COMMEMORATING the observance of Yom HaShoah in the State of New York, April 27-28, 2022

WHEREAS, From 1933 to 1945, 5.8 million Jews were murdered in the Nazi Holocaust as a part of a systematic program of genocide, and millions of other people also perished as victims of Nazism; and

WHEREAS, Jews who fell under German control in Eastern and Central Europe were quickly stripped of their rights and property; and

WHEREAS, The Jews who perished at Nazi hands comprised two-thirds of all European Jewry, and in countries such as Poland, which before the Second World War included parts of the Ukraine and Belarus, the Jewish death toll surpassed 90 percent; and

WHEREAS, Holocaust Remembrance Day, known in Hebrew as Yom Hashoah, is a day set aside for remembering the victims of the Holocaust and for reminding New Yorkers, all Americans, and people around the world of what can happen to civilized people when bigotry, hatred and indifference reign; and

WHEREAS, Internationally, Holocaust Remembrance Day is observed on the 27th day of Nisan on the Hebrew calendar, which this year falls on Thursday, April 28, 2022; and

WHEREAS, The People of the State of New York should always remember the atrocities committed by the Nazis so that such horrors are never repeated; and

WHEREAS, Those who survived the killing camps tell us that as many people walked to their deaths, their last words were "Remember Us"; and

WHEREAS, The year 2022 marks the 89th Anniversary of the beginning of the genocide of European Jews, the darkest, most murderous moment in history; and

WHEREAS, We learn in the aftermath of the Holocaust that indifference to genocide cannot be tolerated; Holocaust remembrance imposes a moral obligation to speak out; and

WHEREAS, The Holocaust represents the darkest period in the civilization of mankind and must always be remembered in order to prevent its reoccurrence anywhere else in the world; and

WHEREAS, The People of the State of New York should continually rededicate themselves to the principle of equal justice for all people; and

WHEREAS, The People of the State of New York should remain eternally vigilant against all tyranny and recognize that bigotry provides a breeding ground for tyranny to flourish; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the observance of Yom HaShoah in the State of New York, April 27-28, 2022; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Kathy Hochul, Governor of the State of New York; Met Council on Jewish Poverty; and Helen-Margaret Nasser, MA, Director, Kingsborough-Manhattan Beach Holocaust Memorial Center.
