AN ACT to amend the family court act, the domestic relations law and the general business law, in relation to surrogacy programs and agreements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 581-102 of the family court act, as added by
2 section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to 3 read as follows:
4 § 581-102. Definitions. (a) "Assisted reproduction" means a method of 5 causing pregnancy other than sexual intercourse and includes but is not 6 limited to:
7 1. intrauterine or vaginal insemination;
8 2. donation of gametes;
9 3. donation of embryos;
10 4. in vitro fertilization and transfer of embryos; and 11 5. intracytoplasmic sperm injection.
12 (b) "Child" means a born individual of any age whose parentage may be 13 determined under this act or other law.
14 (c) "Compensation" means payment of any valuable consideration in 15 excess of reasonable medical and ancillary costs.
16 (d) "Donor" means an individual who does not intend to be a parent who 17 produces gametes and provides them to another person, other than the 18 individual's spouse, for use in assisted reproduction. The term does not 19 include a person who is a parent under part three of this article. Donor
20 also includes an individual who had dispositional control of an embryo

1 or gametes who then transfers dispositional control and releases all
2 present and future parental and inheritance rights and obligations to a 3 resulting child.

4 (e) "Embryo" means a cell or group of cells containing a diploid
5 complement of chromosomes or group of such cells, not a gamete or 6 gametes, that has the potential to develop into a live born human being 7 if transferred into the body of a person under conditions in which 8 gestation may be reasonably expected to occur.

9 (f) "Embryo transfer" means all medical and laboratory procedures that 10 are necessary to effectuate the transfer of an embryo into the uterine 11 cavity.

12 (g) "Gamete" means a cell containing a haploid complement of DNA that 13 has the potential to form an embryo when combined with another gamete.
14 Sperm and eggs shall be considered gametes. A human gamete used or 15 intended for reproduction may not contain nuclear DNA that has been 16 deliberately altered, or nuclear DNA from one human combined with the 17 cytoplasm or cytoplasmic DNA of another human being.

18 (h) "Health care practitioner" means an individual licensed or certi-
19 fied under title eight of the education law, or a similar law of another
20 state or country, acting within his or her scope of practice.

21 (i) "Independent escrow agent" means someone other than the parties to 22 a surrogacy agreement and their attorneys. An independent escrow agent
23 can, but need not, be a surrogacy program, provided such surrogacy
24 program is owned ~~[or managed]~~ by an attorney licensed to practice law in 25 the state of New York. If such independent escrow agent is not an attor-
26 ney owned surrogacy program, it shall be ~~[licensed,]~~ bonded and insured.

27 ~~[(i) "Surrogacy agreement" is an agreement between at least one~~
28 ~~intended parent and a person acting as surrogate intended to result in a~~
29 ~~live birth where the child will be the legal child of the intended~~
30 ~~parents.]~~

31 (j) "In vitro fertilization" means the formation of a human embryo
32 outside the human body.

33 (k) "Intended parent" is an individual who manifests the intent to be
34 legally bound as the parent of a child resulting from assisted reprod-
35 uction or a surrogacy agreement, provided he or she meets the require-
36 ments of this article.

37 (l) "Parent" as used in this article means an individual with a
38 parent-child relationship created or recognized under this act or other 39 law.

40 (m) "Participant" is an individual who either provides a gamete that 41 is used in assisted reproduction, is an intended parent, is a person
42 acting as surrogate, or is the spouse of an intended parent or person
43 acting as surrogate.

44 (n) "Person acting as surrogate" means an adult person, not an 45 intended parent, who enters into a surrogacy agreement to bear a child 46 who will be the legal child of the intended parent or parents so long as 47 the person acting as surrogate has not provided the egg used to conceive 48 the resulting child.

49 ~~[(k) "Health care practitioner" means an individual licensed or certi-~~
50 ~~fied under title eight of the education law, or a similar law of another~~
51 ~~state or country, acting within his or her scope of practice.~~

52 ~~[(l) "Intended parent" is an individual who manifests the intent to be~~
53 ~~legally bound as the parent of a child resulting from assisted reprod-~~
54 ~~uction or a surrogacy agreement provided he or she meets the require-~~
55 ~~ments of this article.~~

~~(m) "In vitro fertilization" means the formation of a human embryo outside the human body.~~

~~(n) "Parent" as used in this article means an individual with a parent-child relationship created or recognized under this act or other law.~~

~~(o) "Participant" is an individual who either: provides a gamete that is used in assisted reproduction, is an intended parent, is a person acting as surrogate, or is the spouse of an intended parent or person acting as surrogate.~~

~~(p)~~ (o) "Record" means information inscribed in a tangible medium or stored in an electronic or other medium that is retrievable in perceivable form.

~~(q)~~ (p) "Retrieval" means the procurement of eggs or sperm from a gamete provider.

~~(r)~~ (q) "Spouse" means an individual married to another, or who has a legal relationship entered into under the laws of the United States or of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, which is substantially equivalent to a marriage, including a civil union or domestic partnership.

~~(s)~~ (r) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(s) "Surrogacy agreement" means an agreement between at least one intended parent and a person acting as surrogate intended to result in a live birth where the child will be the legal child of the intended parents.

(t) "Transfer" means the placement of an embryo or gametes into the body of a person with the intent to achieve pregnancy and live birth.

§ 2. Section 581-202 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-202. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child conceived through assisted reproduction. (a) A proceeding for a judgment of parentage with respect to a child conceived through assisted reproduction may be commenced:

(1) if ~~the~~ an intended parent or child resides in New York state, in the county where the intended parent resides any time after pregnancy is achieved or in the county where the child was born or resides or in the county where the birth is intended to occur; or

(2) if ~~the~~ neither an intended parent ~~and~~ nor the child ~~do not~~ reside in New York state, up to ninety days after the birth of the child in the county where the child was born.

(b) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified.

