Introduced by Sen. GAUGHRAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to removing the word residential from notices of conveyance of real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 291 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 2 641 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 291. Recording of conveyances. A conveyance of real property, within 4 the state, on being duly acknowledged by the person executing the same,
5 or proved as required by this chapter, and such acknowledgment or proof 6 duly certified when required by this chapter, may be recorded in the 7 office of the clerk of the county where such real property is situated, 8 and such county clerk or city registrar where applicable shall, upon the 9 request of any party, on tender of the lawful fees therefor, record the 10 same in said office. Every such conveyance not so recorded is void as 11 against any person who subsequently purchases or acquires by exchange or 12 contracts to purchase or acquire by exchange, the same real property or 13 any portion thereof, or acquires by assignment the rent to accrue there-14 from as provided in section two hundred ninety-four-a of this article, 15 in good faith and for a valuable consideration, from the same vendor or 16 assignor, his distributees or devisees, and whose conveyance, contract
17 or assignment is first duly recorded, and is void as against the lien
18 upon the same real property or any portion thereof arising from payments 19 made upon the execution of or pursuant to the terms of a contract with 20 the same vendor, his distributees or devisees, if such contract is made 21 in good faith and is first duly recorded. Notwithstanding the forego-22 ing, any increase in the principal balance of a mortgage lien by virtue 23 of the addition thereto of unpaid interest in accordance with the terms
24 of the mortgage shall retain the priority of the original mortgage lien 25 as so increased provided that any such mortgage instrument sets forth in the county of _____ New York

On _____, documents were filed at this date

office to change ownership and transfer title of your property.

To: _____

name of new owner

If you have any questions regarding the validity of the documents, and wish to dispute the recording of the transfer, you should obtain legal counsel. If you believe you are a victim of a crime related to this recording, contact your local law enforcement agency or, if in the City of New York, the office of the sheriff."

The party seeking to record such conveyance shall bear the cost of such written notice. The clerk of the county or city registrar is entitled to charge a reasonable fee to cover the cost of mailing the envelope to the owner of record. Failure to mail such notice or the failure of any party to receive the same, shall not affect the validity of the conveyance of the property.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
