

BY: M. of A. Conrad

CELEBRATING the life and accomplishments of Eric R. DuVall, longtime journalist, distinguished citizen and devoted member of his community

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to pay tribute to citizens of the State of New York whose lifework and civic endeavor served to enhance the quality of life in their communities and this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, Eric R. DuVall of Buffalo, New York, died on Saturday, February 12, 2022, at the age of 39; and

WHEREAS, Born on December 8, 1982, Eric R. DuVall was a native of Amherst, New York; he was a 2000 graduate of Sweet Home High School and a member of the Canisius College Class of 2004, where he was editor of the Griffin, the college newspaper; and

WHEREAS, From an early age, Eric R. DuVall enjoyed writing; he even attended summer writing camps at Canisius College as a youth; and

WHEREAS, He worked several jobs as a reporter and editor, and in July of 2021, he landed a position as an assistant city editor at The Buffalo News; and

WHEREAS, Eric R. DuVall, who spent much of his media career reporting on the Tonawandas, was a well-known and well-respected fixture in the Buffalo area, not only for his laudable work as a member of the press, but also as a volunteer organizer for the popular food festival Taste of Buffalo, and his undying love for the Buffalo Bills; and

WHEREAS, Eric R. DuVall helmed the Tonawanda News, and later the Twin Cities Sun, weekly publications covering the City of Tonawanda, North Tonawanda, the Town of Tonawanda, and the Village of Kenmore; and

WHEREAS, Few local reporters and editors had as thorough an understanding of the community than Eric R. DuVall; his talent, humor and commitment to journalistic ethics and principles secured his legacy across the Tonawandas, the greater region and the profession to which he devoted his adult life; and

WHEREAS, Eric R. DuVall distinguished himself in his profession and by his sincere dedication and substantial contribution to the welfare of his community; and

WHEREAS, Predeceased by his father, Gary DuVall, Eric R. DuVall is survived by his mother, Lori DuVall-Jackson; and his brother, Scott; as well as his roommate, Robyn Ventura, and their dog, Omlette; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Eric R. DuVall leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all he served and befriended; he will be deeply missed and truly merits the grateful tribute of this Legislative Body now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to celebrate the life and accomplishments of Eric R. DuVall, and to express its deepest condolences to his family; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the family of Eric R. DuVall.