AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the establishment and organization of the state inspector general

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 52 of the executive law, as added by chapter 766 of 2 the laws of 2005, is amended as follows:

3 § 52. Establishment and organization. 1. There is hereby established
4 the office of the state inspector general [~~in the executive department~~].
5 The head of the office shall be the state inspector general who shall be 6 appointed jointly by a majority vote of the governor, the attorney
7 general, the state comptroller, the temporary president of the senate,
8 the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate, and the 9 minority leader of the assembly.

10 2. The state inspector general shall hold office until the end of [~~the~~ 11 ~~term of the governor by whom he or she was appointed~~] a term of two 12 years and until his or her successor is appointed and has qualified.
13 Beginning in December two thousand twenty-one, and every December every 14 two years thereafter, the appointing authorities shall jointly appoint a 15 new inspector general or reappoint the existing inspector general.

16 3. The state inspector general shall [~~report to the secretary to the~~ 17 ~~governor~~] ensure that any and all activities of the office remain inde-
18 pendent from the governor and the executive department and remain free
19 from influence from the governor and the executive department.

20 4. The state inspector general may appoint one or more deputy inspec-
21 tors general to serve at his or her pleasure, who shall be responsible
22 for conducting investigations in the agencies to which they are desig-
23 nated and in which they are deemed employed.

24 5. The salary of the inspector general shall be established [~~by the~~ 25 ~~governor~~] at a rate equal to the annual rate established as of May thir-