(c) Where ~~a petition includes the following truthful~~ the court finds the following statements in the petition to be true, the court shall adjudicate the intended parent or parents to be the parent or parents of the child without the need for additional proceedings or documentation:

(1) a statement that an intended parent or child has been a resident of the state for at least six months, or if an intended parent or child is not a New York state resident, that the child ~~will be or~~ was born in ~~the~~ New York state within ninety days of filing; and

(2) a statement from the gestating intended parent that the gestating intended parent became pregnant as a result of assisted reproduction; and

(3) in cases where there is a non-gestating intended parent, a statement from the gestating intended parent and non-gestating intended parent that the non-gestating intended parent consented to assisted reproduction pursuant to section 581-304 of this article; and

(4) proof of any donor's donative intent.

The court may, in its discretion, dispense with testimony to establish the truthfulness of the statements.

(d) The following shall be deemed sufficient proof of a donor's donative intent for purposes of this section:

(1) [~~in the case of an anonymous donor or~~] where gametes or embryos have [~~previously~~] been released to a gamete or embryo storage facility or were donated in the presence of a health care practitioner, either:

(i) a statement or documentation from the gamete or embryo storage facility or health care practitioner stating or demonstrating that such gametes or embryos [~~were anonymously donated or~~] had previously been released; [~~or~~]

(ii) a record from the gamete or embryo donor or donors evidencing intent to release the gametes or embryos; or

(iii) clear and convincing evidence that the gamete or embryo donor [~~intended to donate gametes or embryos anonymously or intended to release such gametes or embryos to a gamete or embryo storage facility or health care practitioner;~~] or donors confirmed, prior to donation, that the donor or donors would have no parental or proprietary interest in the gametes or embryos;

(2) [~~in the case of a donation from a known donor, either: a.]~~ where the gametes or embryos were not released to a gamete or embryo storage facility or donated in the presence of a health care practitioner, either:

(i) a record from the gamete or embryo donor acknowledging the donation and confirming that the donor [~~has~~] or donors shall have no parental or proprietary interest in the gametes or embryos. The record shall be signed by the [~~gestating~~] intended parent or parents and the gamete or embryo donor [~~—The record may be, but is not required to be, signed~~] or donors:

[~~(i)~~] (A) before a notary public, or

[~~(ii)~~] (B) before two witnesses who are not the intended parents, or

[~~(iii)~~] (C) before a health care practitioner; or

[~~b-~~] (ii) clear and convincing evidence that the gamete or embryo donor or donors agreed, prior to [~~conception~~] the gametes or embryos being used for assisted reproduction, [~~with the gestating parent~~] that the donor [~~has~~] or donors would have no parental or proprietary interest in the gametes or embryos.

(3) Except for those agreements executed in compliance with section 581-306 of this article, this subdivision shall not apply where the person providing the gametes or embryos is the spouse of the intended parent.

(e) [~~(1)~~] In the absence of evidence pursuant to subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph one and subparagraph (i) of paragraph two of [~~this~~] subdivision (d) of this section, notice shall be given to the donor at least twenty days prior to the date set for the proceeding to determine the existence of donative intent by delivery of a copy of the petition and notice pursuant to section three hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules. If an intended parent or an intended parent's spouse is not a petitioner, such notice shall also be given to such person who shall be a necessary party unless the intended parent proceeded without the participation of their spouse in compliance with subdivision (b) of section 581-305 or section 581-306 of this article. Upon a showing to the court, by affidavit or otherwise, on or before the date of the proceeding or within such further time as the court may allow, that personal service cannot be effected at the ~~[donor's]~~ last known address or addresses of the donor or donors, and/or the non-petitioning intended parent, if any, with reasonable effort, notice may be given, without prior court order therefore, at least twenty days prior to the proceeding by registered or certified mail directed to ~~[the donor's]~~ such last known address or addresses. Notice by publication shall not be required to be given to ~~[a donor]~~ anyone entitled to notice pursuant to the provisions of this section.

~~[(2)]~~ Notwithstanding the above, where there is evidence that sperm is provided under the supervision of a health care practitioner to someone other than the sperm provider's intimate partner or spouse without a record of the sperm provider's intent to parent, notice is not required.

(f) In cases not covered by subdivision (c) of this section, the court shall adjudicate the parentage of the child consistent with part three of this article.

(g) Where the requirements of subdivision (c) of this section are met or where the court finds the intended parent or parents to be a parent under subdivision ~~[(e)]~~ (f) of this section, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage:

(1) declaring ~~[(that)]~~ the intended parent or parents to be the legal parent or parents of the child immediately upon the birth of the child ~~[(the intended parent or parents is or are the legal parent or parents of the child)]~~; and

(2) ordering the intended parent or parents to assume responsibility for the maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the child; and

(3) if there is a donor or donors, ordering that ~~[(the)]~~ any donor is not a parent of the child; and

(4) ordering that:

(i) ~~[(Pursuant)]~~ The hospital birth registrar shall report the parentage of the child on the record of live birth in conformity with the judgment of parentage, if the judgment of parentage is issued before the birth of the child; and

(ii) If a change to the child's birth certificate is necessitated by the judgment of parentage, then pursuant to section two hundred fifty-four of the judiciary law, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the state commissioner of health, or for a person born in New York city, to the commissioner of health of the city of New York, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a written notification of such entry together with such other facts as may assist in identifying the birth record of the person whose parentage was in issue and, if such person whose parentage has been determined is under eighteen years of age, the clerk shall also transmit forthwith to the registry operated by the department of social services pursuant to section three hundred seventy-two-c of the social services law a notification of such determination; and

~~[(iii)]~~ (iii) Pursuant to section forty-one hundred thirty-eight of the public health law and NYC Public Health Code section 207.05 that upon receipt of a judgment of parentage the local registrar where a child is born will report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certificate has already been issued, the appropriate department of health will amend the birth certificate in an expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate except that it may be rendered accessible to the child at eighteen years of age or the legal parent or parents; and

(5) if the judgment of parentage is issued prior to the birth of the child, ordering the petitioner or petitioners, within fourteen days of such birth, to provide the court with notification thereof, together with such other facts as may assist in identifying the birth record of the child whose parentage was in issue. Such notification shall be in writing on a form to be prescribed by the chief administrator of the courts. The court shall thereafter issue an amended judgment of parentage that includes the child's name as it appears on the child's birth certificate and the child's date of birth.

