44 client or patient in a medical facility;

45 iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists 46 would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;

47 iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure 48 would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and 49 such information is not relevant to the work of the agency or respective 50 house of the state legislature requesting or maintaining it;

51 v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confi-52 dence to an agency or to the state legislature and not relevant to the 53 ordinary work of such agency or the state legislature;

54 vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compen-55 sation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the 56 workers' compensation law;

1 vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail
2 address or a social network username, that has been collected from a 3 taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; 4 [~~or~~]

5 viii. disclosure of law enforcement arrest or booking photographs of 6 an individual, unless public release of such photographs will serve a 7 specific law enforcement purpose and disclosure is not precluded by any 8 state or federal laws[~~-~~]; or

9 ix. disclosure of communications of a personal nature between legisla-10 tors and their constituents.

11 (c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be 12 construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy 13 pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:

14 i. when identifying details are deleted;

15 ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to 16 disclosure;

17 iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks 18 access to records pertaining to him or her; or

19 iv. when a record or group of records relates to the right, title or 20 interest in real property, or relates to the inventory, status or char-21 acteristics of real property, in which case disclosure and providing 22 copies of such record or group of records shall not be deemed an unwar-23 ranted invasion of personal privacy, provided that nothing herein shall 24 be construed to authorize the disclosure of electronic contact informa-25 tion, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has 26 been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the 27 real property tax law.

28 2-a. Nothing in this article shall permit disclosure which constitutes 29 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as defined in subdivision 30 two of this section if such disclosure is prohibited under section nine-31 ty-six of this chapter.

32 2-b. For records that constitute law enforcement disciplinary records 33 as defined in subdivision six of section eighty-six of this article, a 34 law enforcement agency shall redact the following information from such 35 records prior to disclosing such records under this article:

36 (a) items involving the medical history of a person employed by a law
37 enforcement agency as defined in section eighty-six of this article as a 38 police officer, peace officer, or firefighter or firefighter/paramedic, 39 not including records obtained during the course of an agency's investi-
40 gation of such person's misconduct that are relevant to the disposition 41 of such investigation;

42 (b) the home addresses, personal telephone numbers, personal cell 43 phone numbers, personal e-mail addresses of a person employed by a law
44 enforcement agency as defined in section eighty-six of this article as a
45 police officer, peace officer, or firefighter or firefighter/paramedic, 46 or a family member of such a person, a complainant or any other person 47 named in a law enforcement disciplinary record, except where required 48 pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, or in accordance 49 with subdivision four of section two hundred eight of the civil service 50 law, or as otherwise required by law. This paragraph shall not prohibit 51 other provisions of law regarding work-related, publicly available 52 information such as title, salary, and dates of employment;

53 (c) any social security numbers; or

54 (d) disclosure of the use of an employee assistance program, mental 55 health service, or substance abuse assistance service by a person 56 employed by a law enforcement agency as defined in section eighty-six of 1 this article as a police officer, peace officer, or firefighter or 2 firefighter/paramedic, unless such use is mandated by a law enforcement 3 disciplinary proceeding that may otherwise be disclosed pursuant to this 4 article.

5 2-c. For records that constitute "law enforcement disciplinary 6 records" as defined in subdivision six of section eighty-six of this 7 article, a law enforcement agency may redact records pertaining to tech-8 nical infractions as defined in subdivision nine of section eighty-six 9 of this article prior to disclosing such records under this article.

