

Senate Resolution No. 2604

BY: Senator WALCZYK

COMMENDING Jack Beyer upon the occasion of his designation as State President of the Future Farmers of America

WHEREAS, Individuals who give of their time and energies and serve the best interests of their communities are an asset beyond remuneration and cannot be sufficiently extolled; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is justly proud to commend Jack Beyer upon the occasion of his designation as State President of the Future Farmers of America; it is with great pleasure that this Legislative Body acknowledges noteworthy events which deserve special recognition; and

WHEREAS, At age 17, Jack Beyer is a third-generation farmer at Glory Days Farm in Lowville, New York; the farm has 120 cows and is comprised of 500 acres; and

WHEREAS, Jack Beyer has been an active member of Lowville Academy's Future Farmers of America (FFA) chapter for six years; after a rigorous interview process, he was elected as the State President; and

WHEREAS, Jack Beyer has given not only of his time and energies but also of his competence, intelligence, and leadership, consequently being designated for this special honor; he attributes his selection as State President to his passion and drive, recently completing officer training; and

WHEREAS, As State President, Jack Beyer plans to facilitate workshops, visit other chapters of the FFA, vote on national FFA laws, and advocate for agriculture, a significant part of the foundation upon which our distinct American heritage was built; and

WHEREAS, Attending an agricultural college and potentially serving as a lobbyist or working in a governmental agency are Jack Beyer's main objectives; he hopes to inspire other students to take advantage of opportunities which are offered by the FFA; he is enthusiastic about the upcoming year during which he will lead New York State's Future Farmers of America and work with his team; and

WHEREAS, Rare indeed is the impressive dedication shown by an individual for the benefit of others which Jack Beyer has displayed throughout his life; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commend Jack Beyer upon the occasion of his designation as State President of the Future Farmers of America; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Jack Beyer.
