Introduced by M. of A. JACOBSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to declining a designation or nomination after being arrested, indicted or convicted of a crime

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 6-146 of the election law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. a. A person designated as a candidate for nomination or for party 4 position, or nominated for an office and who is arrested, indicted or 5 convicted of a crime may decline the designation or nomination of one or 6 more of the remaining party designations or nominations no later than 7 four days after such arrest, indictment or conviction.

8 b. For the year two thousand twenty-two only, a person designated as a 9 candidate for nomination or for party position, or nominated for an 10 office and who has been arrested, indicted or convicted of a crime may 11 decline the designation or nomination of one or more of such party nomi-
12 nations no later than four days after the effective date of this subdi-13 vision.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
