Introduced by Sen. THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting unsolicited telemarketing sales calls during certain declared states of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5-a of section 399-z of the general business 2 law, as added by chapter 680 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 5-a. It shall be unlawful for any telemarketer doing business in this 5 state to knowingly make an unsolicited telemarketing sales call to any 6 person in a county, city, town or village under a declared state of 7 emergency or disaster emergency as described in [~~sections~~] section twen-
8 ty-four or twenty-eight of the executive law; provided, however, that
9 this prohibition shall apply only where the declaration or proclamation
10 of emergency includes a finding that unsolicited telemarketing sales
11 calls would impair actions taken to limit, control, or mitigate the 12 emergency and explains the basis of such finding; and provided further 13 that such prohibition may not extend for a period of more than two 14 weeks, subject to renewal for additional two-week periods by further 15 findings of necessity made at the end of each two-week period.

16 § 2. Paragraph f of subdivision 7 of section 399-pp of the general 17 business law, as added by chapter 680 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 18 read as follows:

19 f. knowingly make an unsolicited telemarketing sales call to any 20 person in a county, city, town or village under a declared state of 21 emergency or disaster emergency as described in [~~sections~~] section twen-
22 ty-four or twenty-eight of the executive law; provided, however, that
23 this prohibition shall apply only where the declaration or proclamation
24 of emergency includes a finding that unsolicited telemarketing sales
25 calls would impair actions taken to limit, control, or mitigate the 26 emergency and explains the basis of such finding; and provided further
27 that such prohibition may not extend for a period of more than two
