~(p) failure to register as a sex offender pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-t of the correction law or endangering the welfare of a child as defined in subdivision one of section 260.10 of the penal law, where the defendant is required to maintain registration under article six-C of the correction law and designated a level three offender pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of the correction law;~~

~~(q) a crime involving bail jumping under section 215.55, 215.56 or 215.57 of the penal law, or a crime involving escaping from custody under section 205.05, 205.10 or 205.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(r) any felony offense committed by the principal while serving a sentence of probation or while released to post release supervision;~~

~~(s) a felony, where the defendant qualifies for sentencing on such charge as a persistent felony offender pursuant to section 70.10 of the penal law; or~~

~~(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance or released under conditions for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision.~~

~~5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions three and four of this section, with respect to any charge for which bail or remand is not ordered, and for which the court would not or could not otherwise require bail or remand, a defendant may, at any time, request that the court set bail in a nominal amount requested by the defendant in the form specified in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 520.10 of this title; if the court is satisfied that the request is voluntary, the court shall set such bail in such amount.~~

~~6-]~~ When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future court attendance still is or may be required and the principal is still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued. When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall give

1 written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termination of 2 the securing order.

3 § 9. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
4 section 3 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
5 read as follows:

6 § 510.20 Application for [~~a change in securing order~~] recognizance or 7 bail; making and determination thereof in general.

8 1. Upon any occasion when a court [~~has issued~~] is required to issue a 9 securing order with respect to a principal [~~and the~~], or at any time
10 when a principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result
11 of the securing order or a previously issued securing order, the princi-
12 pal may make an application for recognizance[, ~~release under non-mone-~~
13 ~~tary conditions~~] or bail.

14 2. [~~(a) The principal is entitled to representation by counsel in the~~ 15 ~~making and presentation of such application. If the principal is finan-~~
16 ~~cially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the prin-~~
17 ~~cipal.~~

18 ~~(b)]~~ Upon such application, the principal must be accorded an opportu-
19 nity to be heard[, ~~present evidence~~] and to contend that an order of 20 recognizance[, ~~release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[, ~~where author-~~
21 ~~ized,~~] bail must or should issue, that the court should release the
22 principal on the principal's own recognizance [~~or under non-monetary~~
23 ~~conditions~~] rather than fix bail, and that if bail is [~~authorized and~~]
24 fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form.

25 § 10. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
26 section 5 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
27 read as follows:

28 § 510.30 Application for [~~securing order~~] recognizance or bail; rules of 29 law and criteria controlling determination.

30 1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in 31 all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article 32 five hundred thirty of this title and other provisions of law relating 33 to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a)
34 that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law
35 be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and 36 the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, 37 and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of 38 judicial discretion.

39 2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail 40 and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an 41 application is determined on the basis of the following factors and 42 criteria:

43 (a) With respect to any principal, the court [~~in all cases, unless~~ 44 otherwise provided by law,] must [~~impose the least restrictive~~] consider 45 the kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to 46 secure the principal's return to court when required. In determining 47 that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information, 48 consider and take into account [~~information about the principal that is~~ 49 relevant to the principal's return to court, including:

50 (a) The principal's activities and history;
51 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;
52 (c)]:

53 (i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condi-
54 tion;

55 (ii) The principal's employment and financial resources;

1 (iii) The principal's family ties and the length of his or her resi-
2 dence if any in the community;

3 (iv) The principal's criminal [~~conviction~~] record if any;

4 [~~(d)~~] (v) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juve-
5 nile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family
6 court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant 7 to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any;

8 [~~(e)~~] (vi) The principal's previous record if any in responding to 9 court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid crim-
10 inal prosecution;

11 [~~(f)~~ If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set 12 forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances,
13 and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post 14 bail without posing undue hardship, as well as his or her ability to 15 obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond;

16 (g) (vii) Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes
17 against a member or members of the same family or household as that term 18 is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the 19 following factors:

20 [~~(i)~~] (A) any violation by the principal of an order of protection 21 issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the 22 same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of 23 section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is 24 currently in effect; and

25 [~~(ii)~~] (B) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; 26 [~~and~~

27 (h) (viii) If the principal is a defendant, the weight of the 28 evidence against him or her in the pending criminal action and any other 29 factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the 30 case of an application for [a securing order] bail or recognizance pend-
31 ing appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and

32 (ix) If he or she is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has 33 been imposed upon conviction.

