

BY: Senator STEWART-COUSINS

MOURNING the death of Cecil Corbin-Mark, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to pay tribute to citizens of the State of New York whose lifework and civic endeavor served to enhance the quality of life in their communities and the great State of New York; and

WHEREAS, Cecil Corbin-Mark, a lifelong resident of Hamilton Heights in Harlem, New York, died on Thursday, October 15, 2020, at the age of 51; and

WHEREAS, A graduate of Hunter College with a degree in political science, Cecil Corbin-Mark later earned an MPhil in International Relations from Oxford University in the U.K., where he studied the political traditions of the African diaspora in the Americas; and

WHEREAS, A leading environmental advocate who organized communities to push for health protections and climate action, Cecil Corbin-Mark was deputy director of the group WE ACT for Environmental Justice; and

WHEREAS, Cecil Corbin-Mark joined the Harlem-based WE ACT not long after its inception in the late 1980s, and spent the ensuing 26 years with the group, helping it grow into a major player in the environmental justice movement; and

WHEREAS, Colleagues from WE ACT praised his role in the passage of environmental protection laws, his wide-ranging knowledge of policy and his kindness toward others in the movement; and

WHEREAS, Cecil Corbin-Mark assisted in the passage of a slew of environmental justice laws, from lead paint regulations to emission reductions targeting climate change; he advocated at City Hall and the State Capitol and testified before Congress in July about the health risks of climate change; and

WHEREAS, Cecil Corbin-Mark distinguished himself in his profession and by his sincere dedication and substantial contribution to the welfare of his community; his commitment to excellence, and his spirit of humanity, carried over into all fields of enterprise, including charitable and civic endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Cecil Corbin-Mark is survived by his mother, Winnifred Corbin; his father, Lucus Mark; his second mother, Merlyn Corbin; his Godson, Nigel Holder; and other family members; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Cecil Corbin-Mark leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all

he served and befriended; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations mourn the death of Cecil Corbin-Mark, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the family of Cecil Corbin-Mark.