43 Establishment. In addition to any other means of applying for an absen-

45 electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system through which 46 voters may apply for an absentee ballot online. The state board of 47 elections shall electronically transmit such applications to the appli-

52 of receiving and processing electronic absentee ballot applications, 53 including, but not limited to, electronic signatures, from the electron-54 ic absentee ballot application transmittal system established by the 55 state board of elections pursuant to this section. Such transmittal 56 system shall be fully integrated with each county board of elections or

1 the city of New York board of elections so that a voter may apply online 2 directly either through the website of his or her board of elections or 3 the state board of elections. Notwithstanding any other inconsistent 4 provision of this chapter, applications filed using such system shall be 5 considered filed with the applicable board of elections on the calendar

13 the state board of elections which shall include all of the information 14 required by section 8-400 of this title; and

15 (ii) affirms, subject to penalty of perjury, by means of electronic or 16 manual signature, that the information contained in the absentee ballot 17 application is true; and

18 (iii) consents to the use of an electronic copy of the individual's 19 manual signature that is in the custody of the department of motor vehi-

22 ballot exemplar signature, or provides such a signature by direct upload

39 applicant who submits an absentee ballot application pursuant to this 40 section, the local board shall seek to obtain such exemplar signature 41 from the statewide voter registration database, the state board of 42 elections, or a state or local agency designated by section 5-211 or 43 5-212 of this chapter.

44 (b) If such exemplar signature is not available from the statewide 45 voter registration database, the state board of elections, or a state or 46 local agency designated by section 5-211 or 5-212 of this chapter, the 47 local board of elections shall, absent another reason to reject the 48 application, require the voter to provide an exemplar signature by any 49 one of the following methods: in person, by electronic mail, or by 50 electronic upload to the board of elections through the electronic 51 absentee ballot application transmittal system.

52 (c) If such voter does not provide the required exemplar signature, 53 the board of elections shall proceed to issue an absentee ballot to the 54 voter along with an absentee ballot application form requiring such 55 voter to submit a signature upon such application form and return it to 56 the board of elections with the voter's ballot.
