Introduced by Sen. BRESLIN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to facilities utilized by the Albany parking authority, compensation of board members of the Albany parking authority, and increasing the amount of bonds of the Albany parking authority authorized to be outstanding

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 6 of section 1493-b of the public authorities
2 law, as added by chapter 874 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 6. The term "project" shall mean any area or place operated or to be 5 operated by the authority for the parking or storing of motor and other 6 vehicles or any area or place which use is supported by the authority's 7 parking or storing of such vehicles and shall, without limiting the 8 foregoing, include all real and personal property, driveways, roads,
9 approaches, structures, terminals of all kinds, garages, meters, mechan-
10 ical equipment, and all appurtenances and facilities [~~either~~] proximate 11 to, on, above or under the ground which are used or usable in connection 12 with such parking or storing of such vehicles in the area of the city or 13 which facilitate economic development that includes increased supply or 14 demand for parking;

15 § 2. Section 1493-c of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 874 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

17 § 1493-c. Albany parking authority. A board to be known as "Albany
18 Parking Authority" is hereby created. Such board shall be a body corpo-19 rate and politic, constituting a public benefit corporation, and its 20 existence shall commence upon the appointment of the members as herein 21 provided. It shall consist of a chairman and four other members, who 22 shall be appointed by the mayor, with the advice and consent of the 23 common council. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor.
24 Of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a period of 25 one year, one for a period of two years, one for a period of three

1 years, one for a period of four years, and one for a period of five 2 years. At the expiration of such terms, the terms of office of their 3 successors shall be five years. Each member shall continue to serve 4 until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Vacancies in 5 such board occurring otherwise than by the expiration of term shall be 6 filled for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall choose 7 from their number a vice-chairman. The members of the board [~~shall be~~ 8 ~~entitled to no compensation for their services but~~] may receive such 9 compensation as the authority shall determine, not to exceed five thou-10 sand dollars per member per year and shall be entitled to reimbursement 11 for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of 12 their official duties. The powers of the authority shall be vested in 13 and exercised by a majority of the members of the board. Such board may 14 delegate to one or more of its members or to its officers, agents and 15 employees such powers and duties as it may deem proper. Such board and 16 its corporate existence shall continue only for a period of fifteen 17 years, and thereafter until all its liabilities have been met, and its 18 bonds have been paid in full or such liabilities or bonds have otherwise 19 been discharged. Upon its ceasing to exist, all its rights and proper-20 ties shall pass to the city.

21 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 1493-i of the public authorities law, as 22 added by chapter 874 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

23 1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from 24 time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any purpose mentioned in 25 section fourteen hundred ninety-three-d hereof, including the acquisi-
26 tion, construction, reconstruction and repair of personal and real prop-27 erty of all kinds deemed by the board to be necessary or desirable to 28 carry out such purpose, as well as to pay such expenses as may be deemed 29 by the board necessary or desirable to the financing thereof and placing 30 the project or projects in operation in the aggregate principal amount 31 of not exceeding [~~fifty~~] seventy-five million dollars outstanding at any 32 one time. The authority shall have power from time to time and whenever 33 it deems refunding expedient, to refund any bonds by the issuance of new 34 bonds, whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and 35 may issue bonds partly to refund bonds then outstanding and partly for 36 any other purpose hereinabove described. The refunding bonds may be 37 exchanged for the bonds to be refunded, with such cash adjustments as 38 may be agreed, or may be sold and the proceeds applied to the purchase 39 or payment of the bonds to be refunded. In computing the total amount of 40 bonds of the authority which may at any time be outstanding the amount 41 of the outstanding bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the sale of 42 new bonds or by exchange for new bonds shall be excluded. Except as may 43 otherwise be expressly provided by the authority, the bonds of every 44 issue shall be general obligations of the authority payable out of any 45 moneys or revenues of the authority, subject only to any agreements with 46 the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular moneys or reven-
47 ues. Notwithstanding the fact that the bonds may be payable from a 48 special fund, if they are otherwise of such form and character as to be 49 negotiable instruments under article eight of the uniform commercial 50 code the bonds shall be and are hereby made negotiable instruments with-51 in the meaning of and for all the purposes of article eight of the 52 uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for 53 registration.

54 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
