IN ASSEMBLY

February 12, 2024

Introduced by M. of A. BURGOS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Energy

AN ACT to amend the energy law, in relation to code requirements for heavy distribution centers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The energy law is amended by adding a new section 11-111 to read as follows:

§ 11-111. Special code requirements for heavy distribution centers. 1. Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Electric vehicle charging station" shall mean a station that delivers electricity from a source outside an electric vehicle into one or more electric vehicles. An electric vehicle charging station may include several charge points simultaneously connecting several electric vehicles to the station and any related equipment needed to facilitate charging plug-in electric vehicles.

(b) "Heavy distribution center" shall mean a facility that (i) contains at least fifty thousand square feet of total floor space that is used for warehouse activities; and (ii) has as its primary purpose the temporary storage, sorting, and redistribution of goods to fulfill e-commerce orders by receiving shipments of goods from one mode of transport and redistributing those goods via a delivery vehicle. A "heavy distribution center" shall not include any facility where goods are manufactured or assembled on site and temporarily stored prior to distribution, or any facility that has as its primary purpose the temporary storage of food products for wholesale distribution.

(c) "Last mile delivery" shall refer to the final portion of a parcel's journey from a heavy distribution center to a consumer or end-user.

(d) "Parcel hub" shall mean a sorting facility at which parcels are received, sorted, and distributed for last mile delivery.

(e) "Person" means an individual, partnership, limited liability company, society, association, joint stock company, corporation, estate,
