IN SENATE

April 13, 2021

Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to tuition assistance program awards

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph a of subdivision 3 of section 663 of the education law, as amended by section 4 of part J of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

2 a. In determining the amount of an award for graduate and undergraduate students, the income of the parents shall be excluded if the student has been emancipated from his parents.

3 § 2. The opening paragraph of subparagraph 1 of paragraph b of subdivision 3 of section 663 of the education law, as amended by section 5 of part J of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

4 The applicant is a student who was married on or before December thirty-first of the calendar year prior to the beginning of the academic year for which application is made or is an undergraduate student who has reached the age of twenty-two on or before June thirtieth prior to the academic year for which application is made or is a graduate student and who, during the calendar year next preceding the semester, quarter or term of attendance for which application is made and at all times subsequent thereto up to and including the entire period for which application is made:

5 § 3. Paragraph d of subdivision 3 of section 663 of the education law, as amended by section 6 of part J of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

6 d. Any graduate or undergraduate student who was allowed to exclude parental income pursuant to the provisions of former subdivision three of section six hundred three of this chapter as they existed prior to

1 July first, nineteen hundred seventy-four may continue to exclude such 2 income for so long as he continues to comply with such provisions.

3 § 4. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 667 of the education law, subdi-
4 vision 1 as amended by chapter 622 of the laws of 2008 and subdivision 2 5 as amended by chapter 376 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as 6 follows:

7 1. Recipient qualifications. Tuition assistance program awards are 8 available for all students who are enrolled in approved programs and who 9 demonstrate the ability to complete such courses, in accordance with 10 standards established by the commissioner provided, however, that no 11 award shall be made unless tuition (exclusive of educational fees) and, 12 if applicable, the college fee levied by the state university of New 13 York pursuant to the April first, nineteen hundred sixty-four financing 14 agreements with the New York state dormitory authority charged for the 15 program in which the student is enrolled total at least two hundred 16 dollars a year, and provided further that, no award can exceed one 17 hundred percent of the amount of tuition charged.

18 Nothing in this
19 section, section six hundred sixty-one of this part, or any other 20 provision of this chapter shall be read to exclude any graduate program 21 from classification by the commissioner as an approved program for the 22 purposes of this section.

23 2. Duration. No undergraduate shall be eligible for more than four 24 academic years of study, or five academic years if the program of study
25 normally requires five years. Students enrolled in a program of remedial 26 study, approved by the commissioner in an institution of higher educa-27 tion and intended to culminate in a degree in undergraduate study shall, 28 for purposes of this section, be considered as enrolled in a program of 29 study normally requiring five years. An undergraduate student enrolled 30 in an eligible two year program of study approved by the commissioner 31 shall be eligible for no more than three academic years of study. An 32 undergraduate student enrolled in an approved two or four-year program 33 of study approved by the commissioner who must transfer to another 34 institution as a result of permanent college closure shall be eligible 35 for up to two additional semesters, or their equivalent, to the extent 36 credits necessary to complete his or her program of study were deemed

37 non-transferable from the closed institution or were deemed not applica-
38 ble to such student's program of study by the new institution. No grad-39 uate student shall be eligible for more than four academic years of 40 study provided, however, that no graduate student shall be eligible for 41 more than one degree program at the master's, first professional or 42 doctorate level. No student shall be eligible for a total of more than 43 the equivalent of eight years of combined undergraduate and graduate 44 study.

45 Any semester, quarter, or term of attendance during which a 46 student receives any award under this article, after the effective date 47 of the former scholar incentive program and prior to academic year nine-48 teen hundred eighty-nine--nineteen hundred ninety, shall be counted 49 toward the maximum term of eligibility for tuition assistance under this 50 section, except that any semester, quarter or term of attendance during 51 which a student received an award pursuant to section six hundred 52 sixty-six of this subpart shall be counted as one-half of a semester,
53 quarter or term, as the case may be, toward the maximum term of eligi-
54 bility under this section. Any semester, quarter or term of attendance 55 during which a student received an award pursuant to section six hundred 56 sixty-seven-a of this subpart shall not be counted toward the maximum term of eligibility under this section.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
