Introduced by M. of A. GIBBS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the executive law, in relation to enacting the "universal stop false police reporting act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "universal stop false police reporting act".

3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 175.50 and 4 175.55 to read as follows:

5 § 175.50 Offering a false report for filing in the second degree.

6 A law enforcement officer is guilty of offering a false report for 7 filing in the second degree when, having previously been disciplined by 8 his or her employer for filing a false report, and knowing that a writ-
9 ten report contains a false statement or information about another 10 person, in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or percep-
11 tion regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, reli-12 gion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of such 13 other person, the law enforcement officer offers or presents such report 14 regarding the commission of any crime or any investigation of any crime
15 to the agency which employs such officer with the knowledge or belief 16 that it will be filed with, registered or recorded in or otherwise 17 become a part of the records of such agency.

18 Offering a false report for filing in the second degree is a class A 19 misdemeanor.

20 § 175.55 Offering a false report for filing in the first degree.

21 A law enforcement officer is guilty of offering a false report for 22 filing in the first degree when having previously been convicted of 23 offering a false report for filing in the second degree and having 24 previously been placed on unpaid leave by his or her employer for filing 25 a later false report, such law enforcement officer, knowing that a writ-