34 [~~2-~~] (b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending 35 appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the 36 likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that 37 the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not
38 require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination
39 made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a) of this 40 subdivision [one of this section].

41 3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the 42 principal, if the principal is a defendant charged with the commission
43 of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may 44 revoke the order of release and [~~may be authorized~~] to commit the prin-
45 cipal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of 46 subdivision two of section 530.60 of this [~~chapter~~] title if the princi-
47 pal commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.

48 § 11. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 49 section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph 50 (c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of 51 the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

52 § 510.40 [~~Court notification to principal of conditions of release and~~
53 ~~of alleged violations of conditions of release]~~ Application
54 for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of 55 securing order and execution thereof.

1 1. An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a
2 securing order which either:

3 (a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his or her
4 own recognizance; or

5 (b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or

6 (c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains 7 him or her in, the custody of the sheriff.

8 2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own
9 recognizance, [~~or released under non-monetary conditions, or, if bail~~
10 ~~has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,~~] the court must direct the 11 principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved when-12 ever the principal's attendance may be required and to [~~be~~] render the 13 principal at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the 14 court. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty
15 upon bail at the time of the order, the court must direct that the prin-
16 cipal be discharged from such custody or, as the case may be, that the 17 principal's bail be exonerated.

18 [~~2.~~] 3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail[~~, where authorized,~~]
19 and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to deter-
20 mine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in 21 the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or 22 authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a 23 certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and,
24 if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing 25 the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is 26 not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order
27 that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. [~~In the~~ 28 ~~event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in~~ 29 ~~writing the reasons therefor.~~

30 ~~3. Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and~~ 31 ~~established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the~~ 32 ~~court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of condi-~~
33 ~~tions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with~~ 34 ~~such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with~~ 35 ~~the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this~~ 36 ~~subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the~~ 37 ~~record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances~~
38 ~~of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances,~~ 39 ~~affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an~~
40 ~~opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses~~
41 ~~and to cross examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing~~
42 ~~evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an impor-~~
43 ~~tant respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose~~ 44 ~~additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and~~
45 ~~may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose~~
46 ~~the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably~~
47 ~~assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the~~ 48 ~~record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any~~ 49 ~~changes to the conditions imposed.~~

50 ~~4. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered~~ 51 ~~only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an~~ 52 ~~individualized determination explained on the record or in writing, that~~ 53 ~~the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with~~ 54 ~~subdivision twenty-one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other~~ 55 ~~realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will~~
56 ~~suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to court.~~

~~(b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable.~~

~~(c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall not contract with any private for profit entity for such purposes. Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items, provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non profit entity under contract with such county, municipality or the state.~~

~~(d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maximum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized determination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained on the record or in writing.~~

~~A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chapter, as applicable.~~

~~5. If a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court shall, on the record and in an individualized written document provided to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a manner sufficiently clear and specific:~~

~~(a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a guide for the principal's conduct; and~~

~~(b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more restrictive securing order.]~~

§ 12. Sections 510.43 and 510.45 of the criminal procedure law are REPEALED.

§ 13. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 9 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.

[1.] When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance [~~or non-monetary conditions~~] or on bail, the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

~~[2. Except when the principal is charged with a new crime while at liberty, absent relevant, credible evidence demonstrating that a principal's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance was willful, the court, prior to issuing a bench warrant for a failure to appear for~~

~~a scheduled court appearance, shall provide at least forty-eight hours notice to the principal or the principal's counsel that the principal is required to appear, in order to give the principal an opportunity to appear voluntarily.]~~

§ 14. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 520.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 10 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The court ~~[shall]~~ may direct that the bail be posted in any one of ~~[three]~~ two or more of the forms specified in subdivision one of this section, designated in the alternative, and may designate different amounts varying with the forms~~[, except that one of the forms shall be either an unsecured or partially secured surety bond, as selected by the court].~~

§ 15. Section 530.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 11 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.10 Order of recognizance ~~[release under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail; in general.

Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon application of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is required ~~[to issue a securing order]~~ or authorized to order bail or recognizance for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the pendency of either:

1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or

2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence.

§ 16. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 12 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is returnable pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In making such order, the local criminal court shall consider ~~[de novo]~~ bail recommendation ~~[and securing order]~~, if any, made by the supreme or family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter returnable in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such court is in session.

§ 17. Subdivision 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 15 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued

1 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or 2 tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by 3 competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such 4 order, the court may:

5 (a) revoke an order of recognizance [~~or release under non-monetary~~
6 ~~conditions~~] or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail
7 and commit the defendant to custody; or

8 (b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjourn-

14 conviction; or

15 (d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter
16 and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law

19 protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with 20 and tried for that crime or violation.

21 § 18. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the 22 criminal procedure law, as amended by section 14 of part JJJ of chapter
23 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

24 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a
25 temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-

27 this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of 28 protection in conjunction with any securing order committing the defend-
29 ant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial 30 release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in 31 contemplation of dismissal. In addition to any other conditions, such an 32 order may require that the defendant:

33 § 19. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal

39 new section 530.20 is added to read as follows:

40 § 530.20 Order of recognizance or bail; by local criminal court when 41 action is pending therein.

42 When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such 43 court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance
44 or bail as follows:

45 1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-
46 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense
47 or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recog-48 nizance or bail.

49 2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, 50 the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as 51 otherwise provided in this subdivision:

52 (a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recog-
53 nizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony,
54 or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony
55 convictions;

1 (b) No local criminal court may order recognizance or bail with 2 respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until:

3 (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-
4 ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be
5 heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived
6 his or her right to do so; and

7 (ii) The court has been furnished with a report of the division of 8 criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record if 9 any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's
10 prior arrest record. If neither report is available, the court, with the 11 consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement;
12 provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a 13 substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police depart-
14 ment to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required
15 if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary.
16 When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it
17 shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the 18 defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.

19 § 21. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30
20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of 21 chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

22 Order of recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail;
23 by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

24 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other
25 than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge
26 of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon applica-
27 tion of a defendant, may order recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary~~
28 ~~conditions]~~ or~~[, where authorized,]~~ bail when such local criminal court:

29 (a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to the relevant 30 provisions of section 530.20 of this article; or

31 (b) Has denied an application for recognizance~~[, release under non-~~ 32 ~~monetary conditions]~~ or bail; or

33 (c) Has fixed bail~~[, where authorized,]~~ which is excessive~~[-or~~

34 ~~(d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions~~
35 ~~which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the~~ 36 ~~defendant's return to court].~~

37 In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such 38 local criminal court and release the defendant on his or her own recog-
39 nizance ~~[or under non-monetary conditions,]~~ or ~~[where authorized,]~~ fix 40 bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form~~[, whichever are the~~ 41 ~~least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure~~ 42 ~~the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of~~ 43 ~~alternative and conditions on the record or in writing].~~

44 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section,
45 when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a
46 superior court judge may not order recognizance, ~~[release under non-mon-~~
47 ~~etary conditions]~~ or~~[, where authorized,]~~ bail unless and until the 48 district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and 49 such judge ~~[and counsel for the defendant have]~~ has been furnished with 50 a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivi-
51 sion two of section 530.20 of this article.

52 § 22. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a
53 new section 530.40 is added to read as follows:

54 § 530.40 Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court when action is 55 pending therein.

1 When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court,
2 upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail
3 as follows:

4 1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less
5 than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

6 2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its 7 discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an 8 indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court
9 holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed
10 at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending
11 in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a 12 superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which 13 is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a 14 direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.

15 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section,
16 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail, or permit a defend-17 ant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the 18 defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any 19 class B or class C felony as defined in article one hundred thirty of 20 the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eigh-21 teen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of 22 age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the 23 custody of the sheriff.

