2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 10, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to certain school holidays; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that the 2 festival of Diwali is celebrated by a growing number of Hindu, Buddhist,
3 Jain and Sikh residents, including Native New Yorkers and residents of 4 the city of New York hailing from several countries including India,
5 Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal, Myanmar, Bhutan, Guyana, Trinidad and Tobago
6 and Sri Lanka. In recognition of the importance of this festival to 7 these residents, it is the legislature's intent that this act allows
8 Diwali to be designated as a school holiday in the city school district 9 of the city of New York while continuing to allow the district to ensure 10 that schools are in session for 180 days.

11 § 2. Section 2586 of the education law is REPEALED.

12 § 3. Subdivision 2-a of section 3635 of the education law, as amended 13 by chapter 424 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

14 2-a. The superintendent of each city school district, in a city having 15 a population in excess of one million, shall prepare a public school
16 calendar and shall notify officials of nonpublic schools to which transportation 17 has been requested not later than the first day of June in 18 each year, of the days on which the public schools will be in session in 19 the following school year. Such school district which provides transportation 20 to nonpublic schools shall provide such transportation for the 21 same number of days as the public schools are open but shall not provide 22 transportation services for more than one hundred eighty days. Officials 23 of each nonpublic school to which transportation is provided by a 24 city school district of a city having a population in excess of one
25 million may notify such district, not later than the first day of July

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 of each school year, of a maximum of five days, exclusive of Saturdays,
2 Sundays or legal holidays upon which public schools are required to be 3 closed, on which the public schools are scheduled to be closed, except 4 that in any year in which the first or last day of Passover and Easter 5 Sunday are separated by more than seven days, such officials may notify 6 the district of a maximum of ten days, but such school district will be 7 required to provide for transportation to such nonpublic school provided 8 that such five or ten additional days, whichever is applicable, are 9 limited to the following: the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday
10 after Labor Day, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, the week in which public 11 schools are closed for spring recess, December twenty-fourth and the 12 week between Christmas day and New Year's day, and the Tuesday, Wednes-
13 day, Thursday and Friday after the observance of Washington's birthday[
14 ~~and, in the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens only, Anniversary Day as~~ 15 ~~designated in section twenty-five hundred eighty-six of this chapter~~].

16 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding 17 the date on which it shall have become a law.
