22 c. accidents and illnesses that resulted in hospitalization including
23 the type of such accident or illness;

24 d. sexual assaults against program participants;

25 e. incidents that resulted in a police report including type of inci-
26 dent; and

27 f. with respect to the incidents described in paragraphs b through e
28 of this subdivision, whether the incidents occurred:

29 i. during program participation;

30 ii. during students own time;

31 iii. on campus; and

32 iv. off campus.

33 g. the location of the incident;

34 h. the time of the incident; and

35 i. the date of the incident.

36 3. Study abroad organizations shall also report on ethical relation-
37 ships and conflict of interest avoidance policies with all major part-
38 ners.

39 4. Colleges with enrollments below three thousand will report data to 40 the department to be made available with the institution of reference
41 redacted.

42 5. Study abroad organizations shall include references to the avail-
43 ability of the reports identified in this section on all websites and 44 printed materials.

45 6. The department shall make the reports required in this section
46 available to any state legislator upon request.

47 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