§ 581-203. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child conceived pursuant to a surrogacy agreement. (a) The proceeding may be commenced (1) in any county where an intended parent resided any time after the surrogacy agreement was executed; or (2) in the county where the child was born or resides or in the county where the birth is intended to occur; or (3) in the county where the surrogate resided any time after the surrogacy agreement was executed.

(b) The proceeding may be commenced at any time after ~~[the surrogacy agreement has been executed]~~ pregnancy is achieved and the person acting as surrogate, the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if any, donors for whom there is not proof of donative intent as set forth in subdivision (d) of section 581-202 of this part, and all intended parents are necessary parties. The service provisions of subdivision (e) of section 581-202 of this part shall be applicable to donors entitled to notice pursuant to this provision.

(c) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified and include the following:

(1) a statement that the person acting as surrogate or at least one ~~[of the]~~ intended ~~[parents]~~ parent has been a resident of the state for at least six months at the time the surrogacy agreement was executed; and

(2) a certification from the attorney representing the intended parent or parents and the attorney representing the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, that each of the requirements of part four of this article have been met; and

(3) a statement from all parties to the surrogacy agreement that they knowingly and voluntarily entered into the surrogacy agreement and that the parties are jointly requesting the judgment of parentage; and

(4) a copy of the executed surrogacy agreement.

(d) Where the court finds the statements required by subdivision (c) of this section to be true, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage, without additional proceedings or documentation:

(1) declaring, that upon the birth of the child born during the term of the surrogacy agreement, the intended parent or parents are the only legal parent or parents of the child;

(2) declaring, that upon the birth of the child born during the term of the surrogacy agreement, the person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if ~~[any]~~ applicable, is not ~~[the]~~ a legal parent of the child;

(3) declaring that upon the birth of the child born during the term of the surrogacy agreement, ~~[the donors]~~ any donor, if ~~[any]~~ applicable, ~~[are]~~ is not ~~[the parents]~~ a parent of the child;

(4) ordering the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if any, to transfer the child to the intended parent or parents if this has not already occurred;

(5) ordering the intended parent or parents to assume responsibility for the maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the child; and

(6) ordering that:

(i) ~~Pursuant~~ The hospital birth registrar shall report the parentage of the child on the record of live birth in conformity with the judgment of parentage, if the judgment of parentage is issued before the birth of the child; and

(ii) If a change to the child's birth certificate is necessitated by the judgment of parentage, then pursuant to section two hundred fifty-four of the judiciary law, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the state commissioner of health, or for a person born in New York city, to the commissioner of health of the city of New York, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a written notification of such entry together with such other facts as may assist in identifying the birth record of the person whose parentage was in issue and, if the person whose parentage has been determined is under eighteen years of age, the clerk shall also transmit to the registry operated by the department of social services pursuant to section three hundred seventy-two-c of the social services law a notification of the determination; and

~~(iii)~~ (iii) Pursuant to section forty-one hundred thirty-eight of the public health law and NYC Public Health Code section 207.05 that upon receipt of a judgement of parentage the local registrar where a child is born will report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certificate has already been issued, the appropriate department of health will amend the birth certificate in an expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate except that it may be rendered accessible to the child at eighteen years of age or the legal parent or parents; and

(7) if the judgment of parentage is issued prior to the birth of the child, ordering the petitioner or petitioners, within seven days of such birth, to provide the court with notification thereof, together with such other facts as may assist in identifying the birth record of the child whose parentage was in issue. Such notification shall be in writing on a form to be prescribed by the chief administrator of the courts. The court shall thereafter issue an amended judgment of parentage that includes the child's name as it appears on the child's birth certificate and the child's date of birth.

(e) In the event the certification required by paragraph two of subdivision (c) of this section cannot be made because of a technical or non-material deviation from the requirements of this article; the court may nevertheless enforce the agreement and issue a judgment of parentage if the court determines the agreement is in substantial compliance with the requirements of this article. In the event that any other requirements of subdivision (c) of this section are not met, the court shall determine parentage according to part four of this article.

§ 4. Section 581-205 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-205. Inspection of records. Court records relating to proceedings under this article shall be sealed, provided, however, that the office of temporary and disability assistance, a child support unit of a social services district or a child support agency of another state providing child support services pursuant to title IV-d of the federal social security act, when a party to a related support proceeding and to the extent necessary to provide child support services or for the admin-

1 istration of the program pursuant to title IV-d of the federal social
2 security act, may obtain a copy of a judgment of parentage. The parties
3 to the proceeding and the child shall have the right to inspect and make 4 copies of the entire court record, including, but not limited to, the 5 name of the person acting as surrogate and any known ~~[donors]~~ donor.
6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county clerk or the 7 clerk of the supreme, surrogate's or family court shall not display the 8 surname of the child or parties in any document, index, minutes or other 9 record available to the public.

10 § 5. Section 581-206 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of 11 part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

12 § 581-206. Jurisdiction, and exclusive continuing jurisdiction. (a)
13 Proceedings pursuant to this article may be instituted in [~~the~~] New York
14 state supreme [~~or~~] court, family court or surrogates court.

15 (b) The court conducting a proceeding under this article shall have 16 exclusive, continuing jurisdiction of all matters relating to the deter-
17 mination of parentage until the child attains the age of one hundred 18 eighty days, whereafter continuing jurisdiction shall be determined by 19 the jurisdictional standards of section seventy-six of the domestic 20 relations law.

21 (c) Subject to the jurisdictional standards of section seventy-six of 22 the domestic relations law, the court conducting a proceeding under this 23 article has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction of all matters relating 24 to the determination of parentage until the child attains the age of one 25 hundred eighty days.

