COMMEMORATING the observance of Portugal Day in the State of New York, on June 10, 2024

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body, in keeping with its time-honored traditions, to recognize and pay tribute to those events which foster ethnic pride and enhance the profile of cultural diversity which strengthens the fabric of the communities of New York State; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the observance of Portugal Day in the State of New York, on June 10, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Every 10th day of June, the Portuguese diaspora around the world observes Portugal Day, their national holiday known as Dia de Portugal which celebrates the history and heritage of Portugal; and

WHEREAS, The Portuguese American community in New York has been an integral part of our great state since its inception with long standing community centers in Mineola, Yonkers, Farmingville, Brooklyn, Manhattan, New Rochelle, Tarrytown, Ossining, and Mount Vernon among others; and

WHEREAS, This date also commemorates the death of Luis de Camoes, a significant figure in the history of Portugal; he is best known for his work on Lusiadas, the national epic poem of Portugal which celebrates the nation's successes and rich history; and

WHEREAS, Since then, the country's national day was established and subsequently celebrated on June 10th; it is because of uncertainties on Camoes' birth date that Portugal Day was established to commemorate the hero's death; and

WHEREAS, The borders of the Nation of Portugal were defined in 1143, making it one of the oldest nations in the world; in fact, Lisbon is actually four centuries older than Rome; and

WHEREAS, Portuguese is one of the 10 most spoken languages in the world, with over 250 million Portuguese speakers around the globe, and is the official language in nine countries, Brazil, Mozambique, Angola, Portugal, Guinea-Bissau, East Timor, Equatorial Guinea, Macau, Cape Verde, Sao Tome, and Principle; and

WHEREAS, In 2021, Portugal came in 4th place on the Global Peace Index (GPI), making it one of the most peaceful countries in the world; and

WHEREAS, Portugal is a European leader in sustainable energy; in March of 2018, Portugal generated 100 percent of its energy through renewable sources such as hydro, wind, and solar power; and

WHEREAS, In 2020, Portugal ranked as the 4th green country in the European Union across six categories, including waste, energy, greenhouse gases, air quality, fresh water, and natural land; Portugal was also among the first countries in the world to set 2050 carbon neutrality goals; and

WHEREAS, On July 1, 2001, Portugal became the first country in the world to decriminalize all drugs; today, the country has some of the lowest drug usage rates in the European Union, where most countries hold criminalization models; and

WHEREAS, Portugal is home to the world's largest cork forest, making up 34 percent of the world's area of cork forests and producing more than 50 percent of the world's cork supply; and

WHEREAS, Due to its many achievements and low cost of living and tax incentives, retirees from all over the world settle in Portugal; retirees can make use of the NHR regime, a quality healthcare system, and an all-around high standard of living; and

WHEREAS, Each year, tourists also travel to Portugal, approximately eight million of which visit the site of the Fatima apparitions and the Miracle of the Sun; in 1917, three shepherd children witnessed the apparition of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, six times over six months; these three apparitions and the spread of the messages throughout the city culminated in the Miracle of the Sun, allegedly witnessed by over 70,000 people; and now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the observance of Portugal Day in the State of New York, on June 10, 2024; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Luisa Pais Lowe, the Consul General of Portugal in New York.
