COMMEMORATING the 99th Anniversary of The Bronxville Women's Club

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize that the quality and character of life in the communities across New York State are reflective of the concerned and dedicated efforts of those organizations and individuals who would devote themselves to the welfare of the community and its citizenry; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 99th Anniversary of The Bronxville Women's Club, to be celebrated at its "99 Years" event on April 24, 2024, in Bronxville, New York; and

WHEREAS, Anna Lawrence Bisland founded The Bronxville Women's Club in 1925 when she organized representatives of various local organizations to meet, and with 176 women enrolled, the club was then established; she additionally was the first president of The Bronxville Women's Club; and

WHEREAS, At first, The Bronxville Women's Club rented property in Lawrence Park West for its clubhouse, but soon ran out of space; Anna Lawrence Bisland donated the present site at the corner of Midland and Tanglewylde Avenues, and, with a thousand members contributing fifty dollars each and a mortgage, the building of a new clubhouse began; and

WHEREAS, The Bronxville Women's Club still operates at the latter location, and was even registered on the Westchester County Inventory of Historic Places in 1999 and on the National List of Historic Places in 2007; the building itself has been newly named the Anna Lawrence Bisland 1928 House; and

WHEREAS, Membership of The Bronxville Women's Club is open to all women and men who are interested in a diverse selection of educational, cultural, civic, health and art programs; the club also hosts literature, music, philanthropy, and even children's programs; and

WHEREAS, Theater, social entertainment, lectures and guest speakers, art sessions, and dance are also pillars of The Bronxville Women's Club; and

WHEREAS, Philanthropic events hosted by The Bronxville Women's Club raise funds that are distributed to local charities and non-profit organizations, emphasizing the club's commitment to community service; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that when organizations of such noble aims and accomplishments are brought to our attention, they should be celebrated and recognized by all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the 99th Anniversary of The Bronxville Women's Club; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Bronxville Women's Club.
