IN ASSEMBLY

May 11, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. JACOBSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to authorizing the city of Newburgh to add unpaid housing code violation penalties, costs and fines to such city's annual tax levy in accordance with applicable law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 903 to read as follows:

3 § 903. Collection of unpaid housing code violation penalties; levy. 1.
4 Authorization. In addition to and not in limitation of any power otherwise
5 granted by law, the city of Newburgh is hereby authorized to 6 collect any unpaid housing, building and fire code violation penalties,
7 costs and fines through placement by the city's director of finance,
8 treasurer, or other public official charged with the duties of oversee-9 ing tax collections on the city's annual tax levy in accordance with the 10 provisions of this section.

11 2. Eligibility. (a) In order to be eligible for placement on the 12 municipality's annual tax levy such unpaid code violation penalties,
13 costs and fines shall have been adjudicated and imposed through a judg-
14 ment in a court of competent jurisdiction on an owner of real property 15 within the city and recorded by the county clerk, as certified by the 16 city's corporation counsel to the director of finance, treasurer or 17 other public official charged with the duties of overseeing tax
18 collections and have remained unpaid for one year after the final adju-19 dication and exhaustion of all appeals relating to the imposition of the 20 finances for a code violation preceding the placement on the city's tax 21 levy.

22 (b) Maximum amount subject to tax levy. The amount of judgment placed 23 on the tax levy shall be no greater than five percent of the full market

1 value of the property as reflected in the tax assessment roll in the 2 year in which judgment was rendered. Any judgment amount in excess of 3 the maximum amount subject to tax levy shall be placed as a lien on the 4 property pursuant to applicable laws for debt collection and an action
5 for foreclosure of the property shall not be maintained for this amount 6 owed.

7 3. Levy. Such code violation penalty, cost or fine as set forth in a 8 copy of the judgment certified by the city's corporation counsel to the 9 director of finance, treasurer or other public official charged with the 10 duties of overseeing tax collections shall be set down in the annual tax 11 levy under the heading uncollected fines and penalties and in accordance 12 with this section shall be levied, enforced and collected in the same 13 manner, by the same proceedings, at the same time, under the same penal-
14 ties and having the same lien upon the property assessed as the general
15 city tax and as a part thereof.

16 4. Notice. The city shall notify all owners of record of the placement 17 of the code violations on the city tax levy as uncollected fines and 18 penalties within thirty days of placement, pursuant to section three 19 hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules. The notice shall 20 include the date or dates of such violations, the description of the 21 violations, the amount owed, a statement detailing the foreclosure proc-
22 ess that will occur if the violations remain unpaid and the contact
23 information for the city office in charge of receiving payments.

24 5. Tax year. Any unpaid code violations shall be placed on the tax 25 roll the city is currently in and shall not be placed on a list, roll or 26 levy of delinquent taxes.

27 6. Tenants. Prior to the placement of any property with unpaid code
28 violations on the tax levy, the city shall develop a program to assist 29 tenants residing in a dwelling at risk for tax foreclosure due to unpaid
30 code violations. Such program shall include housing counseling assist-31 ance or other support in relocating the tenants to suitable housing
32 prior to the tax foreclosure.

33 7. Payment plan. Nothing in this section shall preclude an owner or 34 landlord from entering into a payment plan with the city for past
35 amounts due for code violations in accordance with section eleven
36 hundred eighty-four of this chapter.

37 8. Curing code violations. (a) If all of the violations for which the 38 penalties, fees and costs have been assessed are cured, removed or 39 corrected prior to the expiration of the period for redemption pursuant 40 to section eleven hundred ten of this chapter, and penalties, costs and 41 finances are paid in full, the property shall be removed from the levy.

42 (b) The determination of whether or not the code violations have been 43 cured shall be made by the city enforcing officer in charge of ensuring 44 compliance with applicable housing, building, and fire codes such as a
45 code enforcement officer. An appeal of this determination may be made
46 to the city's zoning board of appeals or other local administrative body
47 as provided for in local law. The final determination made by the admin-48 istrative body shall be reviewable pursuant to article seventy-eight of 49 the civil practice law and rules.

50 9. Payment prior to auction. (a) If the balance owed for code
51 violations placed on the tax levy is paid prior to the expiration of the 52 period for redemption pursuant to section eleven hundred ten of this 53 chapter and there is no balance due for unpaid real property taxes, the 54 property may not be auctioned, and the property shall be removed from 55 the tax levy.

1 (b) The owner shall have the right to pay the full balance prior to 2 the expiration of the period for redemption pursuant to section eleven
3 hundred ten of this chapter in order to redeem the property.

4 10. Balance due. If after an auction a balance is due for code
5 violations, the city may proceed with any action against the former 6 owner pursuant to applicable laws.

7 11. Exclusions. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the 8 city if the city sells its tax liens in a tax lien sale.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
