51 multiplied by the percentage of the profits interests of the electing 52 partnership that are owned by partners or members who are residents of 53 New York state as defined in article twenty-two of this chapter. For 54 purposes of determining partnership taxable income, an entity that is a 55 disregarded entity as described in section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) of inter-

5 addition, for purposes of determining partnership taxable income, the 6 portion of a partnership interest treated as owned by the grantor of a 7 trust or by another person pursuant to section 671 of the Internal 8 Revenue Code shall be deemed owned by such grantor or other person for 9 the purpose of determining whether that portion of the partnership is 24 article, and (ii) multiplied by the percentage of the pro rata shares of 25 the electing S corporation that are owned by individuals, trusts, and 26 estates who are residents of New York state as defined in article twen-27 ty-two of this chapter. For purposes of determining S corporation taxa-28 ble income, an entity that is a disregarded entity as described in regu-29 lation section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(i) for federal income tax purposes is 30 also disregarded in determining the percentage of the profits interest 31 of the electing S corporation that are owned by shareholders who are 32 subject to tax pursuant to article twenty-two of this chapter or that 33 are owned by shareholders who are residents of New York state pursuant 34 to the provisions of article twenty-two of this chapter. In addition, 35 for purposes of determining S corporation taxable income, the portion of 36 an S corporation interest treated as owned by the grantor of a trust or 37 by another person pursuant to section 671 of the Internal Revenue Code 38 shall be deemed owned by such grantor or other person for the purpose of 40 shareholder who is subject to tax pursuant to article twenty-two or is 41 owned by a shareholder who is a resident of New York state as defined in 42 article twenty-two of this chapter.

43 § 861. Pass-through entity tax election. (a) Any eligible partnership 44 or eligible S corporation doing business within this state shall be 45 allowed to make an annual election to be taxed pursuant to this article.

46 (b) In order to be effective, the annual election must be made (1) if 47 the entity is an S corporation, by any officer, manager or shareholder 48 of the S corporation who is authorized under the law of the state where 49 the corporation is incorporated or under the S corporation's organiza-50 tional documents to make the election and who represents to having such 51 authorization under penalty of perjury; or (2) if the entity is not an S 52 corporation, by any member, partner, owner, or other individual with 53 authority to bind the entity or sign returns pursuant to section six 54 hundred fifty-three of this chapter.

55 (c) The annual election shall be made in such manner as the commis-56 sioner may prescribe by regulation. An election pursuant to this subsection shall be effective for the affected pass-through entity only for the taxable year for which such election is made. An election under subsection (a) of this section may be made at any time during the preceding taxable year of the pass-through entity or at any time during the taxable year of the pass-through entity and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month of such taxable year. If an election under subsection (a) of this section is made for any taxable year of the pass-through entity and such election is made after the fifteenth day of the third month of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month of the following taxable year, such election shall be treated as made for the following taxable year. Provided, however, in a tax year beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one but before June fifteenth, two thousand twenty-one, the pass-through entity may make such election at any time prior to June fifteenth, two thousand twenty-one.

(d) (1) Termination of election. An election pursuant to this section shall be terminated whenever, at any time during the taxable year, the taxpayer ceases to be an eligible partnership or eligible S corporation.

(2) Effective date of termination. The termination of an election is effective immediately upon the taxpayer ceasing to be an eligible partnership or eligible S corporation and no tax will be due pursuant to this article for the taxable year. Provided, however, in a tax year beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one but before June fifteenth, two thousand twenty-one, the pass-through entity may make such election at any time prior to June fifteenth, two thousand twenty-one.

(3) Abatement of penalties. If a termination occurs pursuant to this subdivision solely because a partner, member or shareholder of an otherwise eligible partnership or eligible S corporation died during the taxable year and the successor to the decedent's interest in the partnership or S corporation is an entity that will result in the partnership or the S corporation not being an eligible partnership or S corporation, no addition to tax will be imposed pursuant to subsection (c) of section six hundred eighty-five of this chapter on the partners, members and shareholders of such partnership or S corporation solely for underpayment of estimated personal income tax as a result of the termination of the election made pursuant to this article.

§ 862. Imposition and rate of tax. (a) General. A tax is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the partnership taxable income of every electing partnership doing business within this state and on the S corporation taxable income of every electing S corporation doing business within this state. This tax shall be in addition to any other taxes imposed and shall be at the rate of six and eighty-five hundredths percent if the sum of an entity's partners, members or shareholders share of distributive proceeds attributed to the pass-through entity is less than five million dollars and eight and eighty-two hundredths percent if the sum of an entity's partners, members or shareholders share of distributive proceeds attributed to the pass-through entity is five million dollars or more for each taxable year beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one.

