Introduced by Sen. THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to unfair practices of proprietary institutions of higher education

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 2 349-g to read as follows:

3 § 349-g. Proprietary institutions of higher education; unlawful unfair
4 practices. 1. For purposes of this section, "proprietary institution"
5 shall be defined as any licensed private career school, certified 6 English as a Second Language school, or online education marketplace as 7 defined in article one hundred one of the education law, or a for-profit 8 degree-granting institution approved pursuant to the department of 9 education, including any such institution with a physical presence in 10 the state or enrolling New York state students in an online distance 11 education program.

12 2. In addition to the protections afforded to consumers in this arti-
13 cle for students that are attending or at one time attended a proprie-14 tary institution in this state, the attorney general whenever he or she 15 believes from evidence satisfactory to him or her that any proprietary 16 institution or agent or employee thereof has engaged in any of the acts 17 or practices deemed to be unfair under this section, the attorney gener-18 al may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the people of the 19 state of New York to enjoin such unfair acts or practices, obtain resti-20 tution of any moneys or property obtained directly or indirectly by any 21 such unfair acts or practices, and/or obtain civil penalties for 22 violations of this section. In such action preliminary relief may be 23 granted under article sixty-three of the civil practice law and rules.

24 3. An act or practice shall be deemed unfair under this section if:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02334-01-1

1 (a) it causes or is likely to cause substantial injury to students
2 that are attending or at one time attended a proprietary institution 3 that cannot be reasonably avoided by students that are attending or at 4 one time attended a proprietary institution; or

5 (b) it is not outweighed by countervailing benefits to students that 6 are attending or at one time attended a proprietary institution, or to 7 competition.

8 4. Nothing in this section shall supersede, amend or repeal any other 9 law of this state under which the attorney general is authorized to take 10 any action or conduct any inquiry.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