10 3. (a) Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within 11 five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record 12 reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person 13 requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written 14 acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the 15 approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of 16 the request, when such request will be granted or denied, including, 17 where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be deter-18 mined in accordance with subdivision five of this section. [~~And~~] Neither 19 an agency nor the state legislature shall [~~not~~] deny a request on the 20 basis that the request is voluminous or that locating or reviewing the 21 requested records or providing the requested copies is burdensome 22 because the agency or respective house of the state legislature lacks 23 sufficient staffing or on any other basis if the agency or respective 24 house of the state legislature may engage an outside professional 25 service to provide copying, programming or other services required to 26 provide the copy, the costs of which the agency may recover pursuant to 27 paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section eighty-seven of this arti-
28 cle. An agency or respective house of the state legislature may require 29 a person requesting lists of names and addresses to provide a written 30 certification that such person will not use such lists of names and 31 addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes and will not sell, 32 give or otherwise make available such lists of names and addresses to 33 any other person for the purpose of allowing that person to use such 34 lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes.
35 If an agency or respective house of the state legislature determines to 36 grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent 37 disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty 38 business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the 39 request, the agency or respective house of the state legislature shall 40 state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the 41 request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reason-42 able period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be 43 granted in whole or in part. Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee 44 prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and 45 certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case 46 may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or 47 that such record cannot be found after diligent search. Nothing in this 48 article shall be construed to require any entity to prepare any record 49 not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified 50 in subdivision three of section eighty-seven [~~and subdivision three of~~ 51 ~~section eighty-eight~~] of this article. When an agency or the respective 52 house of the state legislature has the ability to retrieve or extract a 53 record or data maintained in a computer storage system with reasonable 54 effort, it shall be required to do so. When doing so requires less 55 employee time than engaging in manual retrieval or redactions from non-56 electronic records, the agency and respective house of the state legis-

1 lature shall be required to retrieve or extract such record or data 2 electronically. Any programming necessary to retrieve a record main-3 tained in a computer storage system and to transfer that record to the 4 medium requested by a person or to allow the transferred record to be 5 read or printed shall not be deemed to be the preparation or creation of 6 a new record.

7 (b) All entities shall, provided such entity has reasonable means 8 available, accept requests for records submitted in the form of elec-9 tronic mail and shall respond to such requests by electronic mail, using 10 forms, to the extent practicable, consistent with the form or forms 11 developed by the committee on open government pursuant to subdivision 12 one of this section and provided that the written requests do not seek a 13 response in some other form.

14 (c) Each state agency, as defined in subdivision five of this section, 15 that maintains a website shall ensure its website provides for the 16 online submission of a request for records pursuant to this article.

17 4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, any 18 person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writ-19 ing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the 20 entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, 21 or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of 22 such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record 23 the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought.
24 In addition, each agency or the respective house of the state legisla-25 ture shall immediately forward to the committee on open government a 26 copy of such appeal when received by the agency or such house and the 27 ensuing determination thereon. Failure by an agency or respective house 28 of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of subdivision 29 three of this section shall constitute a denial.

30 (b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person 31 denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the 32 provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring a proceeding 33 for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 34 practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied 35 pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of 36 this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature 37 involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within 38 the provisions of such subdivision two. Failure by an agency or respec-39 tive house of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of 40 paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall constitute a denial.

41 (c) The court in such a proceeding: (i) may assess, against such agen-
42 cy involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs 43 reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of 44 this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, and when 45 the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory 46 time; and (ii) shall assess, against such agency involved, reasonable 47 attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such 48 person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such 49 person has substantially prevailed and the court finds that the agency 50 had no reasonable basis for denying access.

51 (d) (i) Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court must be 52 made in accordance with subdivision (a) of section fifty-five hundred 53 thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.

54 (ii) An appeal from an agency or respective house of the state legis-55 lature taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure of any of 56 all records sought:

1 (A) shall be given preference;

2 (B) shall be brought on for argument on such terms and conditions as 3 the presiding justice may direct, upon application of any party to the 4 proceedings; and

5 (C) shall be deemed abandoned if the agency or respective house of the 6 state legislature fails to serve and file a record and brief within 7 sixty days after the date of service upon the petitioner of the notice 8 of appeal, unless consent to further extension is given by all parties, 9 or unless further extension is granted by the court upon such terms as 10 may be just and upon good cause shown.

