AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the determination of youthful offender status

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 720.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

- 5. (a) An individual who was an eliqible youth who was not determined to be a youthful offender by the sentencing court may apply to the sentencing court for a new determination after at least five years have passed since the imposition of the sentence for which such individual was not determined to be a youthful offender, or, if the individual was sentenced to a period of incarceration, including a period of incarceration imposed in conjunction with a sentence of probation, the individual's latest release from incarceration, provided that such individual 11 has not been convicted of any new crime since the imposition of such 12 sentence.
- 13 (b) In considering whether such individual should be determined to be a youthful offender pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the 14 court shall consider the following factors: 15
- (i) whether relieving the individual from the onus of a criminal 16 17 record would facilitate rehabilitation and successful reentry and rein-18 tegration into society;
 - (ii) the manner in which the crime was committed;