(b) Allocation to New York by an electing partnership. In determining the amount of partnership taxable income, the adjusted net income of the electing partnership shall be allocated to this state pursuant to the principles of article twenty-two of this chapter.

(c) Allocation to New York by an electing S corporation. In determining the amount of S corporation taxable income, the adjusted net income

1 of the electing S corporation shall be allocated to this state by multi-2 plying the adjusted net income of the electing S corporation by the 3 business apportionment factor of the electing S corporation as calcu-4 lated pursuant to section two hundred ten-A of this chapter.

5 § 863. Pass-through entity tax credit. A partner or member in an 6 electing partnership or a shareholder of an electing S corporation, 7 which partner, member or shareholder's federal taxable income includes 8 separately and non-separately computed items from the electing partner-9 ship as described in section 702(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or from 10 the electing S corporation as described in section 1366(a) of the Inter-11 nal Revenue Code and is subject to tax under article twenty-two of this 12 chapter shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed pursuant to 13 article twenty-two of this chapter, computed pursuant to the provisions 14 of subsection (kkk) of section six hundred six of this chapter.

15 § 864. Payment of estimated tax. (a) Definition of estimated tax.
16 Estimated tax means the amount that an electing partnership or electing 17 S corporation estimates to be the tax imposed by section eight hundred 18 sixty-two of this article for the current taxable year.

19 (b) General. The estimated tax shall be paid as follows for an elect-20 ing partnership and an electing S corporation that reports on a calendar 21 year basis:

22 (1) The estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments on 23 March fifteenth, June fifteenth, September fifteenth and December 24 fifteenth.

25 (2) The amount of any required installment shall be twenty-five 26 percent of the required annual payment.

27 (3) The required annual payment is the lesser of: (A) ninety percent 28 of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year; or (B) one hundred 29 percent of the tax shown on the return of the electing partnership or 30 electing S corporation for the preceding taxable year.

31 (c) Application to short taxable year. This section shall apply to a 32 taxable year of less than twelve months and to a taxable year for which 33 an election is made before June fifteenth, two thousand twenty-one, in 34 accordance with procedures established by the commissioner.

35 (d) Fiscal year. This section shall apply to a taxable year other than 36 a calendar year by the substitution of the months of such fiscal year 37 for the corresponding months specified in this section.

38 (e) Installments paid in advance. An electing partnership or electing 39 S corporation may elect to pay any installment of its estimated tax 40 prior to the date prescribed for the payment thereof.

41 § 865. Filing of return and payment of tax. (a) General. On or before 42 the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the taxable 43 year, each electing partnership and each electing S corporation must 44 file a return for the taxable year reporting the information required 45 pursuant to this article.

46 (b) Certification of eligibility. Every return filed pursuant to 47 subdivision (a) of this section shall include, in a format as prescribed 48 by the commissioner, a certification by an individual authorized to act 49 on behalf of the electing partnership or electing S corporation that the 50 taxpayer:

51 (1) made a timely, valid election to be subject to tax pursuant to 52 this article;

53 (2) was at all times during the taxable year eligible to make such an 54 election, unless such return includes a notification of termination as 55 provided for in subdivision (c) of this section; and 56 (3) that all statements contained therein are true.

(c) Notification of termination. If an election is terminated during the taxable year pursuant to subdivision (e) of section eight hundred sixty-one of this article, the electing partnership or electing S corporation is required to file a return pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section notifying the commissioner of such termination. Such notification will be considered a claim for a credit or refund of an overpayment of pass-through entity tax of any estimated payments made pursuant to this article for the taxable year containing the date of termination.

(d) Information on return. Each electing partnership and electing S corporation shall report on such return:

(1) The balance of any tax shown on such return, not previously paid as installments of estimated tax, shall be paid with such return;

(2) Identifying information of all partners, members and/or shareholders eligible to receive a credit pursuant to section eight hundred sixty-three of this article and such partner's, member's and/or shareholder's distributive or pro rata share of the pass-through entity tax imposed on the electing partnership or S corporation; and

(3) Any other information as required by the commissioner.

(e) Information provided to partners. Each electing partnership subject to tax under this article shall report to each partner or member its distributive share of:

(1) the partnership taxable income of the electing partnership;

(2) the pass-through entity tax imposed on the electing partnership; and

(3) any other information as required by the commissioner.

(f) Information provided to shareholders. Each electing S corporation subject to tax under this article shall report to each shareholder its pro rata share of:

(1) the S corporation taxable income of the electing S corporation;

(2) the pass-through entity tax imposed on the electing S corporation; and

(3) any other information as required by the commissioner.