11 5. (a) (1) A person acting pursuant to law or regulation who, subse-12 quent to the effective date of this subdivision, submits any information 13 to any state agency or to the respective house of the state legislature 14 may, at the time of submission, request that the agency or such house 15 provisionally except such information from disclosure under paragraph 16 (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where 17 the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat 18 the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall 19 also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

20 (1-a) A person or entity who submits or otherwise makes available any 21 records to any agency or house of the state legislature, may, at any 22 time, identify those records or portions thereof that may contain crit-23 ical infrastructure information, and request that the agency or house of 24 the state legislature that maintains such records except such informa-25 tion from disclosure under subdivision two of section eighty-seven of 26 this article. Where the request itself contains information which if 27 disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, 28 such information shall also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

29 (2) The request for an exception shall be in writing, shall specif-30 ically identify which portions of the record are the subject of the 31 request for exception and shall state the reasons why the information 32 should be provisionally excepted from disclosure. Any such request for 33 an exception shall be effective for a five-year period from the agency's 34 or respective house of the state legislature's receipt thereof.
35 Provided, however, that not less than sixty days prior to the expiration 36 of the then current term of the exception request, the submitter may 37 apply to the agency or respective house of the state legislature for a 38 two-year extension of its exception request. Upon timely receipt of a 39 request for an extension of an exception request, an agency or respec-
40 tive house of the state legislature may either (A) perform a cursory 41 review of the application and grant the extension should it find any 42 justification for such determination, or (B) commence the procedure set 43 forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision to make a final determination 44 granting or terminating such exception.

45 (3) Information submitted as provided in subparagraphs one and one-a 46 of this paragraph shall be provisionally excepted from disclosure and be 47 maintained apart by the agency and the respective house of the state 48 legislature from all other records until the expiration of the submit-49 ter's exception request or fifteen days after the entitlement to such 50 exception has been finally determined or such further time as ordered by 51 a court of competent jurisdiction.

52 (b) [~~On the~~] During the effective period of an exception request under 53 this subdivision, on the initiative of the agency or either house of the 54 state legislature at any time, or upon the request of any person for a 55 record excepted from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, the agency 56 or respective house of the state legislature shall:

1 (1) inform the person who requested the exception of the agency's or 2 such house's intention to determine whether such exception should be 3 granted or continued;

4 (2) permit the person who requested the exception, within ten business 5 days of receipt of notification from the agency or respective house of 6 the state legislature, to submit a written statement of the necessity 7 for the granting or continuation of such exception;

8 (3) within seven business days of receipt of such written statement, 9 or within seven business days of the expiration of the period prescribed 10 for submission of such statement, issue a written determination grant-11 ing, continuing or terminating such exception and stating the reasons 12 therefor; copies of such determination shall be served upon the person, 13 if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception, 14 and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] open government.

15 (c) A denial of an exception from disclosure under paragraph (b) of 16 this subdivision may be appealed by the person submitting the informa-17 tion and a denial of access to the record may be appealed by the person 18 requesting the record in accordance with this subdivision:

19 (1) Within seven business days of receipt of written notice denying 20 the request, the person may file a written appeal from the determination 21 of the agency or the respective house of the state legislature with the 22 head of the agency or respective house of the state legislature, the 23 chief executive officer or governing body or their designated represen-24 tatives.

25 (2) The appeal shall be determined within ten business days of the 26 receipt of the appeal. Written notice of the determination shall be 27 served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who 28 requested the exception and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] 29 open government. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for 30 the determination.

31 (d) (i) A proceeding to review an adverse determination pursuant to 32 paragraph (c) of this subdivision may be commenced pursuant to article 33 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. Such proceeding, when 34 brought by a person seeking an exception from disclosure pursuant to 35 this subdivision, must be commenced within fifteen days of the service 36 of the written notice containing the adverse determination provided for 37 in subparagraph two of paragraph (c) of this subdivision. The proceeding 38 shall be given preference and shall be brought on for argument on such 39 terms and conditions as the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed 40 forty-five days.