24 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section,
25 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail when the defendant
26 is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had 27 an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court has been 28 furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 29 (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

30 § 23. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law,
31 as amended by section 19 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
32 is amended to read as follows:

33 1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action
34 as a result of a prior order of recognizance[~~release under non-mone-~~
35 ~~tary conditions~~] or bail and the court revokes such order and then[~~,~~ 36 ~~where authorized,~~] either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater 37 amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and 38 remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, [~~or issues a~~
39 ~~more restrictive securing order,~~] a judge designated in subdivision two 40 of this section, upon application of the defendant following conviction
41 of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony
42 offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
43 committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age
44 or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before
45 sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release the defendant
46 on the defendant's own recognizance, [~~release the defendant under non-~~ 47 ~~monetary conditions,~~] or[~~,~~ ~~where authorized,~~] fix bail or fix bail in a
48 lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[~~,~~ ~~or issue a less restrictive~~
49 ~~securing order,~~] than fixed by the court in which the conviction was 50 entered.

51 § 24. Subdivision 2-a of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law
52 is REPEALED.

53 § 25. Section 530.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 54 chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, subdivision 1 as designated and subdi-
55 vision 2 as added by section 10 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 56 2020, is amended to read as follows:

1 § 530.50 Order of recognizance or bail; during pendency of appeal.

2 ~~[1.]~~ A judge who is otherwise authorized pursuant to section 460.50 or 3 ~~[section]~~ 460.60 of this chapter to issue an order of recognizance or 4 bail pending the determination of an appeal, may do so unless the 5 defendant received a class A felony sentence or a sentence for any class
6 B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the 7 penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen
8 years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age.

9 ~~[2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of section~~
10 ~~510.10, paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 530.20 and subdivi-~~
11 ~~sion four of section 530.40 of this title, when a defendant charged with~~
12 ~~an offense that is not such a qualifying offense applies, pending deter-~~
13 ~~mination of an appeal, for an order of recognizance or release on non-~~
14 ~~monetary conditions, where authorized, or fixing bail, a judge identi-~~
15 ~~fied in subdivision two of section 460.50 or paragraph (a) of~~ 16 ~~subdivision one of section 460.60 of this chapter may, in accordance~~ 17 ~~with law, and except as otherwise provided by law, issue a securing~~ 18 ~~order: releasing the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance or~~ 19 ~~under non-monetary conditions where authorized, fixing bail, or remand-~~
20 ~~ing the defendant to the custody of the sheriff where authorized.]~~

21 § 26. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
22 section 20 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
23 read as follows:

24 § 530.60 ~~[Certain modifications of a securing order]~~ Order of recogni-
25 zance or bail; revocation thereof.

26 1. Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defend-
27 ant is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance~~[, release~~
28 ~~under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail issued pursuant to this chapter,
29 and the court considers it necessary to review such order, ~~[whether due~~
30 ~~to a motion by the people or otherwise,]~~ the court may, and ~~[except as~~ 31 ~~provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this title concerning a~~
32 ~~failure to appear in court,]~~ by a bench warrant if necessary, require 33 the defendant to appear before the court. Upon such appearance, the 34 court, for good cause shown, may revoke the order of recognizance~~[,~~
35 ~~release under non-monetary conditions,]~~ or bail. If the defendant is 36 entitled to recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary conditions,]~~ or 37 bail as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. If 38 the defendant is not, the court may either issue such an order or commit
39 the defendant to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with this 40 section.

41 Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is 42 held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80
43 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's
44 commitment under this subdivision.

45 2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a
46 defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a
47 result of an order of recognizance, ~~[release under non-monetary condi-~~
48 ~~tions]~~ or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for 49 revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the 50 defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony
51 offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section
52 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty.

53 ~~[(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any~~ 54 ~~other law, whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a~~
55 ~~defendant charged with the commission of an offense is at liberty as a~~
56 ~~result of an order of recognizance, release under non-monetary condi-~~

~~tions or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for~~
~~revoking such order and fixing bail in such criminal action or proceed-~~
~~ing when the court has found, by clear and convincing evidence, that the~~ ~~defendant:~~

~~(i) persistently and willfully failed to appear after notice of sched-~~ ~~uled appearances in the case before the court; or~~

~~(ii) violated an order of protection in the manner prohibited by~~ ~~subdivision (b), (c) or (d) of section 215.51 of the penal law while at~~ ~~liberty; or~~

~~(iii) stands charged in such criminal action or proceeding with a~~
~~misdemeanor or violation and, after being so charged, intimidated a~~
~~victim or witness in violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of~~
~~the penal law or tampered with a witness in violation of section 215.11,~~
~~215.12 or 215.13 of the penal law, law while at liberty; or~~

~~(iv) stands charged in such action or proceeding with a felony and,~~
~~after being so charged, committed a felony while at liberty.~~

~~(c)] Before revoking an order of recognizance[, release under non-mon-~~ ~~etary conditions,] or bail pursuant to this subdivision, the court must~~ hold a hearing and shall receive any relevant, admissible evidence not legally privileged. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chapter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hearing.