§ 866. Accounting periods and methods. (a) Accounting periods. An electing partnership's or electing S corporation's taxable year pursuant to this article shall be the same as the electing partnership's or electing S corporation's taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

(b) Accounting methods. An electing partnership's or electing S corporation's method of accounting pursuant to this article shall be the same as the electing partnership's or electing S corporation's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Change of accounting period or method. (1) If an electing partnership's or electing S corporation's taxable year or method of accounting is changed for federal income tax purposes, the taxable year or method of accounting for purposes of this article shall be similarly changed.

(2) If an electing partnership's or electing S corporation's method of accounting is changed, any additional tax that results from adjustments determined to be necessary solely by reason of such change shall not be greater than if such adjustments were ratably allocated and included for the taxable year of the change and the preceding taxable years, not in excess of two, during which the entity used the method of accounting from which the change is made.

§ 867. Procedural provisions. (a) General. All provisions of article twenty-two of this chapter will apply to the provisions of this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if the language of article twenty-two of this chapter had been incorporated in full into this article and had been specifically adjusted for and expressly

1 referred to the tax imposed by this article, except to the extent that 2 any provision is either inconsistent with a provision of this article or 3 is not relevant to this article. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, 4 no credit against tax in article twenty-two of this chapter can be used 5 to offset the tax due pursuant to this article.

6 (b) Cross Article filings. Notwithstanding any other provisions of 7 this article:

8 (1) The commissioner may require the filing of one return which, in 9 addition to the return provided for in section eight hundred sixty-five 10 of this article, may also include any of the returns required to be 11 filed by a taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of subsection (c) of 12 section six hundred fifty-eight or article nine-A of this chapter.

13 (2) Where such return is required, the commissioner may also require 14 the payment with it of a single amount which shall equal the total of 15 the amounts (total taxes less any credits or refunds) that would have 16 been required to be paid with the returns pursuant to the provisions of 17 this article and the provisions of article twenty-two of this chapter or 18 the provisions of article nine-A of this chapter, whichever is applica-19 ble.

20 (3) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the commissioner 21 may require that all forms or returns pursuant to this article must be 22 filed electronically and all payments of tax must be paid electron-23 ically.

24 (c) Deposit and disposition of revenue. All taxes, interest, penal-25 ties, and fees collected or received by the commissioner pursuant to 26 this article shall be deposited and disposed of pursuant to the 27 provisions of section one hundred seventy-one-a of this chapter.

28 (d) Secrecy provision. All the provisions of paragraphs one and two of 29 subsection (e) of section six hundred ninety-seven of this chapter will 30 apply to the provisions of this article. Notwithstanding any provisions 31 of this chapter to the contrary, the commissioner may disclose informa-32 tion and returns regarding the calculation and payment of the tax 33 imposed by this article and any credit calculated on taxes paid pursuant 34 to this article by an electing partnership or electing S corporation to 35 a partner, member or shareholder of such entity.

36 § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection 37 (kkk) to read as follows:

38 (kkk) Credit for pass-through entity tax. (1) A taxpayer partner or 39 member of an electing partnership and a taxpayer shareholder of an 40 electing S corporation subject to tax under article twenty-four-A of 41 this chapter shall be entitled to a credit against the tax imposed by 42 this article as provided in this subsection. For purposes of this 43 subsection, the terms "electing partnership," "electing S corporation," 44 and "pass-through entity tax" shall have the same meanings as used in 45 article twenty-four-A of this chapter.

46 (2) The credit shall be equal to (A) the product of:

47 (i) the taxpayer's percentage of the interest in the electing partner-48 ship or pro rata share of the electing S corporation that are owned by 49 partners, members or shareholders who are subject to the tax imposed by 50 this article as determined pursuant to the provisions of subsections (h) 51 and (i) of section eight hundred sixty of this chapter;

52 (ii) ninety-two percent; and 53 (iii) the pass-through entity tax paid with respect to income that is 54 sourced or allocated to New York state by the electing partnership or 55 electing S corporation for the taxable year; and

(B) for a taxpayer that is a resident, the product of: (i) the taxpayer's percentage of the interests in the electing S corporation or electing partnership that are owned by residents of New York state as determined pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions (h) and (i) of section eight hundred sixty of this chapter; (ii) ninety-two percent; and (iii) the pass-through entity tax paid with respect to income that is not sourced or allocated to New York state by the electing partnership or the electing S corporation.

(3) If a taxpayer is a partner, member or shareholder in multiple electing partnerships and/or electing S corporations subject to tax pursuant to article twenty-four-A of this chapter, the taxpayer's credit shall be the sum of such credits calculated pursuant to paragraph two of this subsection with regard to each entity in which the taxpayer has a direct ownership interest.

(4) If the amount of the credit allowable pursuant to this subsection for any taxable year exceeds the tax due for such year pursuant to this article, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment, to be credited or refunded, without interest.

