COMMEMORATING the history of the Clinton Annex

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize and honor those state prisons and their leadership that strengthen the quality and character of life in this great Empire State, and to commemorate the histories of such correctional facilities; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the history of the Clinton Annex; and

WHEREAS, In 1899, a mental health facility, the Dannemora State Hospital for Insane Convicts, was built on the grounds to the east of Clinton Prison to house prisoners who became insane while serving their sentence; and

WHEREAS, Such prisoners were also retained in the facility if they remained insane following the completion of their sentence; and

WHEREAS, This facility was built by both prison staff and inmates; its name was changed to the Dannemora State Hospital in 1912; and

WHEREAS, It closed in 1972, becoming the Adirondack Correctional Treatment and Evaluation Center which closed in 1975 when it was converted into the Clinton Annex and Camp Adirondack; and

WHEREAS, The Clinton Annex was classified as a Maximum-Security Facility and Mental Health Service Level 3 Facility; the operating capacity was approximately 834 inmates; and

WHEREAS, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo announced on December 21, 2020, this facility will cease operation as of March 30, 2021; and

WHEREAS, The Line of Duty deaths at the Clinton Annex include: Dr. Charles H. North, Superintendent, Dannemora State Hospital who died on December 12, 1917; Dr. North, Superintendent for 13 years at the hospital for the criminally insane, had finished speaking with an inmate when the inmate stabbed him in the back with a chisel; and Claude W. Cromie, Correction Officer, Clinton Correctional Facility who died on February 6, 1982; Mr. Cromie was escorting a disruptive inmate from the dayroom of a housing unit when he was assaulted and suffered a fatal heart attack; and

WHEREAS, The quality of life in New York State is largely reflective of the commitment and dedication demonstrated by members of the agencies which serve to protect, preserve and maintain public order; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to commend the long-standing efforts of those agencies in the State of New York which diligently contribute to the efficient operation of our criminal justice system; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the history of the Clinton Annex; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the Clinton Correctional Facility.