~~[(d)] (b) Revocation of an order of recognizance[, release under non-~~ ~~monetary conditions] or bail and [a new securing order fixing bail or]~~ commitment[, as specified in this paragraph and] pursuant to this subdivision shall be for the following periods, either:

~~[(i) Under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, revocation of the order~~
~~of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or, as the case~~
~~may be, bail, and a new securing order fixing bail or committing the~~ ~~defendant to the custody of the sheriff shall be as follows:~~

~~(A)] (i) For a period not to exceed ninety days exclusive of any peri-~~ ~~ods of adjournment requested by the defendant; or~~

~~[(B)] (ii) Until the charges contained within the accusatory instru-~~ ~~ment have been reduced or dismissed such that no count remains which~~ charges the defendant with commission of a felony; or

~~[(C)] (iii) Until reduction or dismissal of the charges contained~~ within the accusatory instrument charging the subsequent offense such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense.

Upon expiration of any of the three periods specified within this [~~subparagraph~~ paragraph], whichever is shortest, the court may grant or deny release upon an order of bail or recognizance in accordance with the provisions of this article. Upon conviction to an offense the provisions of this article [~~five hundred thirty of this chapter~~] shall apply[; and

~~(ii) Under paragraph (b) of this subdivision, revocation of the order~~
~~of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or, as the case~~
~~may be, bail shall result in the issuance of a new securing order which~~ ~~may, if otherwise authorized by law, permit the principal's release on~~ ~~recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions, but shall also~~

~~render the defendant eligible for an order fixing bail provided, however, that in accordance with the principles in this title the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be interpreted as shortening the period of detention, or requiring or authorizing any less restrictive form of a securing order, which may be imposed pursuant to any other law].~~

~~[(e)]~~ (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) ~~[or (b)]~~ of this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense ~~[or violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law]~~ committed while he ~~or she~~ was at liberty as specified therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revocation hearing for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. An additional period not to exceed seventy-two hours may be granted by the court upon application of the district attorney upon a showing of good cause or where the failure to commence the hearing was due to the defendant's request or occurred with his ~~or her~~ consent. Such good cause must consist of some compelling fact or circumstance which precluded conducting the hearing within the initial prescribed period.

§ 27. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 435 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

(a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant has violated a release condition ~~[in an important respect]~~ or has ~~[willfully]~~ failed to appear before the court as requested, the court ~~[except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this chapter regarding a failure to appear,]~~ shall direct the defendant to appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who requires treatment for opioid use be deemed to have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The ~~[relevant]~~ provisions of subdivision one of section 530.60 of this chapter relating to [issuance of securing orders] revocation of recognizance or bail shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

§ 28. Section 410.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 23 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 410.60 Appearance before court.

A person who has been taken into custody pursuant to section 410.40 or ~~[section]~~ 410.50 of this article for violation of a condition of a sentence of probation or a sentence of conditional discharge must forthwith be brought before the court that imposed the sentence. 38 any information which he reasonably believes is not discoverable by a
39 demand to produce, pursuant to section 240.20 or section 240.30 as the
40 case may be, or for which he reasonably believes a protective order
41 would be warranted. Such refusal shall be made in a writing, which

43 consistent with the objective of the refusal. The writing shall be 44 served upon the demanding party and a copy shall be filed with the

50 demand to produce, pursuant to section 240.20 or section 240.30 as the
51 case may be, or for which he reasonably believes a protective order
52 would be warranted. Such refusal shall be made in a writing, which 53 shall set forth the grounds of such belief as fully as possible,
54 consistent with the objective of the refusal. The writing shall be 55 served upon the demanding party and a copy shall be filed with the 56 court.

