AN ACT to amend the family court act, in relation to the removal of children by orders of custody

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 4 of subdivision (e) of section 651 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 295 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

- 4. Notifying counsel and issuing orders. Upon consideration of decisions pursuant to article ten of this act, and registry reports and notifying counsel involved in the proceeding, or in the event of a selfrepresented party, notifying such party of the results thereof, including any court appointed attorney for children, the court may issue a temporary, successive temporary or final order of custody or visitation. 10 Such orders shall state whether law enforcement is authorized to remove the child or children in order to comply with and enforce said orders.
- § 2. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 652 of the family court act, 13 as amended by chapter 40 of the laws of 1981, are amended to read as 14 follows:
- (a) When referred from the supreme court to the family court, the 15 family court has jurisdiction to determine, with the same powers 16 possessed by the supreme court, applications to fix temporary or perma-17 18 nent custody and applications to modify judgments and orders of custody 19 or visitation in actions and proceedings for marital separation, 20 divorce, annulment of marriage and dissolution of marriage. Applications 21 to modify judgments and orders of custody may be granted by the family 22 court under this section only upon the showing to the family court that 23 there has been a subsequent change of circumstances and that modifica-

1 tion is required. Such determinations, including modifications of judgments or orders of custody, shall state whether law enforcement is authorized to remove the child or children in order to comply with and enforce court judgments or orders.

(b) In the event no such referral has been made and unless the supreme court provides in the order or judgment awarding custody or visitation in an action for divorce, separation or annulment, that it may be 7 enforced or modified only in the supreme court, the family court may: 9 (i) determine an application to enforce the order or judgment awarding custody or visitation, or (ii) determine an application to modify the 10 11 order or judgment awarding custody or visitation upon a showing that there has been a subsequent change of circumstances and modification is 12 required. Such determinations, including modifications of judgments or 13 14 orders of custody, shall state whether law enforcement is authorized to 15 remove the child or children in order to comply with and enforce court 16 judgments or orders.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
