

BY: M. of A. Perry

CELEBRATING the life and accomplishments of Alfred S. Quashie, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to pay tribute to citizens of the State of New York whose lifework and civic endeavor served to enhance the quality of life in their communities and this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, Alfred Sebastian Quashie of Brooklyn, New York, died on Saturday, May 29, 2021, at the age of 88; and

WHEREAS, Alfred S. Quashie was an active community resident since the early 1980s when he purchased his home on the corner of Troy Avenue and Farragut Road; he took pride of the beauty of his three-story home and loved the sense of community he shared with his neighbors; and

WHEREAS, Over the years, Alfred S. Quashie served on the Troy Avenue Block Association in the role of Treasurer for many years, and was one of the night patrol walkers for the block; and

WHEREAS, In addition to serving his quaint community, Alfred S. Quashie was an active voice and a member of Community Board 17; he was instrumental in leading the charge to get the waste and paint companies located on Troy Avenue on the cross end of the street to provide cleaner air conditions; and

WHEREAS, The air quality for the residents of Troy Avenue was quite toxic for several years, and Alfred S. Quashie was one of the many voices who made sure the community voices were heard by the proper authorities; and

WHEREAS, Alfred S. Quashie served his country as a member of the United States Army from 1958-1960; and

WHEREAS, Alfred S. Quashie distinguished himself in his profession and by his sincere dedication and substantial contribution to the welfare of his community; and

WHEREAS, A native from Carriacou, Grenada, Alfred S. Quashie was born on August 21, 1932; trained in masonry, he worked as a Custom Interior Decorator for over 30 years; and

WHEREAS, Once he retired, Alfred S. Quashie became a regular member of the Paedergat Park senior's 6:30 am exercise class; and

WHEREAS, Alfred S. Quashie loved to travel to Vegas with his daughter, Vanessa, for both his birthday and Thanksgiving, which became their ritual for the last 12 years; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Alfred S. Quashie leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all he served and befriended; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to celebrate the life and accomplishments of Alfred S. Quashie, and to express its most sincere condolences to his family; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the family of Alfred S. Quashie.