Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indeterminate sentence. [A] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision a 7 defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in 9 section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the procedures 10 provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A defendant who 11 was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the 12 crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of 13 14 this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a 15 class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon 16 or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of 17 this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or 18 biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall 19 preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also 20 convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in 21 22 section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seventeen years of 23 age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indeterminate 24 25 sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must be 26 sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the 27 crime of murder in the second degree as defined in [subdivision five of] 28 section 125.25 of this chapter, aggravated murder as defined in section 125.26 of this chapter, or murder in the first degree as defined in 29 section 125.27 of this chapter, where the victim was less than eighteen 30 31 years old, or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivi-32 sion one of section 125.26 of this chapter. [A defendant may be 33 sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the 34 crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 35 125.26 of this chapter.]

36 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
