WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 25th Anniversary of the Military Women's Memorial located at the ceremonial entrance to Arlington National Cemetery; and

WHEREAS, Legislation was authorized in 1986 to honor women's contribution to the United States Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, In October 1997 the Military Women's Memorial was dedicated and opened to the public; it is still the only memorial to honor and tell the stories of all the nation's women who served in and with the military beginning with the American Revolution; and

WHEREAS, The mission of the Memorial is to honor the women who served in and with the United States Armed Forces from the time of the American Revolution until today; and

WHEREAS, Women did not officially serve in the military until the 20th Century, many women served with the military in the earlier times of crisis; and

WHEREAS, Women participated in the United States Armed Forces during World War II, which is considered a major turning point in their role in the armed forces; and

WHEREAS, By the end of World War II, there were few noncombatants' jobs in which women did not serve; and stories of individual women who served in or with the military; and

WHEREAS, Through its avowed commitment to those who served in the cause of America's Freedom, the Military Women's Memorial formerly known as the Women in Military Service For America Memorial does so unselfishly advance that spirit of united purpose and shared concern which is the unalterable manifestation of our American experience; now, therefore, be it