26 § 6. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 581-207
27 to read as follows:

28 § 581-207. Certified copy of judgment of parentage. Upon issuing a 29 judgment of parentage pursuant to section 581-202 or 581-203 of this
30 part, the issuing court shall provide a certified copy of such judgment
31 to the intended parent or parents.

32 § 7. Subdivision (b) of section 581-303 of the family court act, as 33 added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is
34 amended to read as follows:

35 (b) The court shall issue a judgment of parentage pursuant to this
36 article upon application by any [~~participant~~] person authorized to file
37 a petition pursuant to subdivision (c) of section 581-201 of this arti-
38 cle.

39 § 8. Paragraph 3 of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of section
40 581-306 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of 41 chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, are amended to read as follows:

42 (3) where the intended parents are married, transfer of legal rights
43 and dispositional control [~~occurs only~~] becomes effective upon: (i)
44 living separate and apart pursuant to a decree or judgment of separation 45 or pursuant to a written agreement of separation subscribed by the 46 parties thereto and acknowledged or proved in the form required to enti-
47 tle a deed to be recorded; or (ii) living separate and apart at least 48 three years; or (iii) divorce; or (iv) death.

49 (d) An embryo disposition agreement [~~or advance directive~~] that is not 50 in compliance with subdivision (a) of this section may still be found to 51 be enforceable by the court after balancing the respective interests of 52 the parties except that the intended parent who divested him or herself
53 of legal rights and dispositional control may not be declared to be a
54 parent for any purpose without his or her consent. The intended parent 55 awarded legal rights and dispositional control of the embryos shall, in 56 this instance, be declared to be the only parent of the child.

§ 9. Section 581-402 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-402. Eligibility to enter surrogacy agreement. (a) A person acting as surrogate shall be eligible to enter into an enforceable surrogacy agreement under this article if the person acting as surrogate has met the following requirements at the time the surrogacy agreement is executed:

(1) the person acting as surrogate is at least twenty-one years of age;

(2) the person acting as surrogate: (i) is a United States citizen or a lawful permanent resident, and~~[, where at least one intended parent is not]~~ (ii) has been a resident of New York state for at least six months~~[, was]~~ if neither intended parent has been a resident of New York state for at least six months;

(3) the person acting as surrogate has not provided the egg used to conceive the resulting child;

(4) the person acting as surrogate has completed a medical evaluation with a health care practitioner relating to the anticipated pregnancy. Such medical evaluation shall include a screening of the medical history of the potential surrogate including known health conditions that may pose risks to the potential surrogate or embryo during pregnancy;

(5) the person acting as surrogate has given informed consent ~~[for the surrogacy]~~ to undergo the medical procedures after the licensed health care practitioner ~~[inform]~~ has informed them of the medical risks of surrogacy including the possibility of multiple births, risk of medications taken for the surrogacy, risk of pregnancy complications, psychological and psychosocial risks, and impacts on their personal lives;

(6) the person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, have been represented ~~[throughout]~~ from the initiation of the contractual process and throughout the duration of the ~~[contract and its execution]~~ surrogacy agreement by independent legal counsel of their own choosing who is licensed to practice law in the state of New York which shall be paid for by the intended parent or parents, except that a person acting as surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents pay the fee for such legal counsel. Where the ~~[intended parent or parents are paying for the]~~ independent legal counsel of the person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, is paid by the intended parent or parents, a separate retainer agreement shall be prepared clearly stating that such legal counsel will only represent the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, in all matters pertaining to the surrogacy agreement, that such legal counsel will not offer legal advice to any other parties to the surrogacy agreement, and that the attorney-client relationship lies with the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable;

(7) the person acting as surrogate has or the surrogacy agreement stipulates that the person acting as surrogate will obtain ~~[a]~~ comprehensive health insurance ~~[policy]~~ coverage that takes effect after the person acting as surrogate has been deemed medically eligible but prior to taking any medication or commencing treatment to further embryo transfer that covers ~~[preconception care, prenatal care, major medical treatments, hospitalization, and behavioral health care, and the comprehensive policy has a term that extends throughout the duration of the expected pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a~~

~~stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy; the policy shall be paid for, whether directly or through reimbursement or other means, by the intended parent or parents on behalf of the person acting as surrogate pursuant to the surrogacy agreement, except that a person acting as surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents pay for the health insurance policy. The intended parent or parents shall also pay for or reimburse the person acting as surrogate for all co-payments, deductibles and any other out-of-pocket medical costs associated with preconception, pregnancy, childbirth, or postnatal care, that accrue through twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage, or termination of the pregnancy. A person acting as surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents make such payments or reimbursements]:~~

(i) preconception care. The surrogacy agreement shall state that the intended parent or parents will be responsible for all medical costs of the person acting as surrogate associated with their preconception care including but not limited to medical and psychological screenings, medications, embryo transfer procedure, monitoring prior and subsequent to the embryo transfer procedure and any complications associated with the foregoing. The intended parent or parents shall be responsible for the costs of any such complications either through insurance or by placing and maintaining sufficient funds in escrow to cover such expenses. If the surrogacy agreement is terminated after the person acting as surrogate has taken any medication or commenced treatment to further embryo transfer but before pregnancy is achieved, such funds shall remain in escrow for a minimum period of six months from the date the surrogacy agreement is terminated;

(ii) medical expenses associated with pregnancy. The person acting as surrogate has, or the surrogacy agreement shall stipulate that the person acting as surrogate will obtain, comprehensive health insurance coverage, via one or more insurance policies, prior to or immediately upon confirmation of pregnancy that covers prenatal care, major medical treatments, hospitalization, behavioral health care, childbirth and postnatal care, and that such comprehensive coverage must be in place throughout the duration of the pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of the pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy. The policy shall be paid for, whether directly or through reimbursement or other means, by the intended parent or parents on behalf of the person acting as surrogate to the extent that there is an additional cost to the person acting as surrogate for such health insurance coverage. The intended parent or parents shall also pay for or reimburse the person acting as surrogate for all co-payments, deductibles and any other out-of-pocket medical costs associated with pregnancy, childbirth, or postnatal care, that accrue through twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of the pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy; and

