IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. PEOPLES-STOKES, MEEKS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the office of special investigation inspecting serious physical injuries that may have resulted in death

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 70-b of the executive law,
2 as added by chapter 95 of the laws of 2020, are amended and a new subdivi-
3 sion 1-a is added to read as follows:

4 1. There shall be established within the office of the attorney gener-
5 al an office of special investigation. Notwithstanding any other 6 provision of law, the office of special investigation shall investigate 7 and, if warranted, prosecute any alleged criminal offense or offenses
8 committed by a person, whether or not formally on duty, who is a police 9 officer, as defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the 10 criminal procedure law, or a peace officer as defined in section 2.10 of 11 the criminal procedure law, provided that such peace officer is employed 12 or contracted by an education, public health, social service, parks, 13 housing or corrections agency, or is a peace officer as defined in 14 subdivision twenty-five of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law, 15 concerning any incident in which the death, or serious physical injury 16 pursuant to subdivision one-a of this section, of a person, whether in 17 custody or not, is caused by an act or omission of such police officer 18 or peace officer or in which the attorney general determines there is a 19 question as to whether the death, or serious physical injury pursuant to 20 subdivision one-a of this section, was in fact caused by an act or omis-21 sion of such police officer or peace officer.

22 1-a. The office of special investigation shall establish a demon-23 stration project in certain counties related to incidents described in 24 subdivision one of this section that result in serious physical injury

1 of a person, that the attorney general determines such serious physical 2 injury reasonably could have resulted in death, or did result in paraly-
3 sis, comatose, brain damage, or any other life threatening grave bodily
4 injury as determined by the attorney general. Such demonstration project 5 shall be established for incidents occurring in counties not wholly 6 contained within a city with a population as of the most recent census
7 under one million and over four hundred thousand. The provisions of this 8 section shall apply to the demonstration project established by this 9 subdivision in the same manner as incidents of death of a person under 10 the jurisdiction of the attorney general as prescribed by this section.

11 2. The attorney general has investigative authority and criminal 12 jurisdiction under this section at the time of the death, or serious 13 physical injury pursuant to subdivision one-a of this section, of the 14 person and the attorney general retains investigative authority and 15 criminal jurisdiction over the incident unless the attorney general 16 determines that such incident does not meet the requirements of this 17 section. If the attorney general determines the incident does not meet 18 the requirements for the attorney general to have investigative authori-
19 ty and criminal jurisdiction pursuant to this section, the attorney 20 general shall, as soon as practicable, provide written notice of such 21 determination to the district attorney for the county in which the inci-22 dent occurred.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2024.