1 § 240.43 Disclosure of prior uncharged criminal, vicious or immoral
2 acts.

3 1. Upon motion of a defendant against whom an indictment, superior
4 court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified
5 information charging a misdemeanor is pending, the court in which such 6 accusatory instrument is pending:

7 (a) must order discovery as to any material not disclosed upon a
8 demand pursuant to section 240.20, if it finds that the prosecutor's
9 refusal to disclose such material is not justified;

10 (b) must, unless it is satisfied that the people have shown good
11 cause why such an order should not be issued, order discovery or any 12 other order authorized by subdivision one of section 240.70 as to any 13 material not disclosed upon demand pursuant to section 240.20 where the 14 prosecutor has failed to serve a timely written refusal pursuant to 15 section 240.35; (c) may order discovery with respect to any other prop-
16 erty, which the people intend to introduce at the trial, upon a show-17 ing by the defendant that discovery with respect to such property is 18 material to the preparation of his or her defense, and that the 19 request is reasonable; and (d) where property in the people's 20 possession, custody, or control that consists of a deoxyribonu-
21 cleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from probative biological material 22 gathered in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the 23 defendant and the defendant establishes that such profile complies with 24 federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are 25 applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement
26 agencies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and that the 27 data meets state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria
28 as such criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a 29 keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may order an entity
30 that has access to the combined DNA index system or its successor system
31 to compare such DNA profile against DNA databanks by keyboard searches,
32 or a similar method that does not involve uploading, upon notice to both 33 parties and the entity required to perform the search, upon a showing by 34 the defendant that such a comparison is material to the presentation of 35 his or her defense and that the request is reasonable. For purposes of 36 this paragraph, a "keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile
37 against the databank in which the profile that is searched is not 38 uploaded to or maintained in the databank. Upon granting the motion
39 pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall, upon 40 motion of the people showing such to be material to the preparation of 41 their case and that the request is reasonable, condition its order of 42 discovery by further directing discovery by the people of property, of 43 the same kind or character as that authorized to be inspected by the 44 defendant, which he or she intends to introduce at the trial.

45 2. Upon motion of the prosecutor, and subject to constitutional
46 limitation, the court in which an indictment, superior court
47 information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified
48 information charging a misdemeanor is pending: (a) must order discovery
49 as to any property not disclosed upon a demand pursuant to section
50 240.30, if it finds that the defendant's refusal to disclose such 51 material is not justified; and (b) may order the defendant to provide 52 non-testimonial evidence. Such order may, among other things, require 53 the defendant to:

54 (i) Appear in a line-up;

55 (ii) Speak for identification by witness or potential witness;

56 (iii) Be fingerprinted;

- 1 (iv) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;
2 (v) Permit the taking of samples of blood, hair or other materials
3 from his body in a manner not involving an unreasonable intrusion
4 thereof or a risk of serious physical injury thereto;
5 (vi) Provide specimens of his handwriting;
6 (vii) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of his 7 body.

8 This subdivision shall not be construed to limit, expand, or otherwise
9 affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized by 10 law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument consistent with such 11 rights as the defendant may derive from the constitution of this state
12 or of the United States. This section shall not be construed to limit or 13 otherwise affect the administration of a chemical test where other-
14 wise authorized pursuant to section one thousand one hundred ninety-
15 four-a of the vehicle and traffic law.

16 3. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, limited or 17 conditioned as provided in section 240.50.

18 § 240.44 Upon pre-trial hearing.

19 Subject to a protective order, at a pre-trial hearing held in a
20 criminal court at which a witness is called to testify, each party, 21 prior to the commencement of the direct examination of each of its 22 witnesses, shall, upon request of the other party, make available to 23 that party to the extent not previously disclosed:

24 1. Any written or recorded statement, including any testimony before a 25 grand jury, made by such witness other than the defendant which relates 26 to the subject matter of the witness's testimony.

27 2. A record of a judgment of conviction of such witness other than the 28 defendant if the record of conviction is known by the prosecutor or 29 defendant, as the case may be, to exist.

30 3. The existence of any pending criminal action against such witness 31 other than the defendant if the pending criminal action is known by the 32 prosecutor or defendant, as the case may be, to exist.

