MOURNING the death of Michael F. Aswad, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to pay tribute to citizens of the State of New York whose lifework and civic endeavor served to enhance the quality of life in their communities and this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, Michael F. Aswad of Hillcrest, New York, died on Wednesday, October 20, 2021, at the age of 71; and

WHEREAS, Michael F. Aswad served as the first paid Broome County Fire Coordinator in 1981; in 1988, he also became Director of Emergency Services when they combined the two positions; and

WHEREAS, In this capacity, Michael F. Aswad brought many enhancements to Broome County not only for the fire service but public safety in general; and

WHEREAS, He distinguished himself in his profession and by his sincere dedication and substantial contribution to the welfare of his community; and

WHEREAS, In his early years as Fire Coordinator, he was able to bring New York State Fire Training Courses to the county as well as the establishment of both a Hazardous Materials Response Team and a Wildland Search Team; and

WHEREAS, Furthermore, Michael F. Aswad was very instrumental in developing the Broome County "Smoke Divers" Program which was later adopted by New York State as part of their mask confidence curriculum (SCBA Training); and

WHEREAS, During his time as Director of Emergency Services, Michael F. Aswad was on the forefront of many projects such as Enhanced 911 implementation in 1992, Emergency Medical Dispatch in 1992, Computer aided dispatch in 1993, and, in 1997, he began consolidating dispatch centers throughout Broome County to one central dispatch with its conclusion in 2004; and

WHEREAS, Michael F. Aswad's commitment to excellence, and his spirit of humanity, carried over into all fields of enterprise, including charitable and civic endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Michael F. Aswad, whose dedication did not stop at the county level, was a volunteer firefighter for Port Dickinson Fire Department where he served as Chief, the Hillcrest Fire Company where he also served as Chief, and in his later years with the Chenango Fire Company; and

WHEREAS, This devoted firefighter was also very active in the New York State Fire Chief's Association and the New York State Fire Coordinator's Association; Broome County is undoubtedly a much better place because of Michael F. Aswad's many years of commitment and hard work; and

WHEREAS, Michael F. Aswad always gave 110% from day one through year 25 to make certain Broome County was current in every emergency services facet as possible; and

WHEREAS, Predeceased by his parents, Charles E. and Mary Aswad; his in-laws, Henry and Florence Knapp; brother-in-law, Al Smith; and nephew, Christopher Johns, Michael F. Aswad is survived by his wife of 34 years, Sharon; daughter, Darcy (Christopher) Johnson; two grandchildren, Connor and Lily; and siblings, Lu-Anne (Brian) Kellett, Mark Aswad, Bonnie (Jim) Norton; Theresa Smith; and Thomas (Brenda) Aswad; as well as several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and "His Camping Family" along with his family and many friends throughout the First Responder Community; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Michael F. Aswad leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all he served and befriended; he will be deeply missed and truly merits the grateful tribute of this Legislative Body; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to mourn the death of Michael F. Aswad, and to express its deepest condolences to his family; and be it further