(iii) uncompensated surrogacy agreements. A person acting as surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents make the payments set forth in this section;

(8) the surrogacy agreement must provide that the intended parent or parents shall [procure and] pay for a life insurance, contractual liability or accidental death insurance policy for the person acting as surrogate that takes effect prior to taking any medication or the commencement of medical procedures to further embryo transfer, provides a minimum benefit of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars or the maximum amount the person acting as surrogate qualifies for if it is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, and ~~[has a term that extends]~~ such coverage shall extend throughout the duration of the expected pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy, with a beneficiary or beneficiaries of ~~[their]~~ the person acting as surrogate's choosing. The policy shall be paid for, whether directly or through reimbursement or other means, by the intended parent or parents on behalf of the person acting as surrogate pursuant to the surrogacy agreement, except that a person acting as surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents pay for the life insurance, contractual liability or accidental death insurance policy but not the requirement to have such a policy; and

(9) the person acting as surrogate meets all other requirements deemed appropriate by the commissioner of health regarding the health of the prospective surrogate.

(b) The intended parent or parents shall be eligible to enter into an enforceable surrogacy agreement under this article if he, she or they have met the following requirements at the time the surrogacy agreement was executed:

(1) at least one intended parent is:

(i) a United States citizen or a lawful permanent resident; and
~~[was]~~ (ii) has been a resident of New York state for at least six months if the person acting as surrogate has not been a resident of the state of New York for at least six months;

(2) ~~[the intended parent or parents has]~~ they have been represented ~~[throughout]~~ from the initiation of the contractual process and throughout the duration of the ~~[contract and its execution]~~ surrogacy agreement by independent legal counsel of his, her or their own choosing who is licensed to practice law in the state of New York; and

(3) ~~[he or she is]~~ they are an adult person who is not in a spousal relationship, or ~~[adult]~~ any adults who are spouses together, or any ~~[two]~~ adults who are intimate partners together, except an adult in a spousal relationship is eligible to enter into an enforceable surrogacy agreement without ~~[his or her]~~ their spouse if:

(i) they are living separate and apart pursuant to a decree or judgment of separation or pursuant to a written agreement of separation subscribed by the parties thereto and acknowledged or proved in the form required to entitle a deed to be recorded; or

(ii) they have been living separate and apart for at least three years prior to execution of the surrogacy agreement.

(c) where the spouse of an intended parent is not a required party to the agreement, the spouse is not an intended parent and shall not have rights or obligations to the child.

§ 10. Section 581-403 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-403. Requirements of surrogacy agreement. A surrogacy agreement shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of this article and be enforceable if it meets the following requirements:

(a) it shall be in a ~~[signed]~~ record ~~[verified or executed before]~~ with each signature either notarized or witnessed by two ~~[non-party witnesses]~~ non-parties and signed by:

1 (1) each intended parent, and

2 (2) the person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person
3 acting as surrogate, if ~~[any]~~ applicable, unless:

4 (i) ~~[the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person~~
5 ~~acting as surrogate]~~ they are living separate and apart pursuant to a 6 decree or judgment of separation or pursuant to a written agreement of 7 separation subscribed by the parties thereto and acknowledged or proved 8 in the form required to entitle a deed to be recorded; or

9 (ii) they have been living separate and apart for at least three years
10 prior to execution of the surrogacy agreement;

11 (b) it shall be executed prior to the person acting as surrogate
12 taking any medication or the commencement of medical procedures in the 13 furtherance of embryo transfer, provided the person acting as surrogate
14 shall have provided informed consent to undergo such medical treatment
15 or medical procedures prior to executing the agreement;

16 (c) it shall be executed by a person acting as surrogate meeting the 17 eligibility requirements of subdivision (a) of section 581-402 of this 18 part and by the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, 19 unless the signature of the spouse of the person acting as surrogate is 20 not required as set forth in this section;

21 (d) it shall be executed by intended parent or parents who met the 22 eligibility requirements of subdivision (b) of section 581-402 of this 23 part;

24 (e) the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting 25 as surrogate, if applicable, and the intended parent or parents shall 26 have been represented ~~[throughout]~~ from the initiation of the contractu-
27 al process and the surrogacy agreement states that they shall be repres-
28 ented throughout the duration of the ~~[contract and its execution]~~ surro-
29 gacy agreement by separate, independent legal counsel of their own
30 choosing, who is licensed to practice law in the state of New York;

31 (f) if the surrogacy agreement provides for the payment of compen-
32 sation to the person acting as surrogate, the funds for base compen-33 sation and reasonable anticipated additional expenses shall have been 34 placed in escrow with an independent escrow agent, who consents to the 35 jurisdiction of New York courts for all proceedings related to the 36 enforcement of the escrow agreement, prior to the person acting as 37 surrogate commencing ~~[with]~~ any medical procedure other than medical 38 evaluations necessary to determine the person acting as surrogate's
39 eligibility;

40 (g) the surrogacy agreement must include information disclosing how 41 the intended parent or parents will cover the medical expenses of the 42 person acting as surrogate and the child. The surrogacy agreement shall 43 specify the amount that the intended parent or parents shall place in 44 escrow to cover such reasonable anticipated costs including precon-
45 ception medical care and extending throughout the duration of the 46 expected surrogacy agreement. If it is anticipated that comprehensive 47 health care coverage ~~[is]~~ will be used to cover the medical expenses for 48 the person acting as surrogate, the ~~[disclosure shall include a review~~
49 ~~and summary of the]~~ health care policy provisions related to coverage 50 and exclusions for the person acting as ~~[surrogate's]~~ surrogate shall be 51 reviewed and summarized in relation to the anticipated pregnancy prior 52 to such policy being used to cover any of the person acting as surro-
53 gate's medical expenses incurred pursuant to the surrogacy agreement; 54 and

55 (h) ~~[it]~~ the surrogacy agreement shall include the following informa-
56 tion:

1 (1) the date, city and state where the surrogacy agreement was
2 executed;

3 (2) the first and last names of and contact information for the
4 intended parent or parents and of the person acting as surrogate;

5 (3) the first and last names of and contact information for the 6 persons from which the gametes originated, if known. The agreement shall 7 specify whether the gametes provided were eggs, sperm, or embryos;

8 (4) the name of and contact information for the licensed and regis-
9 tered surrogacy program [~~handling the~~] arranging or facilitating the 10 transactions contemplated by the surrogacy agreement, if any; and

11 (5) the name of and contact information for the attorney representing 12 the person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person acting as 13 surrogate, if applicable, and the attorney representing the intended 14 parent or parents; and

15 (i) the surrogacy agreement must comply with all of the following
16 terms:

17 (1) As to the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person
18 acting as surrogate, if applicable:

19 (i) the person acting as surrogate agrees to undergo embryo transfer
20 and attempt to carry and give birth to the child;

21 (ii) the person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person
22 acting as surrogate, if applicable, agree to surrender custody of all 23 resulting children to the intended parent or parents immediately upon 24 birth;

25 (iii) the surrogacy agreement shall include the name of the attorney 26 representing the person acting as surrogate and, if applicable, the 27 spouse of the person acting as surrogate;

28 (iv) the surrogacy agreement must include an acknowledgement by the 29 person acting as surrogate and the spouse of the person acting as surro-
30 gate, if applicable, that they have received a copy of the Surrogate's
31 Bill of Rights from their legal counsel;

32 (v) the surrogacy agreement must permit the person acting as surrogate 33 to make all health and welfare decisions regarding themselves and their 34 pregnancy including but not limited to, whether to consent to a cesarean
35 section or multiple embryo transfer, and notwithstanding any other
36 provisions in this chapter, provisions in the agreement to the contrary 37 are void and unenforceable. This article does not diminish the right of 38 the person acting as surrogate to terminate or continue a pregnancy;

39 (vi) the surrogacy agreement shall permit the person acting as a
40 surrogate to utilize the services of a health care practitioner of the 41 person's choosing;

42 (vii) the surrogacy agreement shall not limit the right of the person 43 acting as surrogate to terminate or continue the pregnancy or reduce or 44 retain the number of fetuses or embryos the person is carrying;

45 (viii) the surrogacy agreement shall provide for the right of the 46 person acting as surrogate, upon request, to obtain counseling to 47 address issues resulting from the person's participation in the surroga-
48 cy agreement, including, but not limited to, counseling following deliv-
49 ery. The cost of that counseling shall be paid by the intended parent
50 or parents;

51 (ix) the surrogacy agreement must include a notice that any compen-
52 sation received pursuant to the agreement may affect the eligibility of 53 the person acting as [~~surrogate's ability~~] surrogate and the person 54 acting as surrogate's spouse, if applicable, for public benefits or the 55 amount of such benefits; and

(x) the surrogacy agreement shall provide that, upon the person acting as surrogate's request, the intended parent or parents ~~[have or will procure and]~~ shall pay for a disability insurance policy ~~[for]~~ or other insurance policy to cover any lost wages incurred by the person acting as surrogate ~~[; the person acting as surrogate may designate the beneficiary of the person's choosing]~~ in connection with their participation in the surrogacy agreement after taking any medication or commencing treatment to further embryo transfer excluding medical procedures required to determine the medical eligibility to become a person acting as surrogate. In the event that such insurance coverage is not available, the intended parent or parents shall reimburse the person acting as surrogate for any lost wages the person acting as surrogate incurs in connection with their participation in the surrogacy agreement.

(2) As to the intended parent or parents:

(i) the intended parent or parents ~~[agree to]~~ shall accept custody of all resulting children immediately upon birth regardless of number, gender, or mental or physical condition and regardless of whether the ~~[intended]~~ embryo or embryos ~~was or~~ were transferred due to a laboratory error without diminishing the rights, if any, of anyone claiming to have a superior parental interest in the child; and

(ii) the intended parent or parents ~~[agree to]~~ shall assume responsibility for the support of all resulting children immediately upon birth; and

(iii) the surrogacy agreement shall include the name of the attorney representing the intended parent or parents; and

(iv) the surrogacy agreement shall provide that the rights and obligations of the intended parent or parents under the surrogacy agreement are not assignable; and

(v) the intended parent or parents ~~[agree to]~~ shall execute a will, prior to the embryo transfer, designating a guardian for all resulting children and authorizing their executor to perform the ~~[intended parent's or parents']~~ obligations of the intended parent or parents pursuant to the surrogacy agreement, including filing a proceeding for a judgment of parentage for a child conceived pursuant to a surrogacy agreement pursuant to section 581-203 of this article if there is no intended parent living.

§ 11. Subdivision (b) of section 581-404 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The subsequent separation or divorce of the intended parents does not affect the rights, duties and responsibilities of the intended parents as outlined in the surrogacy agreement. After the execution of a surrogacy agreement under this article, the subsequent spousal relationship of the intended parent does not affect the validity of a surrogacy agreement, and the consent of the new spouse of ~~[the]~~ an intended parent to the agreement shall not be required.

