MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 23-31, 2021, as Red Ribbon Week in the State of New York

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize official weeks that are dedicated to increasing awareness of serious and important issues impacting citizens of New York State; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 23-31, 2021, as Red Ribbon Week in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Red Ribbon Week; and

WHEREAS, In 1980, The National Family Partnership was established as a grassroots, nonprofit organization by a group of concerned parents committed to playing an active role in drug prevention education and advocacy; and

WHEREAS, The National Family Partnership organized the first Nationwide Red Ribbon Campaign after the murder of DEA Agent Enrique Camarena; parents and youth in communities across the country began wearing Red Ribbons to represent their commitment to increasing awareness of the killing and destruction caused by drugs in the country; and

WHEREAS, Enrique Camarena believed that one person could make a difference; this belief was used as the model at the start of the Red Ribbon Campaign and it continues to be the belief as the campaign reaches the lives of millions of American children and families; and

WHEREAS, Under the leadership of President Peggy B. Sapp, the National Red Ribbon Campaign has become an annual national event that acts as a major force in raising awareness and mobilizing communities in the fight against drugs; and

WHEREAS, "Be Happy. Be Brave. Be Drug Free," is the winning theme for the 2021 Red Ribbon Week; created by Tricia Nelson, a student from Locust Corner Elementary School in Cincinnati, Ohio, the theme will continue to be used all throughout 2021 in thousands of schools and communities across the country; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize Red Ribbon Week in order to raise awareness regarding the serious issues surrounding drugs today and to promote the betterment of drug education and prevention in New York State and beyond; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim October 23-31, 2021, as Red Ribbon Week in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National Red Ribbon Week; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York.
