IN SENATE

January 20, 2021

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, in relation to the imposition of penalties and remedies in suits brought for the vindication of civil rights or human rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 10 and sections 100 and 101 of the civil rights
2 law, as renumbered by chapter 263 of the laws of 2019, are renumbered 3 article 11 and sections 110 and 111 and a new article 10 is added to 4 read as follows:

ARTICLE 10

PENALTIES AND REMEDIES

Section 100. Penalties and remedies.

8 § 100. Penalties and remedies. 1. Every person who, under color of any 9 statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of this state,
10 subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of this state or other 11 person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, 12 privileges, or immunities secured by the constitution and laws of this 13 state, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in 14 equity, or other proper proceeding for redress, except that in any 15 action brought against a judicial officer for an act or omission taken 16 in such officer's judicial capacity, injunctive relief shall not be 17 granted unless a declaratory decree was violated or declaratory relief 18 was unavailable.

19 2. The supreme court of the state of New York shall have jurisdiction
20 over all suits brought for the vindication of civil rights as provided 21 in subdivision one of this section. To the extent that the laws of the 22 state of New York furnish a remedy for the vindication of such civil

1 rights, such laws shall be applied; but in all cases where such laws are 2 deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies, the 3 common law shall be extended to and govern the said courts in the trial
4 and disposition of the matter.

5 3. (a) In any action or proceeding to enforce this section or the New 6 York human rights law, the court must award the prevailing party, other 7 than the state of New York, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the 8 costs, except that in any action brought against a judicial officer for 9 an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity such offi-
10 cer shall not be held liable for any costs, including attorney's fees, 11 unless such action was clearly in excess of such officer's jurisdiction.

12 (b) In awarding an attorney's fee under paragraph (a) of this subdivi-13 sion in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of this article, 14 the court shall include reasonable expert fees as part of the attorney's 15 fee.

16 4. This article shall supplement and not displace any jurisdiction
17 currently existing in the courts or administrative agencies of this 18 state to the extent that other laws of this state already provide a 19 remedy for the type of injury referred to in this section.

20 5. In interpreting this section, the courts may consider the fundamen-21 tal principles already enunciated by the federal courts in interpreting 22 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, which are the parallel federal civil rights 23 laws.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 25 have become a law.