§ 12. Section 581-405 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-405. Termination of surrogacy agreement. After the execution of a surrogacy agreement but before the ~~[person acting as surrogate becomes pregnant by means of assisted reproduction,]~~ embryo transfer occurs or after an unsuccessful embryo transfer, the person acting as surrogate, the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, or any intended parent may terminate the surrogacy agreement by giving notice of termination in a record to all other parties. Upon proper termination

1 of the surrogacy agreement the parties are released from all obligations
2 recited in the surrogacy agreement except that the intended parent or 3 parents ~~[remains]~~ shall remain responsible for all ~~[expenses that are~~ 4 ~~reimbursable]~~ lost wages and other financial obligations which have
5 accrued under the agreement ~~[which have been incurred by the person~~
6 ~~acting as surrogate]~~ through the date of termination. If the intended 7 parent or parents terminate the surrogacy agreement pursuant to this 8 section after the person acting as surrogate has taken any medication or 9 commenced treatment to further embryo transfer, such intended parent or 10 parents shall be responsible for paying ~~[for or reimbursing the person~~ 11 ~~acting as surrogate for all co-payments, deductibles,~~ any other out-of-12 pocket medical costs~~[, and any other economic losses]~~ incurred within 13 twelve months ~~[of]~~ after the termination of the agreement ~~[and]~~ which,
14 as documented by a health care practitioner, are associated with taking 15 such medication or undertaking such treatment. Unless the agreement 16 provides otherwise, the person acting as surrogate is entitled to keep 17 all payments received and obtain all payments to which the person is 18 entitled up until the date of termination of the agreement. Neither a 19 person acting as surrogate nor the spouse of the person acting as surro-
20 gate, if ~~[any]~~ applicable, is liable to the intended parent or parents
21 for terminating a surrogacy agreement as provided in this section.

22 § 13. Section 581-406 of the family court act, as added by section 1
23 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as
24 follows:

25 § 581-406. Parentage under compliant surrogacy agreement. Upon the 26 birth of a child conceived by assisted reproduction under a surrogacy 27 agreement that complies with this part, each intended parent is, by 28 operation of law, a parent of the child and neither the person acting as 29 ~~[a]~~ surrogate nor the person's spouse, if ~~[any]~~ applicable, is a parent 30 of the child.

31 § 14. Section 581-409 of the family court act, as added by section 1
32 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as
33 follows:

34 § 581-409. Dispute as to surrogacy agreement. (a) Any dispute which is 35 related to a surrogacy agreement other than disputes as to parentage,
36 which are not resolved through alternative dispute resolution methods, 37 shall be resolved by the supreme court, which shall determine the 38 respective rights and obligations of the parties~~[, in].~~ In any proceed-39 ing initiated pursuant to this section, the court may, at its 40 discretion, authorize the use of conferencing or mediation at any point
41 in the proceedings.

42 (b) Except as expressly provided in the surrogacy agreement~~[, the~~ 43 ~~intended parent or parents and the person acting as surrogate shall be~~
44 ~~entitled to all remedies available at law or equity in any dispute~~
45 ~~related to the surrogacy agreement.~~

46 ~~(c) There shall be no specific performance remedy available for a~~ 47 ~~breach]~~ or subdivision (c) or (d) of this section, if the agreement is 48 breached by the person acting as surrogate, the spouse of the person 49 acting as surrogate, if applicable, or one or more intended parent, the 50 non-breaching party shall be entitled to all remedies available at law
51 or in equity in any dispute related to the surrogacy agreement.

52 (c) Specific performance shall not be a remedy available for a breach 53 by a person acting as surrogate of a provision in the surrogacy agree-
54 ment that the person acting as surrogate be impregnated, agree to a 55 multiple embryo transfer, terminate or not terminate a pregnancy, or 56 submit to medical procedures including a cesarean section.

(d) If any intended parent is adjudicated to be the parent of the child, specific performance is a remedy available for: (1) breach of the surrogacy agreement by a person acting as surrogate which prevents the intended parent or parents from exercising the full rights of parentage immediately upon the birth of the child; or (2) breach by the intended parent or parents by failure to accept the duties of parentage immediately upon the birth of the child.

(e) In any proceeding initiated pursuant to this section, where the supreme court determines that the dispute involves both contractual and parentage issues, the court may order that the portion of the proceedings raising parentage issues may be transferred to the family or surrogate's court.

§ 15. Section 581-502 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-502. Compensation. (a) Compensation may be paid to a donor or person acting as surrogate based on medical risks, physical discomfort, inconvenience and the responsibilities they are undertaking in connection with their participation in the assisted reproduction. Under no circumstances may compensation be paid to purchase gametes or embryos or for the release of a parental interest in a child.

(b) The compensation, if any, paid to a donor or person acting as surrogate must be reasonable and negotiated in good faith between the parties~~[, and said payments]~~. Base compensation paid to a person acting as surrogate shall not exceed the duration of the pregnancy and recuperative period of ~~[up to]~~ eight weeks after the birth of any resulting ~~[children]~~ child. Supplemental compensation for any medical procedure associated with complications from the pregnancy or delivery as confirmed by a health care practitioner, and any associated lost wages, may be, but are not required to be, paid after the recuperative period and until twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of the pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy.

(c) Compensation may not be conditioned upon the purported quality or genome-related traits of the gametes or embryos.

(d) Compensation may not be conditioned on actual genotypic or phenotypic characteristics of the donor or donors or of any resulting children.

(e) Compensation to ~~[an]~~ any embryo donor shall be limited to storage fees, transportation costs and attorneys' fees.

§ 16. Section 581-601 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-601. Applicability. The rights enumerated in this part shall apply to any person acting as surrogate ~~[in this state]~~ under the laws of the state of New York, notwithstanding any surrogacy agreement, judgment of parentage, memorandum of understanding, verbal agreement or contract to the contrary. Except as otherwise provided by law, any written or verbal agreement purporting to waive or limit any of the rights in this part is void as against public policy. The rights enumerated in this part are not exclusive, and are in addition to any other rights provided by law, regulation, or a surrogacy agreement that meets the requirements of this article.

§ 17. Section 581-603 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-603. Independent legal counsel. A person acting as surrogate, and the spouse of the person acting as surrogate, if applicable, has the right to be represented ~~[throughout]~~ from the initiation of the contractual process and throughout the duration of the surrogacy agreement ~~[and its execution]~~ by independent legal counsel of their own choosing who is licensed to practice law in the state of New York, to be paid for by the intended parent or parents.

