1 (i) establish standards and criteria for the provision of legal 2 services in cases involving a conflict of interest;

15 as limitations on the disclosure of information by legal services
16 providers under the New York Rules of Professional Conduct;

17 (n) apply for and accept any grant or other source of funding for

7 or private funding that is, or is anticipated to be, expended for the 8 provision of legal services to covered individuals, and the state shall 9 not be required to appropriate any funds for legal services to the 10 extent that obligations associated with the provision of legal services 11 are otherwise fully satisfied by funds received from state, local, or 12 private sources, or by the United States government in satisfaction of 13 any legal obligation.

14 5. Advisory committee. (a) There shall be an advisory committee which 15 shall work, as necessary and in collaboration with the administrator, to 16 develop programs, policies, training, and procedures necessary to effec-

37 (c) Each member, other than the member serving in an ex officio capac-

39 committee seat commencing on January first, two thousand twenty-two and 40 expiring on December thirty-first, two thousand twenty-three. Initial 41 appointments under this subdivision must be made within twenty days of 42 the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-one 43 that added this section. Any vacancies shall be filled promptly and in 44 the same manner as the original appointment, and the appointee filling 45 such vacancy shall serve for the unexpired portion of the term of the 46 succeeded member. Any committee member may be reappointed for additional

54 (e) The advisory committee's initial meeting shall take place within 55 thirty days of the appointment of all required committee members under 56 paragraph (b) of this subdivision, or within sixty days of the effective

1 date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-one that added this 2 section, whichever is sooner. The advisory committee shall meet no less
3 than four times per year. The advisory committee may establish its own

5 affairs; provided, however, that the quorum and majority provisions of 6 section forty-one of the general construction law shall govern all 7 actions taken by the advisory committee.

8 (f) Membership on the advisory committee shall not constitute the 9 holding of an office. The advisory committee shall not have the power
10 to exercise any portion of the sovereign power of the state. No member 11 of the advisory committee shall be disqualified from holding any public 12 office or employment, nor shall he or she forfeit any such office or 13 employment, by reason of his or her appointment pursuant to this 14 section, notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special, 15 or local law; ordinance; or city charter.

16 (g) Beginning in two thousand twenty-three, the advisory committee
17 shall produce a report concerning its duties pursuant to this section 18 and any related recommendations, and such report shall be included in 21 graph (p) of subdivision three of this section.

22 6. No private right of action. Nothing in this section or the adminis-
23 tration or application thereof shall be construed to create a private 24 right of action on the part of any person or entity against the state or 25 any agency, instrumentality, official, or employee thereof.

26 7. Miscellaneous provisions. (a) Any legal services performed by a 27 legal services provider pursuant to this section shall not supplant, 28 replace, or satisfy any obligations or responsibilities of such legal 29 services provider pursuant to any other program, agreement, or contract.

30 (b) The provisions of this section shall supersede conflicting state 31 or local laws, rules, policies, procedures, and practices, except to the 32 extent that the provisions of any such state or local law, rule, policy, 33 procedure, or practice may provide any additional or greater right or 34 protection. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted or applied so 35 as to create any power, duty, or obligation prohibited by federal law.

36 (c) If any provision of this section or any application thereof to any 37 person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect 38 any provision or application of this section that can be given effect 39 without the invalid provision or application. To this end, the 40 provisions of this section are severable.

41 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 42 have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 43 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 44 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before 45 such date.
