AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crimes of making a threat of mass harm and aggravated threat of mass harm

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 490.07 and 490.08 to read as follows:
- § 490.07 Making a threat of mass harm.
- A person is guilty of making a threat of mass harm when he or she communicates by any means a threat to inflict, or a threat to cause to be inflicted, physical injury or death at a school, place of worship, business, government building, or other place of assembly such threat causes a reasonable expectation or fear of physical harm or death or causes the evacuation or lockdown of a school, place of worship, business, government building, or other place of assembly.
- 11 It is no defense to a prosecution for making a threat of mass harm that:
- 12 1. the defendant did not have the intent or capability of committing
 13 the threatened act; or
- 14 2. the threat was not made to a person who was the subject of the
 15 threat.
- 16 Making a threat of mass harm is a class B misdemeanor.
- 17 § 490.08 Aggravated threat of mass harm.
- 18 A person is guilty of aggravated threat of mass harm when he or she
- 19 engages in conduct as defined in section 490.07 of this article and has
- 20 made any overt act in furtherance of the commission of such crime.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