41 (ii) Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court must be 42 made in accordance with subdivision (a) of section fifty-five hundred 43 thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.

44 (iii) An appeal taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure:

45 (A) shall be given preference; and

46 (B) shall be brought on for argument on such terms and conditions as 47 the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed sixty days, upon appli-48 cation by any party to the proceeding; and

49 (C) shall be deemed abandoned when the party requesting an exclusion 50 from disclosure fails to serve and file a record and brief within 51 [~~sixty~~] thirty days after the date of the notice of appeal, unless 52 consent of further extension is given by all parties, or unless further 53 extension is granted by the court upon such terms as may be just and 54 upon good cause shown.

1 (e) The person requesting an exception from disclosure pursuant to 2 this subdivision shall in all proceedings have the burden of proving 3 entitlement to the exception.

4 (f) Where the agency or the respective house of the state legislature 5 denies access to a record pursuant to paragraph [~~(d)~~—~~of~~] (b) of this 6 subdivision in conjunction with subdivision two of section eighty-seven 7 of this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature 8 shall have the burden of proving that the record falls within the 9 provisions of such exception.

10 (g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to deny any person 11 access, pursuant to the remaining provisions of this article, to any 12 record or part excepted from disclosure upon the express written consent 13 of the person who had requested the exception.

14 (h) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" 15 means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or 16 office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are 17 appointed by the governor.

18 (i) As used in this subdivision the term "state legislature" means the 19 legislature as defined in subdivision two of section eighty-six of this 20 article.

21 6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any 22 otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to 23 records. A denial of access to records or to portions thereof pursuant 24 to this article shall not limit or abridge any party's right of access 25 to such records pursuant to the civil practice law and rules, the crimi-26 nal procedure law, or any other law.

27 7. Nothing in this article shall require the disclosure of the home 28 address of an officer or employee, former officer or employee, or of a 29 retiree of a public employees' retirement system; nor shall anything in 30 this article require the disclosure of the name or home address of a 31 beneficiary of a public employees' retirement system or of an applicant 32 for appointment to public employment; provided however, that nothing in 33 this subdivision shall limit or abridge the right of an employee organ-34 ization, certified or recognized for any collective negotiating unit of 35 an employer pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, to 36 obtain the name or home address of any officer, employee or retiree of 37 such employer, if such name or home address is otherwise available under 38 this article.

39 8. Any person who, with intent to prevent the public inspection of a 40 record pursuant to this article, willfully conceals or destroys any such 41 record shall be guilty of a violation.

42 9. When records maintained electronically include items of information 43 that would be available under this article, as well as items of informa-44 tion that may be withheld, an agency or respective house of the state 45 legislature in designing its information retrieval methods, whenever 46 practicable and reasonable, shall do so in a manner that permits the 47 segregation and retrieval of available items in order to provide maximum 48 public access.

49 10. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit a person or 50 entity that is a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding 51 from gaining access to records pursuant to this article relating to such 52 action or proceeding, provided, however, that nothing in this subdivi-53 sion shall prevent the denial of access to such records or portions 54 thereof after providing particularized and specific justification that 55 such records may be withheld pursuant to this article.

1 § 5. Subdivisions (t) and (u) of section 105 of the civil practice law 2 and rules, subdivision (u) as relettered by chapter 100 of the laws of 4 is added to read as follows:

5 (t) "State legislature" means the New York state senate, New York 6 state assembly, any committee, subcommittee, joint committee, select 21 § 8. Section 70-0113 of the environmental conservation law is 22 REPEALED.

23 § 9. Subdivision 4 of section 308 of the county law is REPEALED.

24 § 10. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however that 25 the amendments to paragraphs (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), 26 (r), (s) and (t) of subdivision 2 of section 87 of the public officers 27 law made by section two of this act shall not affect the repeal of such 28 paragraphs and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
