

BY: Senator REICHLIN-MELNICK

MOURNING the death of Arthur Aldrich, founder of Community Media newspapers, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community

WHEREAS, There are certain outstanding members of our community who, through their selfless commitment and dedication, have served to better the quality of life in our community and have had a measurable positive impact on the lives of its residents; Arthur Aldrich was one such individual; and

WHEREAS, It is with profound sorrow and deep regret that this Legislative Body records the passing of Arthur Aldrich, noting the significance of his purposeful life and accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, Arthur Aldrich, a longtime publisher of the weekly Our Town newspaper known throughout Rockland County, New York, as a warrior for justice wielding a pen, died on Monday, April 12, 2021, at the age of 83; and

WHEREAS, Arthur Aldrich was the founder of Community Media newspapers, which served various Rockland and Bergen County, New Jersey, communities over the years; he also had a weekly radio show on WRCR AM 1700; and

WHEREAS, Renowned for his role in Rockland's media landscape, his community involvement and his volunteerism, Arthur Aldrich was a dedicated journalist who thought and worked outside the box, but always directed his energy to reporting the truth, exposing corruption and and serving the public interest; and

WHEREAS, Born in Yonkers, Arthur Aldrich, affectionately known as Art, spent his childhood in Baltimore and then White Plains, New York; he began his first job in journalism at just 11-years-old, covering local government meetings for a Maryland news group; and

WHEREAS, After graduating from high school in White Plains, Arthur Aldrich went on to attend NYU and the New School, later obtaining a master's degree at SUNY Empire State College; and

WHEREAS, Early in his career, Arthur Aldrich took a job with a Mamaroneck weekly before working as an editor with the Eastchester Record; he was also a lighting designer and technical director for off-Broadway productions, but community news became his passion; and

WHEREAS, Arthur Aldrich and his bride settled in New Rochelle, and he soon landed a job at the former Rockland Leader, a Spring Valley-based weekly with a circulation that, in its heyday, showed up The Journal News; and

WHEREAS, The Rockland Leader's remnants turned into a group of community weeklies which combined existing local papers that joined a larger corporation; in 1973, Arthur Aldrich left that corporate group to launch Our Town; and

WHEREAS, With a steadfast and unwavering commitment to his community, Arthur Aldrich taught marketing and business courses at Rockland Community College and later at the Long Island University Learning Collaborative; in addition, he offered discussions at local assisted living communities on topics such as "the history of the American newsreel"; and

WHEREAS, A longtime active member of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Rockland in Pomona, Arthur Aldrich was also involved in various community groups across Rockland and taught defensive driving courses; and

WHEREAS, Arthur Aldrich is survived by his wife, Elaine; his son, Arthur; his daughter-in-law, Christina; two grandchildren; and a niece and nephew; and

WHEREAS, Arthur Aldrich's selflessness and benevolence will shine on through his family's vivid and happy memories; his insight and strength will serve as a beacon of love, light and hope to the countless lives he touched; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Arthur Aldrich leaves behind a legacy which will remain as a comforting memory to all who were privileged to have known and loved such an amazing man; he will be deeply missed and truly merits the grateful tribute of this Legislative Body; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to mourn the death of Arthur Aldrich, and to express its deepest condolences to his family; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the family of Arthur Aldrich.