§ 18. Section 581-604 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-604. Health insurance and medical costs. A person acting as surrogate has the right to have [a] comprehensive health insurance ~~[policy]~~ coverage that covers preconception ~~[care, prenatal care, major medical treatments, hospitalization and behavioral health care]~~ medical expenses and medical expenses associated with the pregnancy for a ~~[term]~~ period that extends throughout the duration of the expected pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy, to be paid for by the intended parent or parents. ~~[The intended parent or parents shall also pay for or reimburse the person acting as surrogate for all co-payments, deductibles and any other out-of-pocket medical costs associated with pregnancy, childbirth, or post-natal care that accrue through]~~ In addition, a person acting as a surrogate shall have the right to have the intended parent or parents pay for all of their medical expenses incurred in connection with the surrogacy agreement, continuing through the duration of the expected pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in the termination of pregnancy, or the termination of the pregnancy. A person acting as a surrogate who is receiving no compensation may waive the right to have the intended parent or parents make such payments or reimbursements.

§ 19. Section 581-605 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-605. Counseling. A person acting as surrogate has the right to ~~[obtain a comprehensive health insurance policy that covers behavioral health care and will cover the cost of psychological]~~ mental health counseling to address issues resulting from their participation in [a] the surrogacy ~~[and such policy]~~ agreement, which shall be paid for by an insurance policy or by the intended parent or parents.

§ 20. Section 581-606 of the family court act, as added by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 581-606. Life insurance, contractual liability, or accidental death insurance policy. A person acting as surrogate has the right to be provided a life insurance, contractual liability or accidental death insurance policy that takes effect prior to taking any medication or commencement of treatment to further embryo transfer, provides a minimum benefit of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, or the maximum amount the person acting as surrogate ~~[qualifying]~~ qualifies for ~~[it]~~ if less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, and ~~[has a term that extends]~~ such coverage shall extend throughout the duration of the expected pregnancy and for twelve months after the birth of the child, a stillbirth, a miscarriage resulting in termination of pregnancy, or termination of the pregnancy, with a beneficiary or beneficiaries of ~~[their]~~ the person

1 acting as surrogate's choosing, to be paid for by the intended parent or
2 parents.

3 § 21. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 581-705
4 to read as follows:

5 § 581-705. Adjudication. (a) A court adjudicating the parentage of a
6 child conceived through assisted reproduction or adjudicating the 7 enforceability of an embryo disposition agreement may apply section
8 581-202 and part three of this article retroactively.

9 (b) The participants in a surrogacy agreement that involved the 10 payment of compensation prior to February fifteenth, two thousand twen-11 ty-two shall not be eligible to receive a judgment of parentage pursuant 12 to section 581-203 or section 581-406 of this article, but shall be 13 entitled to seek a judgment of parentage pursuant to section 581-407 of 14 this article.

15 (c) This article shall apply retroactively to uncompensated surrogacy
16 agreements entered into prior to February fifteenth, two thousand twen-17 ty-two.

18 (d) Surrogacy agreements that were executed on or after February 19 fifteenth, two thousand twenty-three, but before the effective date of 20 the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-four that added this 21 subdivision that were in compliance with this article before it was 22 amended by the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-four that 23 added this subdivision shall be deemed a compliant surrogacy agreement
24 pursuant to section 581-406 of this article regardless of any deviations
25 from the current provisions of this article.

26 § 22. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 123 of the domestic 27 relations law, as amended by section 5 of part L of chapter 56 of the 28 laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

29 (a) Any party to a genetic surrogate parenting agreement or the spouse 30 of any ~~[part]~~ party to a genetic surrogate parenting agreement who 31 ~~[violate]~~ violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not 32 to exceed five hundred dollars.

33 § 23. Subdivision (c) of section 1400 of the general business law, as 34 added by section 11 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is
35 amended to read as follows:

36 (c) "Surrogacy program" does not include any party to a surrogacy
37 agreement or any person licensed to practice law and representing a 38 party to the surrogacy agreement, but does include and is not limited to 39 any agency, agent, business, or individual engaged in, arranging, or 40 facilitating transactions contemplated by a surrogacy agreement, regard-
41 less of whether such agreement ultimately comports with the requirements
42 of part four of article five-C of the family court act. Any person 43 licensed to practice law shall be deemed a surrogacy program only in 44 those cases where such person is providing matching services to the 45 intended parent or parents and the person acting as a surrogate.

46 § 24. Section 1401 of the general business law, as added by section 11
47 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as
48 follows:

49 § 1401. Surrogacy programs regulated under this article. The 50 provisions of this article apply to surrogacy programs arranging or
51 facilitating transactions contemplated by a surrogacy agreement, regard-
52 less of whether such agreement ultimately comports with the requirements
53 under part four of article five-C of the family court act if:

54 (a) The surrogacy program does business in New York state; or

(b) A person acting as surrogate who is party to a surrogacy agreement resides in New York state [~~during the term of~~] at the time the surrogacy agreement[~~;~~ ~~or~~

~~(c) Any medical procedures under the surrogacy agreement are performed in New York state~~] is executed.

§ 25. Subdivisions (a) and (f) of section 1403 of the general business law, as added by section 11 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, are amended to read as follows:

(a) Shall keep all funds paid by or on behalf of the intended parent or parents other than funds paid to the surrogacy program for its fees, in an escrow account separate from its operating accounts; and

(f) Shall be licensed to operate in New York state pursuant to regulations promulgated by the department of health in consultation with the department of financial services[~~, once such regulations are promulgated and become effective~~]; and

§ 26. Subdivision 1 of section 1404 of the general business law, as added by section 11 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

1. The department of health, in consultation with the department of financial services, shall promulgate rules and regulations to implement the requirements of this article regarding surrogacy programs and assisted reproduction service providers in a manner that ensures the safety and health of gamete providers and persons serving as surrogates. Such regulations shall:

(a) Require surrogacy programs to monitor compliance with [~~surrogacy agreements~~] eligibility [~~and requirements in state law~~] criteria for the intended parents and persons acting as surrogates pursuant to section 581-402 of the family court act; and

(b) Require the [~~surrogacy programs and~~] assisted reproduction service providers to administer informed consent procedures that comply with regulations promulgated by the department of health under section twenty-five hundred ninety-nine-cc of the public health law.

§ 27. This act shall take effect immediately.
