Introduced by Sen. HARCKHAM -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to authorizing public bodies to hold public meetings remotely; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 103 of the public officers law, as amended by chap-
2 ter 368 of the laws of 1977 and renumbered by chapter 652 of the laws of 3 1983, subdivision (c) as added by chapter 289 of the laws of 2000,
4 subdivision (d) as added by chapter 40 of the laws of 2010, subdivision
5 (d) as added by chapter 43 of the laws of 2010, subdivision (e) as added 6 by chapter 603 of the laws of 2011 and subdivision (f) as amended by 7 chapter 319 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

8 § 103. Open meetings and executive sessions. ~~[(a)]~~ 1. Every meeting 9 of a public body shall be open to the general public, except that an 10 executive session of such body may be called and business transacted
11 thereat in accordance with section ninety-five of this ~~[article]~~ 12 chapter.

13 ~~[(b)]~~ 2. Public bodies shall make or cause to be made all reasonable
14 efforts to ensure that meetings that are not conducted remotely are held
15 in facilities that permit barrier-free physical access to the physically 16 handicapped, as defined in subdivision five of section fifty of the 17 public buildings law.

18 ~~[(c) A public body that uses videoconferencing to conduct its meetings~~ 19 ~~shall provide an opportunity for the public to attend, listen and~~ 20 ~~observe at any site at which a member participates.]~~ 3. A public body
21 may meet remotely, in whole or in part, through the use of a telephone 22 conference, a video conference, and/or other similar technology, without

1 permitting public in-person access to such meetings and may take all
2 actions authorized by the law at meetings held remotely provided:

3 (a) the meeting is conducted pursuant to rules approved by such public 4 body;

5 (b) the public has the ability to view or listen to such proceedings
6 and, where appropriate, provide comments electronically;

7 (c) the minutes of the meeting are recorded and are later transcribed;

8 (d) all required documents and records utilized at the meeting are 9 available in an electronic format on the internet and upon request; and

10 (e) each notice of the meeting clearly provides instructions for the 11 participants at the meeting to access the meeting, locate necessary 12 documentation for the meeting and submit comments and notice to the 13 general public in accordance with section one hundred four of this arti-
14 cle.

15 ~~[(d)]~~ 4. Public bodies shall make or cause to be made all reasonable
16 efforts to ensure that meetings that are not conducted remotely are held 17 in an appropriate facility which can adequately accommodate members of 18 the public who wish to attend such meetings.

19 ~~[(d)-1-]~~ 5.(a) Any meeting of a public body that is not conducted 20 remotely open to the public shall be open to being photographed, broad-21 cast, webcast, or otherwise recorded and/or transmitted by audio or 22 video means. As used herein the term "broadcast" shall also include the 23 transmission of signals by cable.

24 ~~[2-]~~ (b) A public body may adopt rules, consistent with recommenda-25 tions from the committee on open government, reasonably governing the 26 location of equipment and personnel used to photograph, broadcast,
27 webcast, or otherwise record a meeting that is not conducted remotely so 28 as to conduct its proceedings in an orderly manner. Such rules shall be 29 conspicuously posted during meetings and written copies shall be 30 provided upon request to those in attendance.

31 ~~[(e)]~~ 6. Agency records available to the public pursuant to article 32 six of this chapter, as well as any proposed resolution, law, rule, 33 regulation, policy or any amendment thereto, that is scheduled to be the 34 subject of discussion by a public body during an open meeting shall be 35 made available, upon request therefor, to the extent practicable as 36 determined by the agency or the department, prior to or at the meeting
37 during which the records will be discussed. Copies of such records may 38 be made available for a reasonable fee, determined in the same manner as 39 provided therefor in article six of this chapter. If the agency in which 40 a public body functions maintains a regularly and routinely updated
41 website and utilizes a high speed internet connection, such records
42 shall be posted on the website to the extent practicable as determined 43 by the agency or the department, prior to the meeting. An agency may, 44 but shall not be required to, expend additional moneys to implement the 45 provisions of this subdivision.

46 ~~[(f)]~~ 7. Open meetings of an agency or authority shall be, to the 47 extent practicable and within available funds, broadcast to the public
48 and maintained as records of the agency or authority. If the agency or 49 authority maintains a website and utilizes a high speed internet
50 connection, such open meeting shall be, to the extent practicable and 51 within available funds, streamed on such website in real-time, and post-52 ed on such website within and for a reasonable time after the meeting.
53 For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "agency" shall mean only 54 a state department, board, bureau, division, council or office and any 55 public corporation the majority of whose members are appointed by the 56 governor. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "authority" shall

1 mean a public authority or public benefit corporation created by or 2 existing under any state law, at least one of whose members is appointed 3 by the governor (including any subsidiaries of such public authority or 4 public benefit corporation), other than an interstate or international 5 authority or public benefit corporation.

6 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire January 7 31, 2022, when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed 8 repealed.