33 § 240.45 Upon trial, of prior statements and criminal history of 34 witnesses.

35 1. After the jury has been sworn and before the prosecutor's opening 36 address, or in the case of a single judge trial after commencement and 37 before submission of evidence, the prosecutor shall, subject to a
38 protective order, make available to the defendant:

39 (a) Any written or recorded statement, including any testimony before 40 a grand jury and an examination videotaped pursuant to section 190.32 of 41 this chapter, made by a person whom the prosecutor intends to call as a 42 witness at trial, and which relates to the subject matter of the 43 witness's testimony;

44 (b) A record of judgment of conviction of a witness the people intend
45 to call at trial if the record of conviction is known by the prosecutor
46 to exist;

47 (c) The existence of any pending criminal action against a witness
48 the people intend to call at trial, if the pending criminal action is 49 known by the prosecutor to exist.

50 The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision shall not 51 be construed to require the prosecutor to fingerprint a witness or 52 otherwise cause the division of criminal justice services or other law
53 enforcement agency or court to issue a report concerning a witness.

54 2. After presentation of the people's direct case and before the 55 presentation of the defendant's direct case, the defendant shall,
56 subject to a protective order, make available to the prosecutor:

1 (a) any written or recorded statement made by a person other than the
2 defendant whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at the trial,
3 and which relates to the subject matter of the witness's testimony;

4 (b) a record of judgment of conviction of a witness, other than the 5 defendant, the defendant intends to call at trial if the record of 6 conviction is known by the defendant to exist;

7 (c) the existence of any pending criminal action against a witness,
8 other than the defendant, the defendant intends to call at trial, if the 9 pending criminal action is known by the defendant to exist.

10 § 240.50 Protective orders.

11 1. The court in which the criminal action is pending may, upon motion
12 of either party, or of any affected person, or upon determination of a 13 motion of either party for an order of discovery, or upon its own
14 initiative, issue a protective order denying, limiting, conditioning,
15 delaying or regulating discovery pursuant to this article for good
16 cause, including constitutional limitations, danger to the integrity of 17 physical evidence or a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, 18 economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to 19 any person or an adverse effect upon the legitimate needs of law
20 enforcement, including the protection of the confidentiality of 21 informants, or any other factor or set of factors which outweighs the 22 usefulness of the discovery.

23 2. An order limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulating discovery
24 may, among other things, require that any material copied or derived 25 therefrom be maintained in the exclusive possession of the attorney for 26 the discovering party and be used for the exclusive purpose of preparing 27 for the defense or prosecution of the criminal action.

28 3. A motion for a protective order shall suspend discovery of the 29 particular matter in dispute.

30 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the personal 31 residence address of a police officer or correction officer shall not be
32 required to be disclosed except pursuant to an order issued by a court
33 following a finding of good cause.

34 § 240.60 Continuing duty to disclose.

35 If, after complying with the provisions of this article or an order
36 pursuant thereto, a party finds, either before or during trial,
37 additional material subject to discovery or covered by such order, he 38 shall promptly comply with the demand or order, refuse to comply with 39 the demand where refusal is authorized, or apply for a protective order.

40 § 240.70 Sanctions; fees.

41 1. If, during the course of discovery proceedings, the court finds
42 that a party has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this 43 article, the court may order such party to permit discovery of the 44 property not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, issue a 45 protective order, prohibit the introduction of certain evidence or the 46 calling of certain witnesses or take any other appropriate action.

47 2. The failure of the prosecution to call as a witness a person
48 specified in subdivision one of section 240.20 or of any party to intro-
49 duce disclosed material at the trial shall not, by itself, constitute 50 grounds for any sanction or for adverse comment thereupon by any party
51 in summation to the jury or at any other point.

52 3. A fee for copies of records required to be disclosed may be 53 charged. Such fee shall not exceed twenty-five cents per photocopy not 54 in excess of nine inches by fourteen inches, or the actual cost of 55 reproducing any other record, except when a different fee is otherwise 56 prescribed by law.

1 § 240.75 Certain violations.