§ 3. Section 620 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 1962, subsection (a) as amended and paragraph 3 of subsection (b) as added by chapter 274 of the laws of 1987, and subsection (d) as added by chapter 166 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

§ 620. Credit for income tax of another state. (a) General. A resident shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due under this article for any income tax imposed on such resident for the taxable year by another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, the District of Columbia or a province of Canada, upon income both derived therefrom and subject to tax under this article. The term "income tax imposed" in the previous sentence shall not include the portion of such tax (determined in the manner provided for in section six hundred twenty-A) which is imposed upon the ordinary income portion (or part thereof) of a lump sum distribution which is subject to the separate tax imposed by section [~~six hundred one-C~~] six hundred three.

(b) Pass-through entity taxes. (1) A resident shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise due pursuant to this article for any pass-through entity tax substantially similar to the tax imposed pursuant to article twenty-four-A of this chapter imposed on the income of a partnership or S corporation of which the resident is a partner, member or shareholder for the taxable year by another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia upon income both derived therefrom and subject to tax under this article.

(2) Such credit shall be equal to the product of:

(A) the taxpayer's profit percentage of the partnership or pro rata share of the S corporation;

(B) ninety-two percent; and

(C) the pass-through entity tax paid by the partnership or S corporation to such other state, political subdivision of such other state or the District of Columbia.

(3) However, such credit will be allowed on tax paid only if:

(A) the state of the United States, political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia imposing such tax also imposes an income tax substantially similar to the tax imposed under article twenty-four-A of this chapter; and

(B) in the case of taxes paid by an S corporation, such S corporation was treated as a New York S corporation.

1 (c) Limitations. (1) The credit under this section shall not exceed 2 the percentage of the tax otherwise due under this article determined by 3 dividing the portion of the taxpayer's New York income subject to taxa-4 tion by such other jurisdiction by the total amount of the taxpayer's 5 New York income.

6 (2) The credit under this section shall not reduce the tax otherwise 7 due under this article to an amount less than would have been due if the 8 income subject to taxation by such other jurisdiction were excluded from 9 the taxpayer's New York income.

10 (3) In the case of a taxpayer who elects to claim the foreign tax 11 credit for federal income tax purposes, the credit under this section 12 for income tax imposed by a province of Canada shall be allowed for that 13 portion of the provincial tax not claimed for federal purposes for the 14 taxable year or a preceding taxable year, provided however, to the 15 extent the provincial tax is claimed for federal purposes for a succeed-16 ing taxable year, the credit under this section must be added back in 17 such succeeding taxable year. The provincial tax shall be deemed to be 18 claimed last for federal income tax purposes and for purposes of this 19 subsection.

20 ~~[(e)]~~ (d) Definition. For purposes of this section New York income 21 means:

22 (1) the New York adjusted gross income of an individual, or 23 (2) the amount of the income of an estate or trust, determined as if 24 the estate or trust were an individual computing his New York adjusted 25 gross income under section six hundred twelve.

26 ~~[(d) S corporation shareholders. In the case of a shareholder of an S~~ 27 ~~corporation, the term "income tax" in subsection (a) of this section~~ 28 ~~shall not include any such tax imposed upon or payable by the corpo-~~ 29 ~~ration, but shall include any such tax with respect to the income of the~~ 30 ~~corporation imposed upon or payable by the shareholder, without regard~~ 31 ~~to whether an election independent of the federal S election was~~ 32 ~~required to effect such imposition upon the shareholder.]~~

33 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 171-a of the tax law, as amended by 34 section 3 of part XX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 35 read as follows:

50 such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies as may be 51 designated by the comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller. Such an 52 account may be established in one or more of such depositories. Such 53 deposits shall be kept separate and apart from all other money in the 54 possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate 55 security from all such depositories. Of the total revenue collected or 56 received under such articles of this chapter, the comptroller shall

1 retain in the comptroller's hands such amount as the commissioner may 2 determine to be necessary for refunds or reimbursements under such arti-3 cles of this chapter out of which amount the comptroller shall pay any 4 refunds or reimbursements to which taxpayers shall be entitled under the 5 provisions of such articles of this chapter. The commissioner and the 6 comptroller shall maintain a system of accounts showing the amount of 7 revenue collected or received from each of the taxes imposed by such 8 articles. The comptroller, after reserving the amount to pay such 9 refunds or reimbursements, shall, on or before the tenth day of each 10 month, pay into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund all 11 revenue deposited under this section during the preceding calendar month 12 and remaining to the comptroller's credit on the last day of such 13 preceding month, (i) except that the comptroller shall pay to the state 14 department of social services that amount of overpayments of tax imposed 15 by article twenty-two of this chapter and the interest on such amount 16 which is certified to the comptroller by the commissioner as the amount
