AN ACT to amend the insurance law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to owner's policies of liability insurance issued by a risk retention group not chartered within this state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 5913 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 109 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:

§ 5913. Financial responsibility. ~~[Wherever]~~ Except as provided in sections three hundred eleven and three hundred seventy of the vehicle and traffic law, wherever pursuant to the laws of this state or any political subdivision of this state a demonstration of financial responsibility is required as a condition for obtaining a license or permit to undertake specified activities, if any such requirement may not be satisfied by obtaining insurance coverage from an insurer not authorized to do business in this state, such requirement may not be satisfied by purchasing insurance from a risk retention group not chartered in this state. Every insurance policy issued by a risk retention group not chartered in this state pursuant to sections three hundred eleven and three hundred seventy of the vehicle and traffic law shall contain the notice set forth in section five thousand nine hundred five of this article.

§ 2. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 4 of section 311 of the vehicle and traffic law, paragraph (c) as amended by chapter 200 of the laws of 1974, are amended to read as follows:

(b) In the case of a vehicle registered in this state, a policy issued by (i) an insurer duly authorized to transact business in this state or

(ii) a risk retention group not chartered in this state but which is registered with the superintendent under the federal liability risk retention act of 1986, comprised entirely of organizations that are tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code and where the risk retention group qualifies as a charitable risk pool under section 501(n) of the federal internal revenue code; or

(c) In the case of a vehicle lawfully registered in another state, or in both this state and another state, [~~either~~] (i) a policy issued by an authorized insurer, or (ii) a risk retention group not chartered in this state but which is registered with the superintendent under the federal liability risk retention act of 1986, comprised entirely of organizations that are tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code and where the risk retention group qualifies as a charitable risk pool under section 501(n) of the federal internal revenue code, or (iii) a policy issued by an unauthorized insurer authorized to transact business in another state if such unauthorized insurer files with the commissioner in form to be approved by [~~him~~] them a statement consenting to service of process and declaring its policies shall be deemed to be varied to comply with the requirements of this article; and

§ 3. The opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 311 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 569 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

The term "certificate of insurance" shall mean any evidence issued by or on behalf of an insurance company duly authorized to transact business in this state, or a risk retention group authorized to issue an owner's policy of liability insurance pursuant to subdivision four of this section, stating in such form as the commissioner may prescribe or approve that such company or such risk retention group has issued an owner's policy of liability insurance on the motor vehicle or vehicles designated therein. Such certificate shall contain information as required by the commissioner including at least the following except as otherwise provided:

§ 4. Subdivision 10 of section 311 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 103 of the laws of 1972, is amended to read as follows:

10. "Insurance Identification Card" shall mean a card issued by or on behalf of an insurance company or bonding company duly authorized to transact business in this state, or a risk retention group authorized to issue an owner's policy of liability insurance pursuant to subdivision four of this section, stating in such form as the commissioner may prescribe or approve that such company or such risk retention group has issued an owner's policy of liability insurance or a financial security bond on the motor vehicle or vehicles designated therein. Such card shall contain such information and shall be valid during such period as may be prescribed by the commissioner. If an owner shall have filed a financial security deposit, or shall have qualified as a self-insurer under section three hundred sixteen of this [~~chapter~~] article, the term "insurance identification card" shall mean a card issued by the department which evidences that such deposit has been filed or that such owner has so qualified.

§ 5. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 370 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 20 of the laws of 2002 and as further amended by section 104 of part A of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

Every person, firm, association or corporation engaged in the business of carrying or transporting passengers for hire in any motor vehicle or

1 motorcycle, except street cars, and motor vehicles or motorcycles owned 2 and operated by a municipality, and except as otherwise provided in this 3 section, which shall be operated over, upon or along any public street 4 or highway of the state of New York shall file with the commissioner of 5 motor vehicles for each motor vehicle or motorcycle intended to be so 6 operated evidence, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, of a 7 corporate surety bond or a policy of insurance[7]: (a) approved as to 8 form by the superintendent of financial services in a company authorized 9 to do business in the state, approved by the superintendent as to 10 solvency and responsibility[7]; or (b) a risk retention group not char-11 tered in this state but which is registered with the superintendent of 12 financial services under the federal liability risk retention act of 13 1986, comprised entirely of organizations that are tax-exempt under 14 section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code and where the 15 risk retention group qualifies as a charitable risk pool under section 16 501(n) of the federal internal revenue code. Such surety bond or policy 17 of insurance shall be conditioned for the payment of a minimum sum, 18 hereinafter called minimum liability, on a judgment or judgments for 19 damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of 20 bodily injury to, or death of any one person in any one accident, and 21 subject to such minimum liability a maximum sum, hereinafter called 22 maximum liability on a judgment or judgments for damages, including 23 damages for care and loss of services because of bodily injury to, or 24 death of two or more persons in any one accident and for the payment of 25 a minimum sum, called minimum liability on all judgments for damages 26 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one 27 accident, recovered against such person, firm, association or corpo-
28 ration upon claims arising out of the same transaction or transactions 29 connected with the same subject of action, to be apportioned ratably 30 among the judgment creditors according to the amount of their respective 31 judgments for damage or injury caused in the operation, maintenance, use 32 or the defective construction of such motor vehicle or motorcycle as 33 follows:

34 § 6. Three years after the effective date of this act, the superinten-35 dent of financial services, in consultation with the commissioner of 36 motor vehicles, shall study the impact of this act to determine the 37 efficacy of risk retention groups not chartered in this state issuing 38 vehicle insurance policies. Such study shall examine certain factors, 39 including, but not limited to: the quality and practicability of cover-40 age on automotive accidents covered under such insurance policies, the 41 magnitude of need and interest in these types of insurance policies 42 across the state, customer satisfaction and fiscal surety using such 43 policies, the ability of the state to regulate such policies through the 44 federal limited risk retention act, and other data as is practicable 45 that would assess the potential impact on nonprofits that could be 46 covered by the expansion of eligibility of these policies for organiza-
47 tions that are tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the federal inter-48 nal revenue code. Such superintendent shall report the findings and any 49 recommendations of such study to the governor and the legislature no 50 later than four years after the effective date of this act.

51 § 7. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day
52 after it shall have become a law.
