

BY: Senator PARKER

memorializing Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2022, as Motivation and Inspiration Month in the State of New York

WHEREAS, Throughout history motivation and inspiration have played important roles in the greatest achievements of civilized society and are characteristics common to all great leaders; and

WHEREAS, People of all ages require motivation and inspiration in their daily lives and to help them achieve success and happiness; and

WHEREAS, The inspiration to define goals at school, home, and work, and the motivation to achieve those goals, is critical to achieving success and happiness; and

WHEREAS, Children and young adults particularly need mentors to inspire them to achieve their goals and to motivate them to direct their energies toward positive and constructive activities and goals; and

WHEREAS, Adults who mentor children and young adults become inspired and motivated themselves; and

WHEREAS, A renewed focus on motivation and inspiration was particularly important during the aftermath of the September 11th Terrorist and today more than ever; and

WHEREAS, H.R. 308, passed on December 18, 2001, expressed the sense of the United States House of Representatives that a National Motivation and Inspiration Day should be established and observed each year with appropriate programs and activities; and

WHEREAS, In keeping with the intent and recognition of the benefits of such observance, the establishment of a Motivation and Inspiration Month in the State of New York would provide an opportunity for the citizens and leaders of our great State to focus on the importance of maintaining motivation and inspiration in their lives and in the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, Since the beginning of the year is often a period of reflection, planning, and goal setting, January is the appropriate time to celebrate Motivation and Inspiration Month; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2022, as Motivation and Inspiration Month in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Kathy Hochul, Governor of the State of New York.