1 fail to appoint any person recommended by a party for appointment as a 2 commissioner pursuant to this section, within thirty days after the 3 filing of a certificate of recommendation with such legislative body, 4 then the members of such legislative body who are members of the poli-
5 tical party which filed such certificate may appoint such person. And 6 further provided, if there are no members of the legislative body who 7 are members of the political party which filed such certificate, the 8 appointment shall take effect upon the expiration of thirty days from 9 the date that the certificate was filed. If none of the persons named in 10 any of the certificates filed by a party are so appointed within sixty

14 If a party fails to file a certificate within the time prescribed by 15 this section, the members of the legislative body who are members of 16 such party may appoint any eligible person to such office.

17 § 4. The section heading of section 3-212 of the election law is 18 amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

19 Boards of elections; organization, proceedings, reports and records;
20 budget reporting in the city of New York.

21 6. If, at any time during the city fiscal year of the city of New 22 York, the director of management and budget of such city determines that 23 the expenditures of the board of elections of the city of New York are 24 reasonably likely to exceed appropriations to such board for personnel 25 services or other than personnel services for a quarter of the fiscal 26 year, based upon a reasonable allotment by such director of such appro-27 priations to such quarter, or for the entire fiscal year, such director 28 shall provide written notice of such determination to the co-executive 29 directors of such board, the mayor of such city, the speaker of the city 30 council of such city, and the public advocate of such city, together 31 with any relevant requests for additional data or information that the 32 director determines to be material to such board's level of expendi-
33 tures. Within twenty days of receiving such notice, such co-executive 34 directors shall submit to such director, mayor, public advocate and 35 speaker a projection of whether and by what amount it will exceed its 36 appropriations for personnel services and other than personnel services 37 for each quarter and the entire fiscal year, together with a detailed 38 explanation of the needs justifying any such projected excess expendi-39 tures. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prevent the 40 director from requiring the furnishing of data and information, and 41 answers to pertinent inquiries, at any time in accordance with section 42 two hundred twenty-five of the New York city charter.

43 § 5. Section 3-300 of the election law is amended to read as follows:

44 § 3-300. Board employees; appointment. [~~Every~~] 1. Except as provided 45 in subdivision two of this section, every board of elections shall 46 appoint, and at its pleasure remove, clerks, voting machine technicians, 47 custodians and other employees, fix their number, prescribe their 48 duties, fix their titles and rank and establish their salaries within 49 the amounts appropriated therefor by the local legislative body and 50 shall secure in the appointment of employees of the board of elections
51 equal representation of the major political parties. Every commissioner 52 in each board of elections except for commissioners of the board of 53 elections of the city of New York, may approve and at pleasure remove a 54 deputy, establish his or her title and prescribe his or her duties. [~~In~~]

55 2. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of general, special or local law,
56 in the city of New York, [~~the board of elections shall appoint an execu-~~

~~tive director and a deputy executive director whose duties it]~~ co-executive directors who shall each be of separate major political parties and shall be appointed, and may be removed, in a manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. The duty of the co-executive directors shall be to supervise the operations of the board of elections [under the supervision of such board] in accordance with this subdivision. The board of elections of the city of New York shall advise the co-executive directors on matters of policy affecting the administration of elections in the city of New York. Except as expressly provided in this subdivision, such board shall exercise no executive power and perform no executive or administrative functions. Except as expressly provided in this subdivision, such board shall make no individualized decisions concerning the employment of any specific person or the registration, pre-registration, enrollment or qualifications of any specific voter or applicant. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require or authorize the day-to-day supervision of the co-executive directors by the board. The board may delegate powers and duties conferred upon the board to the co-executive directors, to be exercised consistent with paragraph (d) of this subdivision. One co-executive director shall first be appointed for a term of two years and the other shall first be appointed to a term of four years, with both terms commencing on March first, two thousand twenty-three. Thereafter, each co-executive director shall be appointed for a term of four years in the manner described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. In the case of a vacancy, a co-executive director shall be appointed to serve the remainder of the unexpired term according to the original manner of appointment of the previous co-executive director.

(b)(1) For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (e) of this subdivision, the term "appointing authorities" shall mean the mayor of the city of New York, the speaker of the city council of such city, and the public advocate of such city, who shall act pursuant to this subdivision by concurring action of at least two of such officials, provided that the mayor shall be one of the concurring officials.

(2) No earlier than the first day of January and no later than the first day of February in two thousand twenty-three and in every calendar year thereafter during which the four-year term of a co-executive director is to expire, the commissioners of election for each political party shall file one or more certificates of party recommendation with the appointing authorities, as described in this paragraph.