2 The failure of the prosecutor or any agent of the prosecutor to
3 disclose statements that are required to be disclosed under subdivision
4 one of section 240.44 or paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section
5 240.45 shall not constitute grounds for any court to order a new 6 pre-trial hearing or set aside a conviction, or reverse, modify or 7 vacate a judgment of conviction in the absence of a showing by the 8 defendant that there is a reasonable possibility that the non-dis-
9 closure materially contributed to the result of the trial or other
10 proceeding; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall 11 affect or limit any right the defendant may have to a re-opened
12 pre-trial hearing when such statements were disclosed before the close 13 of evidence at trial.

14 § 240.80 When demand, refusal and compliance made.

15 1. A demand to produce shall be made within thirty days after 16 arraignment and before the commencement of trial. If the defendant is 17 not represented by counsel, and has requested an adjournment to obtain 18 counsel or to have counsel assigned, the thirty-day period shall 19 commence, for purposes of a demand by the defendant, on the date counsel
20 initially appears on his behalf. However, the court may direct 21 compliance with a demand to produce that, for good cause shown, could 22 not have been made within the time specified.

23 2. A refusal to comply with a demand to produce shall be made within 24 fifteen days of the service of the demand to produce, but for good cause
25 may be made thereafter.

26 3. Absent a refusal to comply with a demand to produce, compliance
27 with such demand shall be made within fifteen days of the service of the 28 demand or as soon thereafter as practicable.

29 § 240.90 Motion procedure.

30 1. A motion by a prosecutor for discovery shall be made within 31 forty-five days after arraignment, but for good cause shown may be made 32 at any time before commencement of trial.

33 2. A motion by a defendant for discovery shall be made as prescribed 34 in section 255.20 of this chapter.

35 3. Where the interests of justice so require, the court may permit a 36 party to a motion for an order of discovery or a protective order, or 37 other affected person, to submit papers or to testify ex parte or in 38 camera. Any such papers and transcript of such testimony shall be 39 sealed, but shall constitute a part of the record on appeal.

40 § 32. Subdivision 9 of section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 41 amended by section 4 of part LLL of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is 42 amended to read as follows:

43 9. (a) Prior to the commencement of the hearing conducted pursuant to 44 subdivision six of this section, the district attorney shall, subject to 45 a protective order, comply with the provisions of subdivision one of 46 section [~~245.20~~] 240.45 of this chapter as they concern any witness whom 47 the district attorney intends to call at the hearing and the child
48 witness.

49 (b) Before a defendant calls a witness at such hearing, he or she 50 must, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of

55 as amended by section 5 of part LLL of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
56 is amended to read as follows:

1 5. Court ordered bill of particulars. Where a prosecutor has timely
2 served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section
3 and upon motion, made in writing, of a defendant, who has made a request
4 for a bill of particulars and whose request has not been complied with 5 in whole or in part, the court must, to the extent a protective order is 6 not warranted, order the prosecutor to comply with the request if it is 7 satisfied that the items of factual information requested are authorized 8 to be included in a bill of particulars, and that such information is 9 necessary to enable the defendant adequately to prepare or conduct his 10 defense and, if the request was untimely, a finding of good cause for 11 the delay. Where a prosecutor has not timely served a written refusal
12 pursuant to subdivision four of this section the court must, unless it
13 is satisfied that the people have shown good cause why such an order
14 should not be issued, issue an order requiring the prosecutor to comply 15 or providing for any other order authorized by ~~[section 245.80 of this~~ 16 ~~part]~~ subdivision one of section 240.70 of this part.

17 § 34. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 255.10 of the criminal

26 motions shall be served or filed within forty-five days after arraign-
27 ment and before commencement of trial, or within such additional time as 28 the court may fix upon application of the defendant made prior to entry
29 of judgment. In an action in which ~~[either (a) material or information~~
30 ~~has been disclosed pursuant to paragraph (m) or (n) of subdivision one~~

33 ter, or ~~[(c)]~~ a notice of intention to introduce evidence has been 34 served pursuant to section 710.30 of this chapter, such period shall be 35 extended until forty-five days after the last date of such service. If 36 the defendant is not represented by counsel and has requested an 37 adjournment to obtain counsel or to have counsel assigned, such forty-38 five day period shall commence on the date counsel initially appears on 39 defendant's behalf.

40 § 36. Section 340.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