(3) Party recommendations for co-executive director shall be made by the commissioners of election for each political party. Such commissioners shall act jointly by majority vote to recommend no fewer than three candidates for each position of co-executive director. If at any time a vacancy occurs in the office of co-executive director other than by expiration of term of office, or if a request for additional candidates is made by the appointing authorities pursuant to subparagraph six of this paragraph, party recommendations to fill such vacancy shall be made within thirty days. If fewer than three candidates are recommended in a timely manner by the commissioners of election for the applicable political party acting jointly by majority vote, then the members of the city council who are members of the applicable political party may, by majority vote of such members, file certificates of party recommendation with the appointing authorities within fifteen days after the expiration of the time for filing by the commissioners of election, so as to increase the total number of candidates to three.

1 (4) Candidates recommended under this paragraph must satisfy all qual-
2 ifications required for local officers pursuant to the public officers
3 law. Further, no later than December thirty-first, two thousand twen-4 ty-two, the state board of elections shall prescribe additional quali-5 fications for the co-executive directors, which shall apply to recommen-6 dations and appointments made thereafter. Such qualifications shall 7 thereafter be reviewed by such board at least every two years and 8 updated as necessary, and shall be prescribed only after consideration 9 of the skills and knowledge necessary or useful for the exercise of the 10 duties and responsibilities of the co-executive directors, as well as 11 the ability to recruit a sufficient number of candidates to be co-execu-12 tive directors.

13 (5) The certificates filed shall be in such form and contain such 14 information as shall be prescribed by the state board of elections.

15 (6) The co-executive directors shall be appointed jointly by the 16 appointing authorities in accordance with this subdivision, from among 17 the candidates recommended pursuant to subparagraph three of this para-18 graph; provided, however, that within thirty days after receipt of one 19 or more certificates of recommendation that include in the aggregate at 20 least three candidates, the appointing authorities may request the 21 submission of not less than two additional candidates, in which event 22 the process set forth in subparagraph two of this paragraph shall be 23 repeated. If the appointing authorities fail to jointly appoint any 24 person recommended for appointment as co-executive director pursuant to 25 this paragraph, within forty-five days after receipt of one or more 26 certificates of recommendation that include at least three candidates, 27 or within thirty days after receipt of one or more certificates that 28 include at least two additional candidates, then the commissioners of 29 election who are members of the political party which filed such certifi-30 cate may appoint one of the recommended candidates by a majority vote 31 of such commissioners. If a sufficient number of candidates, or of 32 additional candidates, are not recommended to the appointing authorities 33 by either the applicable commissioners of election or the applicable 34 members of the city council within the times prescribed by this para-35 graph, then any holdover status of the incumbent co-executive director 36 shall terminate and the process required by this paragraph shall recom-37 mence, unless the appointing authorities jointly appoint one of the 38 recommended candidates within fifteen days after the expiration of such 39 prescribed times.

40 (7) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this paragraph, no 41 earlier than the first day of January and no later than the thirty-first 42 day of January in the last year of the term of a co-executive director, 43 the appointing authorities and commissioners of election for the appli-44 cable political party, acting by a majority vote of such commissioners, 45 may agree to jointly issue a certificate of party recommendation and 46 appointment to reappoint such co-executive director to another term of 47 office. In such event, the process otherwise specified in subparagraphs 48 two, three and six of this paragraph shall not apply.

49 (8) A co-executive director may be removed from office for cause by 50 the appointing authorities. In addition, a co-executive director may be 51 removed without cause by the appointing authorities acting jointly with 52 the commissioners of election for the applicable political party, acting 53 by a majority vote of such commissioners. Any vacancy so resulting 54 shall be filled in the manner prescribed by this paragraph for filling 55 vacancies.

1 (9) The co-executive directors shall be subject to the training
2 requirements set forth in subdivision eight of section 3-200 of this 3 article, unless the state board of elections in its discretion
4 prescribes alternative or additional training for the co-executive 5 directors specific to their duties and responsibilities.

6 (c) The board shall have the power and duty to take the following 7 actions to the extent otherwise consistent with the jurisdiction of the 8 board pursuant to this chapter:

9 (1) make determinations regarding the nomination and designation of 10 candidates for public office and party positions pursuant to article six 11 or any other relevant provision of this chapter;

33 (ii) such contract provides for technical, consultant or personal 34 services;

35 (iii) the value of the contract exceeds or projects an annual expendi-36 ture exceeding one million dollars for the fiscal year or where the 37 value of any contracts awarded to a single entity exceeds or is project-38 ed to exceed one million dollars for the fiscal year; and

39 (9) promulgate regulations, issue orders and make decisions regarding 40 general policies affecting the administration of elections of the city 41 of New York.

42 (d) The co-executive directors shall collectively serve as the chief 43 executive for the board of elections of the city of New York and shall 44 collectively exercise all their powers and duties in a manner not incon-45 sistent with the policies of the board. The co-executive directors may 46 collectively delegate powers and duties to the other, and may collec-

48 purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to the ability to

2 provide information to the board of elections of the city of New York 3 and the public in accordance with this paragraph.

4 (1) At regular meetings of such board conducted in accordance with
